IRELAND

What is Being Done by the People as Memo-Various Items From Every Section of the Emeraid Isla.

CONNAUGHT.

CALWAY .- The Tuam Herald of O'Connell, N. T., for ten years the ef- closing exercises before Most Rev. Dr. #acient schoolmaster in our local work- Blancy and a highly appreciative auhouse, has been appointed by the lience, many parents and friends of principal teacher in Knockroon Na- ination hall was decorated in good Friends wish him every success in his good nuns entertained the numerous * sew sphere of duty."

of Knock Ferry, took place after a hibits in the form of needlework, short illness. The members of his tam- painting, drawfng, etc. ily were liked and as the deceased was married only a few months ago, regret is felt for his loss and the bereavement which has befallen his wife. On June 26 his remains were conveyed to kalianin chapel, and after Requiem len. Bagnalstown, intended to make a Mass were interred in Killanin grave- presntation to Rev. P. Keenan on his vard.

this item: "Lord Mount morris. who it. is a candidate for the office of London | Thomas Byrne died suddenly at Cra-City Marshal, who prances on horse- nagha, near Ballon, June 25. After back before the Lord Mayor, is a taking his breaktast he commenced to young Galway peer, and is far from work as usual. After a short time he tunate Lord Mountmorris, who was ireland during the agrarian trouble of 1280. For about four years he was | A meeting of those interested in the cornected with one of the Tit-Bit papers-partly in a business capacity. He was afterward general manager and advertising agent for the Realm, a pronounced Jingo publication."

The Pekin and Tien isin Times of April 13 contains a long obituary notice of Dr. Andrew Irwin, senior medical practitioner of lien Tsin. Dr. lrwin was born at Fidanc, on St. Patrick's Day, 1846. He was educated for the medical profession at the Royal College of Surgeons and Physicians, Dubtin. He qualified as L. R. C. P., and S. I., in 1872, was assistant surgeon at the Royal India Asylum at Maling for three years; then entered; Netley, and passed out as a surgeon in the Army Medical Corps, and was attached to a regiment at Brighton for ome year.

A very largely attended meeting If the members of the Riltartan branen of the United Irish League was held June 23.

The Rev. M. Farragher, P. P., is ened in faming funds for the completion or the modest church of St. Kerin, Inisheer, South Arran Island. It is quite unnecessary for us to explain r why we characterize this most necessary work as difficult. Everybody Unionist party in Dublin, died June 27. knows that the people of South Arran at 70 Harcourt street, at the age of 87. island, in common with their preturen or the other Western Islands, are as lin Corporation in 1880, and remained poor as they could very well be. Left. cto their own resources, it would be utjerly impossible for them to make such Lieutenant in recognition of his serrecoming provision for the celebration of the various ceremonies of their reilgion, as every Cathoric would desire op of Dublin, has resigned his posi-Hence Father Farragner and named tion as member of the National Board. obliged, to appeal to his fellow-coun- No reason is given for this step, but trymen through the public pleas or it is surmised that it is due to some money to meet the liabilities already recent developments and controversies incurred in connection with the erec- in connection with the board. tion of St. Kerin's, and the further ex- announcement will cause surprise and penditure which the completion of the church necessarily entails. Owing to ers, whose cause he espoused while a the isolated position of Father Far- member of the board. ragher's parish, ne has within als reach none of those opportunities for raising funds which in cases of this James Breen (late D. M. P.) kind are usually found fruitful. We drawbacks, and that those who can Richmond House, Golden Bridge. helping the poor islanders of South street, Patrick Grennan, late member Arran to the possession of a church in of the Bakers' Association. some small degree worthy of the nigit is required.

LEITRIM.-A meeting of the Carrick-on-Shannon Démocratic Club was held in the rooms on June 23, unuer the presidency of Mr. James Muriay. John Costello, treasurer, and D. Rorke, secretary, were in attendance. The meeting was held for the purpose of raising funds in support of the Emmett Brass Band, and the members generously responded to the call. The members also decided to charter the steamer Fairy Queen for a trip to Tarmon-DETTY.

MAYO.—On June 17, at the Convent ice of Rev. Mother Paul, cousin to the lito Chrdinal Cullen, was celebrated. it being the sixtleth year of her relig- of Doon, County Limerick. lous profession.

Mather Lyons, P. P., Castlebar, has seceived the money from the Bishop of Syracuse (who gave him the 4 5 000 taltar for the Castlebar beautiful though to equip the altar. R!

Dr. Lodden is a Cantlebar man, as is the Brihop of Galway, Canon Canton, and several princip of the archdiocese.

ROSCOMMON.—The death of Miss Margaret Flanagur, Milltown, Cartle-Dinnket, occurred June 13, at the age of 34 years, deeply regretted. Her remalas were removed for interment to the lamily burial vault in Ballintuber sametery. The funeral cortege was an extremely large and representative oze and bote ample testimony to the sepectin which deceased and her relatives were held. On lane 15 happened the death of Mr. John Rorke, Sheepwalk, Frenchpart, and 35 years, after a long and was illiness. Solemn Requiem Mass celebrated in the presence of a congrugation immediately after al seremonies the terrains were aearse, and a large cortege followed.

held in these districts: Duncliffe, O'Brien and P. N. Fitzgerald. Frange, Cliffoney and Ballintrillick.

The death of Mrs. H. Farrell, Quar-

ment. On June 23 the pupils of the Ursu-June 29 contained this item: "Mr. M. line Convent, Sligo, held their annual Rev. Canon Heaney, Caherlistrane, the pupils being present. The examsional School. Mr. O'Connell was a style. The children were dressed in Exvorite in Tuam with all who had the white and their happy, intellectual pleasure of his acquaintance. His faces lent a charm to the scene. The The death of Mr. Patrick J. Lydon. coking at a splendid collection of ex-

LEINSTER

CARLOW.-The people of Ballenkilremoval to Luggacurren parish, but The Tuam Herald of June 29 has the rules of the diocese did not permit Convent, Thomastown. County Kilwell off. He is the son of the untor- was seen falling by his employer, Mr. Nolan, who did everything to restore killed on his estate in the West of animation, but the poor man expired in a few minutes. project to hold an agricultural show in Carlow was held in the town hall under the presidency of Mr. Michael Joverney. Great enthusiasm prevailed. and several prizes were offered. A very successful meeting was held in Tinryland for the purpose of establishing a branch of the United Irish while those present showed themselves thoroughly alive to the necessity for organization.

DUBLIN.—Miss Hannah Leonard, of White Hall, Drumcondra, made her vows as a nun of the Carmelite order. in the convent, Hampton, Drumcondra. June 18. Her religious name is Sister Teresa Dympna, of the Sacred Heart. Most Rev. Dr. Walsh, Archbishop of Dublin, officiated. The attendance of priests and friends of the new relig-lous was numerous. Miss Gibbons, daughter of Mr. Gibbons, chairman of the Irish Prisons when bathing on Shanganagh strand June 27. Her governess went to her assistance, and both were drowned. The bodies have been recovered.

Sir Robert Sexton, for many years the recognized leader of the Tory He was elected a member of the Dubsuch until a few months ago. He was made a Knight in 1892, by the Lord vices to the Unionist cause. Most Rev. Dr. Walsh, the Archbishnain to Catholics and Catholic teach-

RECENT DEATHS IN DUBLIN. BREEN.-June 19, at 63 Percy place,

DAVIDSON.—June 17, at Sir Patrick trust, however, that the charity of the Dun's Hospital, Mrs. Maria Davidson, Catholics will compensate for all these late of 15 Chatham street, formerly of nity of the sacred services for which terrace, Terenure, Esther Jane Purcell, Miss Brady. The various articles on Seminary, Minnesota, June 1. The mother of the Rev. G. Purcell O. D. C. show received the highest praise and Rev. Father Balley celebrated his ericordine Hospital, Dublin, Teresa Whelan.

> cottages ,Inchicore, Dublin, Jas. Car- dence of his brother, Mr. M. Bolger, assisted by Rev. Daniel O'Brien, of St. ty, formerly of Co. Carlow, aged 76. on June 18. Deceased was a young Stephen's, Chicago, as deacon; Rev. Donnelly.

> son of Hugh Duffy, Ballinagern, Mara- Mass were celebrated at the parish Mass, and Rev. Timothy J. Hurley, of cloone, Carrickmacross, and nephew of church, Arles. Myles Duffy, merchant, Kingscourt, The death of Sister M. Bridget F1- of ceremonies.

GLAVIN-June 20, James Glavin. quay, and formerly of 2 Capel street. were sung in the convent chapel.

WALSH-On June 20, at her mother's residence, Killahurlier, Arklow, County, Wicklow.

Annifold will soon be married to Mr. ganization. George Leyesster Penrhyn of East

Sheen, Surrey, England. D., Diocese of Kildare.

The annual pilgrimage to Wolfe who were present. Tone's grave at Bodenstown churchyard was nade June 23. The demonstration was composed of people /from Dublin and other places, who availed Mr. Lewis of Newtownbarry will reof the opportunity to take an excursion open the woollen mills in Clohamon. into the country and at the same time The factory is under new management, monor the memory of the heroic Irish. and has been fitted with new maman and patriot whose remains hallow chinery, and will be the means of giviressed in white, marched before the uniform and plumed hats. Miss Maud Gonne, accompanied by a great numper of the Children's Patriotic Asso-SLIGO.—The United Irish League Mation, drove from Dublin, displaying MEWS FROM ALL THE COUNTIES OF continues to make great progress in Boer flags and wreaths, which they County Sligo. On Sunday, June 23, placed on the grave. Among those four very important meetings were who addressed the meeting were J. P.

KILKENNY.-Before the students of ryfield, Bunninadden, happened June St. Klernan's College, Kilkenny, left 21, and was widely mourned. She was on vacation they assembled to present aged 44 years. The funeral was very their late president with an address numerously attended. Rev. D. J. O'- and testimonial on the occasion of his Grady, pastor, officiated at the inter- removal to the pastoral charge of St. Canice's Parish.

There is no part of Ireland in which the Sisters of Mercy are not nonored and their noble work appreciated. To Thomastown belongs the honor of having the latest addition to the convents of the Sisters of Mercy. It is a beautiful building, overlooking the valley of the Nore. Completed nearly two years ago, it is still heavily in debt, and to remove the incubus. which is hampering the nuns in their guests, and all had an opportunity of educational labors, a bazaar and drawing of prizes on an attractive scale was organized. The prizes offered are numerous and valuable, and the program of amusements reflects a great credit. That necessity exists in a keep form as the responsibilities incurred by the order in providing educational facilities for a wide country district are great. Those who desire to help in a truly noble work should send their donations to the Rev. Mother at the sixty years, during which its population surface, and his chest crushed in. should have doubled, the population of Longford County has declined by 70,-000 souls, or nearly to a third of what it was sixty years ago.

> KING'S .- On June 19, at Barnsboy. Philipstown, occurred the death of Michael Keating, son of the late Michael Keating.

LONGFORD.-Mr. Cuming, B. 1., (instructed by Mr. Farrell, solicitor), applied for an order staying the receiver on the Granard estate from exder was granted.

fine weather, which rarely happens.

Mrs. M. Glennon, Hardwood House, love and respect in which she was was held in Kinnegad church. There held. Board, Dublin, got out of her deptn was a large congregation. The Rev. The Hon. Moira O'Brien, daughter of P. Kearney pres following resolution was adopted Guards.

DIED .-- On June 27, at Dowth, Anne Conway, of Proudfootstown. June 24, at Pound, Slane, Edward Mc-Quail.

was held in Drumbaragh schools, near port from the people of Ireland. The Kells, June 23. The proceedings open- site selected is the Mardyke, and will ed in the presence of a large number. have an area of twelve acres, which together with the parents and friends will include, probably, the cricket field of the children. The exhibits were all and the shrubbery. It is estimated made during school hours, without in- that about $120,000 will be spent on terfering with the time for literary buildings of principal importance. study, and they consisted of shirts, un- The death of Rev. John Mintern, derclothing, pinafores, dresses, knitted C., St. Finbarr's West, Cork City, ocstockings, gloves, slippers, lamp mats, The deceased was in his usual good mesh bags and some beautiful lace and healthup to the Monday previous. Drumbaragh, who, with her husband, tached to the parish of St. Finbarr's Mr. John Sweetman, takes a practical West. afford to do so will find pleasure in GRENNAN—At 128 North King interest in the development and en- Rev. Denis Bailey, son of Mr. Patrick couragement of home industries, and Bailey of thehardwadre firm of Bail-PURCELL June 17, at 4 Abercorn trained reflects credit on their teacher, was ordained priest in the St. Paul

> DONNELLY-At 2 Cook street. Jane man much esteemed, and this was tes- Michael L. Daly, of Dungourney, re-DUFFY—On June 20, Peter Duffy, tended his funeral. Office and High Paul University, was sub-deacon of the KILDARE.—Miss A. Kennedy, of to found branches of the national or- don; Rev. P. Conveney, Rev. J. Mc. out North Tipperary.

WEXFORD.-It is understood that the soil in Bodenstown cemetery. Sev. lug much-needed employment in the linemants of the soil in Bodenstown cemetery. Sev. lug much-needed employment in the district as, owing to the present great attacked in their green and white there is certain to be a brisk trade car- terford, Richard Parker, in his 81st ried on. A depot has been opened for year. receipt of the raw matserial at Mr. Lewis' establishment at Newtownbarry. Men like this Ireland needs much

A wedding took place in the parish (iddenly). church, New Ross, on June 24, the Very Rev. Canon Kavanagh, P. P., officiating. Miss Maggie Williams, Quay street, and Mr. John J. Kehoe, Victoria Anne. place, was made one.

John Walsh, farmer, of Rosbercon, while riding on a bicycle from Tullagher, Sunday, June 23, at Ballinakill, went down the hill at such a terrific pace that he was upset and sustained very serious injuries to his head and arms, and one knee was broken.

Most Rev. Dr. Brownrigg, Bishop of Ogsory, and Most Rev. Dr. Clancy, ket Place, James O'Connor, late of Bishop of Elphin, made the annual Dwyer & Co. visitation of the Irish College, Paris. at the beginning of June. On Satur- street, Hanora Frances Callanan, aged day, June 1, Sunday, 2, and Thursday, 22, 6. orders were conferred by the Bishop of Elphin. Several ordinations to the Donoughmore, Thomas P. Healy. priesthood were made, and among those raised to the order of deacon was Rev. James Gaul. oldest son of Mr. Maynooth, June 21, the Most Rev. Dr. Patrick Gaul, South Main street, Wex- Walsh, Archbishop of Dublin, ordained fession and reception took place June the Rev. Thomas P. Gilmartin and the 25 at the Convent of St. John of God. Rev. James McGinley as chaplains. Wexford. Particular interest attached The following Kerry students were orto the occasion on account of the large dained: Rev. Timothy Houlihan, Rev. number of professions. There were Thomas Harty, Rev. Thomas Curtayne, no fewer than five professed, while Rev. Jeremiah Moynihan, Rev. Eugene three had the happiness to receive the O'Connor, Rev. David Finucane. Most religious habit. The Most Rev. Dr. Rev. Dr. Walsh ordained the following Brownrigg, Bishop of Ferns, officiated. Kerry students to the priesthood Rev.

Hoey, Tinode, occurred lately at the O'Brien, Rev. Alexander O'Sullivan, age of 77 years, deeply mourned by his Rev. Patrick Carroll. family and by friends in Ireland and The members of the Ballymacelligott in the United States. The funeral was Branch of the United Irish League held very numerously attended.

John Curtis, employed in Rathnew which Mr. John P. Slattery presided. ecuting an ejectment decree dated brickworks, was accidentally killed July 3, 1900, against Anthony Mahon, June 24 by an embankment falling upof Bohernameeltoge, pending the pres- on him. The deceased and Phil Doyle named Edmund Sexton, residing at ent negotiations for purchase. The or- were in a pit sending up the clay for Templegiantine. Abbeyfeale, while making the bricks when the bank sud- driving a horse and cart home from In 1841 the population of County denly gave way, crushing the two men. Newcastle, was endeavoring to readjust Longford was 105,587, in 1851, 82,560. Doyle was barely alive when rescued, the back band, which became detached

MUNSTER

CLARE.—The death of Mrs. T. Mur-LOUH .- Ardu sports were held re- phy, Ballyahanny House, Kilfenora, cently and were a great success. ()n happened June 27, aged 45 years, afthis occasion the club was favored with ter a long illness. The large and representative funeral cortege which ac-The Month's Office and High Mass companied her remains to the family for the repose of the soul of the late burial place at Kilfenora showed the chair.

Slane branch of the Gaelic League the Hervey Bathurst, Bart., Grenadier

CORK.-The Cork Industrial Exhibltion, to be held next year, is meet-An exhibition of children's work ing with generous and general sup-work of all kinds, including ganseys, curred at the Presbytery June 28. macrame designs, all done by children when he was stricken down by an varying in age from 9 to 14 years. The attack of double pneumonia. Father work was initiated by Mrs. Sweetman, Mintern was for many years at-the manner in which the children are ey Bros., North Main street. Cork, WHELAN-June 18, at Mater Mis- commendation from competent judges. first High Mass on Sunday, June 9, in the Church of the Immaculate Contified by the large numbers who at- cently ordained deacon in the St. Our Lady of Lourdes, Chicago, master

County Cavan, and late of Mr. Murnane at the Presentation Convent, The solemn ceremony of the pro-Maryborough, in the fifty-fourth year fession of a member of the Presenta-FORAN—June 20, at the Hospice for of her age, and the twenty-sixth of her tion Order of Nuns took place in the the Dying, Harold's Cross, Margaret religious profession, occurred June 25. chapel attached to the Bandon Convent of Mercy, Westport, the diamond jubi- Foran, late of 22 Marrowbone lane. A few days back she celebrated her on June 20. The young lady who took FRANKLIN-On June 20, at the City silver jubilee. She was the daughter her final vows was Miss Margaret A. of Dublin Hospital, William Franklin, of the late John Finane, of Ballingar O'Hea, daughter of the late Mr. Patrick ry, County Tipperary. She had been O'Hea, Skibbereen and sister to the in delicate health for some time, but name in religion is Sister Mary Anth. an 6 o'clock on the following morning part of the money had been lent to the LEMASS—On June 20, at 33 Mespil her death was not expected. Solemn ony. Mass was celebrated by the Rev. road, Clarissa Lemass, of 15 Usher's Office for the dead and Requiem Mass Rev. . O'Hea, C. C., Rosscarbey. Her T. O'Hea, Rosscarbery, at which Very Rev. Canon Shinkwin presided. The WESTMEATH.—There are now sev- other clergymen who assisted were: eral very active branches of the Unit- Rev. John Mulcahy, Tismoleague; Rev. ed Irish League in the county and oth- C. O'Sullivan, Enniskeane; Rev. J. Passing over his neck. The deceased er parinshes are making preparations Buckley, Upton; Rev. J. Coghlan, Ban-Swiney, Bandon; Rev. John Burke, The Crookedwood sports were Leap; Rev. J. J. Sheehy, Clonskilty; brought to a successful conclusion on Rev. John Murray, Unions Hall; Rev. Degrees in Theology, Canon Law June 25. The events called out quite Denis Deasy, Courcles; Rev. J. Coakand Philosophy wer conferred at May- a great number of persons. The scene ley, Kilbrittain: Rev. J. Crowley, Ban- near her home. nooth College June 25. Among those of the sports is picturesquely situated don; Rev. Jeremiah Burke, Leap. who received the Bachelorship of The- on the shore of Lough Derryvaragh. Among the relatives and friends of ology was the Rev. James Byrne, B. All the events wer hotly contested, the nun were: Mr. Engene O'Hea, place June 23. Most Rev. Dr. Walch, and fine sport was witnessed by those (brother) and family, Mr. and Mrs. P. Archbishop of Dublin, ordained to the Crowley (sister), Miss Dunstan, Skip. priesthood a number of students, inbereen; Miss M. A. Callanan, Ross; cluding Rev. Jerome Coffey, diocese of Miss Margaret Collins. Woodfield, Clonakilty; Miss Bridie O'Hea (Cork). (cousins); Mrs. Ellen O'Brien, Clon-> ovan, Skibbereen, etc. tends were present. The Fores district as, owing to the present great on June 26, at 8 King's Terrace, Cork, Graves, which took place on June 24 late of Ballymote, Tallow, County Wa- at Newtown, was received with gen-

HERLIHY-On June 26, Mary Herlihy, Imogane House, Churchtown. O'CALLAGHAN—On June 25. at Knockboyle, Bridget O'Callaghan, DENNIS-On June 25, at The Square, Baltimore, John Dennis. CURRAN-At George's quay, Mary

O'LEARYAt 111 Blarney street, on June 19. Daniel O'Leary, late of Cork Distilleries.

WHITE—On June 20, at 75 Evergreen road, Margaret White. O'MULLANE-On June 28, at 120 Bandon road, Cork, C. F. O'Mullane, of the General Registrar's Office, Dublin. O'CONNOR-June 28, at 6 Old Mar-CALLANAN-On June26, at 9 View

HEALY-June 28, at Lacubawn,

KERRY.-In the College Church as sub-deacons seventy-six students of The impressive ceremonies of pro- the college. His Grace was assisted by E. O'Connor, Rev. James Prenderville, WICKLOW-The death of Mr. Peter Rev. Charles Fitzgerald, Rev. Michael a meeting in Ballydwyer, June 23, at

LIMERICK -On June 22 a former

Ady Inchiquin, sister to Lord lichi- who for many years was parish priest carried the Blessed Sacrament,

Rev. Peter Campion, Kildare. The nuns man. of Rathagan Convent were arranged in front of the Sanctuary, one bearing torches. Sister Angela was Cross-bearer, and Rev. Mother Stanislaus led raised to the order of sub-deacons Rev. sister Antoni to and from the altar. James Lennon, Armagh; Rev. James Among those present were: Rev. Den. Clarke, Armagh; Rev. John Grant, Aris Duggan, Rutherglen, Glasgow, broth- magh; Rev. Michael Kerr, Armagh; er of the professed: Rev. D. Duggan. Rev. Patrick Finegan, Armagh. Paisley, her cousin; Rev. Michael Ryan, Byrne, Miss Maggie Byrne, etc.

ael-Coadjutor Archbishop of Cashel, on the flag of the United Irish League. Sunday June 23 ordained to the priest- The death of Mr. Owen Duffy, father hood four students of St. Patrick's of the Rural District Councillor for College, Thurles. The ordination took Lisnaveane, took place recently at place in the Cathedral. Rev. J. Ryan, Monniell, Rockcorry, at the age of 88. for Cashel; Rev. T. McCormack, for The deceased, who had been alling for QUEEN'S.—The death of Mr. E. Bol- ception, Chicago, of which the Very Cahel; Rev. Father P. Pilsier, for Ger- three months, bore a painful illness CARTY—June 19, at 11 Woodfield ger, Ballinagall, took place at the resi- Rev. Thomas Pope Hodnett is pastor, many; Rev. Father Cantwell, for fore- with Christian patience. The deceased ign mission.

at Queenstown lately was Dean Flavin, Monniell for over 53 years. of Des Moines, brother of the Very Rev. C. J. Flavin, St. Mary's Clonnel. The Dean was met at Queenstown by Four Courts, Dublin, June 21, in the the parish priest of St. Mary's and the Rev. J. and P. Flavin, Kingstown and Rathmines, nephews.

death near his residence on June 22. home in a horse and cart. Between 5 sister owed him. Witness said that his dead body was found twenty yards bankrupt, and the balance was reprefrom his dwelling. The horse was mised that he was thrown from the owed his sister Ellen four hundred dolcart, the horse being a young and spir- lars. ited animal, and was killed by a wheel was well known and respected through-

WATERFORD.—The remains of Mrs. James Brett, of Ballylaneen, Kilmacthomas, were found June 25 in a pond

The annual episcopal visitation of St. Patrick's College, Maynooth, took Waterford; Rev. Laurence Egan, Waterford; Rev. Patrick. O'Donnell, Waterford. On Saturday Most Rev. Dr. akilty, Miss Julia Hennessy, Clonakil. MacCormack, Bishop of Galway, conty; Miss Margaret Burke, Skibbereen; ferred the order of deaconship on Rev. Miss May O'Donovan, Miss N. O'Don- Patrick O'Donnell and Rev. John Cullinan, diocese of Waterford. Recent Deaths in Cork.—PARKER— The death of Mr. James Palmer

eral regret in the city of Waterford, Deceased was long connected with mercantile interests in Waterford, being the head of the firm of Graves & Co. The funeral, to the Abbey Church Yard, Ferry Bank, was very numerously attended.

ULSTER.

ANTRIM.-A week's Retreat was pened June 23 in St. Vincent de Paul's Ligonial, by the Very Rev. Father Power. C. SS. R. After the 11.30 o'clock Mass the missionary preached an eloquent sermon on the necessity of sanctifying grace. At the evening devotions he preached on the important subject of salvation. A meeting of the members of the Baile-mac-airt branch of the Gaesic League was held June 23 in St. Matthew's Female National Schools, Bel-

A meeting of the Belfast Executive of the United Irish League was heldlately in the United National Club, Berry street. The president, Mr. Joseph Devlin, occupied the chair. The chairman referred to the scenes of disorder made by Orange ruffians lately in the city, after which this resolution was adopted, on the motion of Mr. Thomas Maguire, solicitor (National Branch, seconded by Mr. Hugh Byrne: That we thank Mr. Redmond, M. P., and other members of the Irish Parliamentary party, for the prompt manner in which they interested themselves in the House of Commons on behalf of the Catholics of Belfast, especially Mr. Redmond on his masterly speech, in which he exposed the wanton and unprovoked attacks made on the Catholic procession and on Catholic work-

The annual procession from the church at Cushendun to the ruins of the ancient chapel in Cregagh Plantation took place June 9. The procession was one of the largest in the recollection of the oldest inhabitant. From the parishes of Ballycastle. Culfeightrin, Armoy, Cushendall, Ballymoney, Ballymena, Glenravel, Glenarm, Larne, in 1861, 71,694; in 1871, 64,501, in 1881, and lies in a serious condition, but the when the horse ran away, trampling bers, and by 5 p. m. the sacred edifice League. The attendance was good, 61,009, and in 1891, 52,647. Now it poor man Curtis was thrown by the and striking him with the staft of the was filled, and many hundreds having stands only at 46.581, 69,006 less than falling clay against the bogey, or buc- car, and inflicting such injuries as re- to remain outside. It was computed sixty years ago. Roughly speaking, in ket, used in bringing the clay to the sulted fatally. Deceased was about that 2,000 persons were present. The forty years of age, and leaves a wife clergymen present were Rev. Bernard McCann, Cushendun; Father Blacker, St. Joseph's new Church, on the Mili- Cushendun, and Father McAlister. The tary road, Limerick, is fast approach- ceremonies of the evening commenced ing completion, and will meet a much with the Benediction, which was given needed parochial want in St. Michael's in the church by Father McCann afparish, covering a very extensive por- ter which the procession was founded, tion of the city. During the past week an acolyte in front carrying a crucifix. the Rev. Father O'Donnell, administra- Then followed the schoolgirls, numbertor of the parish, has been in Rath- ing a hundred dressed in white, with keale soliciting subscriptions for St. wreaths and bouquets of flowers. Next Joseph's Church, and he has met with came the choir, rendering the "Tantum the heartiest reception of the Catho- Ergo," and following were children lic people of the district. The Very who strewed flowers in front of the Rev. Dr. Moloney, pastor of Rathkeale, canopy, under which Father McCann quin, of Dromoland Castle, is to be at St. Munchin's Limerick, has already McCann reciting the prayers proper to MEATH.—At recent meeting of the married in London to Sir Frederick subscribed £100 toward the good work, the occasion. They were followed by A great congregation was present at the procession with banners to the old the religious profession of Miss Mar- altar in the Plantation. Father Mcunanimously: "That we assure the A large meetings of the Cratice garet Duggan. The function took Alister, in the sermon, said the place Gaelic League of our support in their branch of the United Irish League place in Rathangan parochial church, where they were assembled was holy, struggle with the intermediate board was held on Sunday, June 16, Mr. County Kildare. Miss Duggan is a national land the restriction for the patients and consecrated 1,200 years ago. In to obtain justice for the national lan- John McInerney, president, in the tive of Limerick and second daughter the very place on which they stood of Mr. James Duggan, of Doon. Her their forefathers suffered persecution, name in religion is Sister Antoni, but the faith was always kept firm and Three years ago she entered the Con- stewifast in the hearts of the faithvent of Mercy, Rathangan. Mass was ful Glensmen, who still clung to the celebrated by the Rev. James Hughes, rock, holding firm and steady to the Rathangan. During Mass the Profes- tenets of the Catholic faith, which still sion ceremony was performed by the burns in the heart of every true Irish-

> ARMAGH.-Most Rev. Dr. Walsh. Archbishop of Dublin, on June 21.

professor, Carlow College; Mrs. James CAVAN.—Mr. P. J. McGorry presid-Duggan, mother; Misses Ellie Duggan, ed at a meeting of the members of the Catherine Duggan, Mary Duggan, Mr. Maudabawn Branch of the United Ir-P. H. McGrath, Mr. Byrne, Mr. W. ish League, held June 22. A great numbr of new members were enrolled. Mr. P. Clarke, Sr., proposed a resolution calling upon all in the district and ripperary.—Most Rev. Dr. Fen- surrounding districts to rally around was a native of the parish of Augh-Among the passengers who arrived namullen East, but had resided at case of Lizzie Ferris, in which the bankrupt had carried on business as a stationer in Coleraine, but left that Mr. John Ryan (Plunkum, of Cur- town some time since and went to raghmore, near Nenagh, met with a Strabane, her brother, James Ferris, was examined by Mr. Robert Doyle on The deceased was transacting business hehalf of the assignees, in reference to in Nenagh on Saturday, and left for a sum of money which he alleged his sented by a bill which he had to pay grazing a few yards away. It is sur- in the bank for her. The bankrupt also > DONEGAL The following were raised to sub-desconship by Most Rev. Dr. Walsh, Archbishop of Dublin, tw Maynooth College, June 21: Rev. William Gillespie, Raphoe; Rev. John Doherty, Raphoe; Rev. Hugh O'Gara, Raphoé.

DOWN.-A mission was opened on June 23 in Tullylish by the Rev. Father Ewdgin and Justin, of the Passionist Order. At last Mass Father Ewdgin preached on the "Call of God to the Soul," and the same Father continued the same subject in the evening ue announced the order of exercises—Mass at 5, 7 and 8: meditation on the Sacred Passion of Our Lord after the o'clock Mass; confessions every day.

FERMANAGH-Very Rev. Canon McQuaid was pastor of Derrygonnelly in 1894.