A SUGGESTION.

ROCHESTER, July 4.

Dear Sir: I wish you would call the attention of the Catholic citizens of our city to the fact that one of beloved pastors, Dr. Hanna, will return to us about Aug. 28th.

Now the Catholic people of Rochester should give this priest a fine greeting on his arrival home, as I consider him worthy of a public demonstration. I do hope the people will look at this as I do, and do honor to one of the best men in the diocese. CATHOLIC.

O. B. & B. A.

The Central Council have made arrangements for a reunion and basket picnic at Windsor Beach, Wednesday, August 7th. Prominent speakers will be present and deliver addresses on the order. Sports, games and music will also be provided. Secure a pink badge of your Council committee.

Most Rev. M. A. Corrigan, archbishop of New York, arrived in this city Tuesday night and Wednesday morning departed with Bishop McQuaid for the latter's summer home on Hemlock Lake, where he will rest for a month. The archbishop is here for a rest and will not meet interviewers.

Mrs. Slaughter, a noted English churchman, has also been a guest of Bishop McQuaid for the last few days.

LEND TO REST.

The funeral of J. Adam Zegewitz held Thursday—Tributes of Respect.

The funeral of J. Adam Zegewitz took place Thursday at 10.30 a. m. at St. Joseph's church, of which he had been a member the past forty six years. Solemn high mass was celebrated by Rev. Father Schwabel, assisted by Rev. Father Dengis as deacon and Rev. Father Schmitt as sub-deacon.

The choir under the direction of Professor F. J. Bauer, rendered Schmitt's Requiem Mass, and during the solemn recessional Miss Minnie Stupp sang "There is a Land Mine Eye Hath Seen" in a very effective manner. There was a large attendance of relatives and friends. The floral tributes were numerous and very beautiful.

The interment was at the Holy Sepulchre cemetery, the choir sang appropriate musical selections. The following named persons acted as bearers: Colonel H. N. Schlick, Philip H. Yawman, George Brown, Joseph Hesslinger, Harry Hebing and George Klein.
