C. R. & B. A. OUTING.

TO BE HELD AT WINDSOR BEACH ON MONDAY.

Fourteen Rochester Councils Will Hold Their Annual Banquet.

The weather observer evidently forgot that the Central Council were to hold their outing at Windsor Beach last Wednesday, so the rain came down in torrents until nearly noon. The arrangement committee decided that the grounds would be too wet to bring down the large crowd that was expected, and the affair was reluctantly called off for the day. It was decided, however, to hold the picnic on Monday, August 12th, rain or shine, at the same time and place. Chartered cars will leave the National Hotel, corner of Main street and Plymouth avenue, at 1 o'clock sharp. All badges sold will be honored on that day.

The sport committee announce that they will have a list of 24 games and contests, and they desire all who can to meet at the hotel and go down to the grounds with the band, speakers and the several committees, as the athletic games will be started upon arrival.

Supreme President Thomas H. O'Neill was in the city Wednesday.

Have you noticed the handsome street car streamers announcing the C. R. & B. A. picnic?
