A branch of a new Irish fraternal society which organized in Cleveland, Ohio, some time ago, has been started in this city. The objects of the order are to create and foster a spirit of helpfulness among its members and to advance them intellectually and socially. The Rochester court has some of our prominent citizens on its rolls. On Thursday evening the spacious meeting rooms were filled to overflowing, when eleven candidates were received into the order. Large delegations from Buffalo and Syracuse were present and assisted in the degree work. After the ceremonies were over refreshments were served at Buckley's restaurant where, after the inner man had been looked after, cigars were lighted and Brother J. P. Henry called the banquet to order. He named as toastmaster Brother Nannahan of Buffalo, who in a pleasant manner fulfilled the duties assigned to him. Among those who responded to toasts were Dennis Ryan, National organizer, and E. J. McCormack, Buffalo, P. J. Enright and Brother Dorsey, Syracuse, and Lawrence McCreel, Rochester. Two brothers from Buffalo sang several good old Irish songs and Brother Driscoll of Rochester told some of his funny stories, after which he sang a song. It was past midnight when the programme was finished, and as the visiting brothers were obliged to leave on the 1 o'clock train, the meeting adjourned and the Rochester boys escorted the brothers to the depot.

Among the untamed Celts who invaded the city were John A. Duffy, J. H. Scanlon and Joseph Cragle of Buffalo.

BAKER THEATRE

Week of June 10th. The Baker Stock Company will present,

"THE GATHERING STORM."

COOK OPERA HOUSE.

Manager Moore has decided to give vaudeville a rest and has made arrangements for the appearance this summer of one of the biggest and best comic opera companies on the road, which will open the season at Cook Opera House next Monday, June 10th. Scores of workmen and artists have been busy the past week in making preparations for the opening, and everything will be in readiness for the entrance of the Murray-Lane Opera company on Monday. Prof. August Rohde's favorite orchestra has been engaged for the occasion.

Pretty and petite Clara Lane of the Murray-Lane Opera company, which commences an engagement at the Cook Opera House on Monday, June 10th, is one of the most popular ladies in the theatrical world, and is ever in the same happy mood on and off the stage.

Miss Lane has been connected with many of the finest opera companies traveling, including the Lillian Russell company. For two seasons she and Mr. Murray have been the stars of that capable organization known as the Castle Square Opera company. The Richmond Daily Times in speaking of the opera says: "The principals are stars and the chorus is excellent. The costuming was rich and beautiful and the scenery was superb. Miss Clara Lane in the title role was a perfect success. She is a dainty, sweet looking little woman, well fitted to the character, and possesses rare dramatic ability and a sweet contralto voice that won for her the applause of every soul in the theatre. Mr. Murray sang "Ravenna," and his rich baritone voice added much to the success of the production. Mr. Murray is a finished actor. Harry Brown was refreshing as an operatic comedian. The tenor of the company, Joseph W. Smith, is one of the most favorite operatic singers that has visited the city. His voice is beautiful. Miss Jennie Weathersbee as the "Princess," "Murray Woods as 'Chevalier,' and the 'Javotte' of Julia Glover pleased the audience. The company has scored a success that means much." Popular prices will prevail at Cook's with ten cent matinees Monday, Wednesday and Saturday.

BAKER THEATRE.

What is designed to be the largest production of the season of the season as well as the most pretentious effort, will be the offering of the Baker stock company next week, when it will present for the first time on any stage Owen Davis' new play, "The Gathering Storm." It scenic environment it will be given the most massive production that has ever been seen here during a stock season. Over one hundred people will be employed on the stage, which will mean not alone the regular company, but several actors engaged especially for this production. It will include a large body of colored men, women and children, and a company of soldiers. The action of the play is founded upon the Nat Turner slave insurrection during the days of 1832 in the state of Virginia. It can be classified as a problem play, although concealed in the guise of a melodrama. It shows all the types of of the south and depicts more particularly the comedy side of negro life. During the action of the play the amusements of the southern negro will be depicted in cake walks, musical numbers and other specialties, incidentally introduced. Without a single doubt this production is the largest and most expensive ever attempted by a local stock company, and yet there will be no advance in prices. Seats will be placed on sale next Monday.
