For Little Folks.

With weather's first demand for light clothing the Children's store suggests to mothers the uselessness of home sewing.

These dresses for little folks are made in the neatest manner and materials are the most serviceable kind both in quality and coloring. The gretchen dresses are in sizes for children from one to four years of age. The waist dresses are in sizes for children from three to six years of age.

Gretchen dress made of blue and white, and pink and white check gingham—hemstitched ruffles around neck and sleeves, 50c.

Gretchen dress made of blue and white, and pink and white check gingham—yoke of cluster tucking and three rows of embroidery insertion; hemstitched ruffles around neck and sleeves, 75c.

Gretchen dress of blue and white, and pink and white striped gingham—yoke of cluster tucking and three rows of embroidery insertion; ruffles of material over shoulders; hemstitched ruffles neck and sleeves, 89c.

Princess dress of blue and white, and pink and white striped gingham—yoke of cluster tucking and three rows of embroidery insertion; white lawn ruffles over shoulders, $1.75.

Other styles of white dresses than these described at prices up to $3.50.

Boys' Russian kilt suits in percales, gingham, piques and linens, sizes for children from one to four years, $1.50 to $3.50.

Men's Patent Oxfords, $3.

If all the men of Rochester knew how good a patent leather Oxford we have for $3 a pair, there would be very few shoes of this description sold at a higher price.

It's made just about as well as a shoe can be made. Stock is solid patent calf and while a leather expert would tell you that it wasn't quite so good a quality as went into a five or six dollar shoe, he would add, if he were honest, that it would likely last just as long and look just as well.

It's made on a "nifty" last—a top notcher as to style. A patent leather Oxford is just a little more proper than anything else in the shoe line this summer.

MEN'S NET UNDERWEAR. combination suits—low neck, no sleeves, knee length, $1 a suit.

Here's a shirt that will relieve the discomfort of the hottest summer day. And it's inexpensive, too.

Men's net shirts—short sleeves, vertical stripes in pink, cardinal and green. 37½c.

They are made in Germany.

LADIES' COMBINATION SUITS.

Warm weather seems to have come to stay. You will need just such light underwear as this.

Ladies' flesh color, silk plaited hams—square yoke of hemstitched tucking, one row of embroidery insertion and finished with 2 in. lawn ruffle, 98c.

Guimpe waist dress of figured lawn—belt of white hemstitched tucking, 2 in. ruffle of material over shoulder, $1.00.

Guimpe waist dress of figured muslin—belt of hemstitched tucking; hemstitched ruffle of lawn edged with lace finishing yoke, $1.95.

Princess dress made of fine quality of gingham, pink, blue and red—belt of embroidery insertion, yoke of cluster tucking with three rows of embroidery insertion; white lawn ruffles over shoulders, $1.75.
