bat is Being Done by the People Heme-Various Items From Every Section of the Emeraid isle.

CONNAUGHT.

GALWAY.-Among those who passed the recent examiation to qualify them to teach Irish were: Brother Aiden Doyle, Monastery Schools; Edwin L. O'Toole, Galway, N. S.; Patwick J. Gannon, Claddagh, N. S. In these different schools Irish is now in full swig, the instruction imparted beang not a mere smattering, but a thorough sound knowledge of the language of the Gael.

Association of the Sacred Heart, at There was a crowded congregation at Dulgnan the Mass celebrated by the Bishop, and the members of the male branch prescribed for use in the ceremonial close Most Rev. Dr. Clancy appointed Keely and O'Nell1. on such occasions, are words of war- Very Rev. John Maher, parish priest The char of Ecclesiastical History gaged in a perpetual warfare with mulgated the Papal Brief conferring 11, and dill continue for four days.

North Galway Executive United Irish The three new dignitaries then made fold. County Kilkenny, made her pro- aperture into which letters are drop-League held a meeting in the Town solemn profession of faith and took fession at the Convent of Mercy. Naas, ped. The local postal authorities took Hall, Tuam, July 13, Mr. Thomas Hig- the oath prescribed by the canons of June 24. The Most Rev. Dr. Foley, no steps to dislodge them then, and gins, president of the Executive, pretthe church. siding.

He was a witness to many stirring John Gilmartin, secretaries. scenes in his own country, and lived to see Australia transformed from a convict settlement-without railways or telephones—to a great Commonwealth. His splendid record will be and his worthy life may well be emu- Irish League. The attendance was a consolations of Holy Church before he | ing of the National spirit. DESSED RWRY."

Sullivan, Dromahair, occurred July. 15, at the age of 53 years.

South Leitrim Executive of the Unit- neral cortege was the largest ever ed Irish eLague was held lately in Reynolds' Show Rooms, Mohill. Mr. John Reynolds, president of the local branch, presided.

MAYO.-The death of Mr. Henry 3 W. Jordan, of Main street, Castlebar, occurred July 18. Solemn Requiem Mass was reld in the parish church, attended by a great number of the clergy and laity.

Mr. Walter Doolin, C. E., Dublin, architect, visited Castlebar a few days the new church. The contracts for pointment of Most Rev. Mgr. Kelly, to the furnishings are going on simulwill be announced soon.

John Duffy, of Drummin East, beyond his depth and was drowned. Deceased was 13 years of age. The body was recovered.

An entertainment was given by the members of the Claremorris Branch of the Gaelic League in the schoolroom, Claremorris, July 17. The spacious room was thronged, and the enthusiasm throughout the program evi-Acced the earnestness of the move-Misses M. Holian, Nellie Flanagan, Birdie Flanagan and Delia Killeen, the men, and seldom have such striksuch receiving well-deserved applause. "The Wearig of the Green" in Irish. and was enthusiastically applauded:

A meeting of the members of Knock Branch of the United Irish League at was held in Knock Male National er. A general Communion took place School recently, Mr. H. Taaffe presid-

The members of the Castlebar Branch of the United Irlant League at recent meeting, Mr. W. Horan preding, persed these resolutions, proed by Mr. J. J. Collins, and passed manimously: "That, we congratulate Dr. Plorden on being the first coroner in Ireland to accommodate Catholic percora at inquest with a Catholic Testament; sice the abominable oath taken by King Edward nothing else would be expected from the head of cas of the oldest Catholic families in ireland, who built more moasteries ad churches than any other family in ory, a copy of this resolution was to Dr. Jordan and the A Marville and future no person be admitted to this of 25 and 26 Cornmarket. exceed $250. As we have already ex- liam Gibney, Oldbawn, Tallaght. NEWS FROM ALL THE COUNTIES OF graziers from the branch, we now Rathmines, Elizabeth Inglis, Gormans. might become members and cause a Buckingham street, Henry O'Brien. rot in the national organization."

> ROSCOMMON .- The Pekin and bell. Dr Andrew Irwin, senior medical Fintan Carroll, Harold's Cross. practitioner of Fien-Lain, who was o ' O'CONNOR-On July II, at Loreto at Fidane, County Galway, on St. Abbey, Rathfarnham, Margaret Mary terment was in Dysert. Funeral long, berne Park.

Kilmore has a fine branch of the elizod. cent meeting was held in Drangan. Dr. joy square, Mary Geoghegan. Patrck Berne is president, and among MALLEN-July 13, at Cruise's Ho-The beautiful new banners of the Flood, John Condon, Sr., Patrick Rey-PURCELL-On July 11, at St. Marv the Pro-Cathedral of St. Nicholas, John Smith, Owen Toolan, James get Purcell, in religion Sister Mary quent and impressive sermon on the were lately blessed by Most Rev. Dr. Beirne Michael Gill, John Conlon, Jr., Dominic, daughter or late Philip Pur- dangers of free thought. Ireland, he MacCormack, Bishop of Galway. Michael Burke, Thomas Healy, Peter cell, Ballycahlll, Thurles, in the 25th said, had remained loyal to the Cath-

SLIGO.-During the week beginning

The Catholic Press, of Sydney, ing of the Balymote Branch of the Arthus Murphy, Nass, and Rev. Mich- er-Gereral, Lord Londonderry. dated June 22, said: "Last week, at United Irish League. Present Messra. his quiet home in Granville, passed McGlynn, M. Gallagher, J. McGennis, T. way one of the true pioneers of Aus- Doddy, Hugh Markey, Mat Hannon, A. tralia, Mr. Edward Fahy, formerly Walsh, J. Scanlon and J. Gilmartin. of Appin. This esteemed citizen had The action of the two carriers who reached the ripe age of 82 years, and helped to bring the huts to Leitring was the last of six brothers who ar- was condemned, as they knew well rived in New South Wales in 1840. where they were going It is terrible There are few, if any, alive who that the town should produce such were shipmates of these sturdy Irish-| blacklegs. The people of Bailymote men, in the ship United Kindom, and will know how to deal with those perhaps none of her company left backers of eviction. It is known that such a permanent monument behind the grass grabber had been supplied them, for their descendants to date ex- with stabling for his horses not far ceed a thousand persons. The first from town. It was cosidered advisahomes of the Faheys was Denham | ble that a public meeting be held to Court, near Liverpool, but after a short | protest against the action of suckers. engagement they struck out for them- The chairman said feeling ran very selves and settled in the district of high in regard to the mean, shabby Appin, where several branches of the action of those few mug-womps, tor. Camily still are. Mr. Fahey was a Nevvertheless, the cause must go un mative of Ballymacward, County Gal- until grabbing and treachery be a Abbeyleix July 14 to meet the Kings On Sunday, July 14, the impressive ings at the rate of seventeen times of the past.—M. Hannon and County team in contest for the champ—ceremony of consecrating the new their present yearly rent. It is not the county team of the county team in contest for the champ—ceremony of consecrating the new their present yearly rent. It is not the county team of the count

LEINSTER

CARLOW .-- A very successful meetpreserved while memory remains to ing was held at Hacketstown, July 14. those who were acquainted with him, to establish a branch of the United lated by all who bear his name. He striking evidence of the revival of powas a good Catholic, and received the litical enthusiasm, and of the quicken-

On July 6 the funeral of Late Mr. Joseph O'Nelli, Bagnalstown, took place. LEITRIM.—The death of Mr. John | The remains were conveyed to St. Andrew's Church, where Masses were celebrated, after which the interment The meeting of the members of the took place in Ballinkillen. The fuwitnessed in Bagnalstown.

> DUBLIN.-The T. D. Sullivan Testimonial Committee having brought its labors to a satisfactory conclusion. presented a check for $6,500 to Mr. Sullivan on July 6. Considering the calls made upon the Irish people the response to the appeal for the veteran Nationalist and journalist was generous, indeed. Yet, it is in fact less than he deserves.

The rectorship of the Irish College, ago. He made a final inspection or Rome, has been vacated by the apbe coadjutor to Cardinal Moran, Archtancously. The date of dedication bishop of Sydney. Mgr. Kelly will be consecrated in the Church of St. Joachim, Rome, Sunday, Aug. 18, the while bathing in the Erriff river, went | Feast of St. Joachim. The rectorship of the Irish College has been filled by the appointment of the Very Rev. W. H. Murphy, D. D., of the University Church, Stephen's Green, Dublin. The nomination to the rectorship of the College rests with the four Archbishops of Ireland, subject to the confirmation by the Holy Sec.

A solemn Triduum to commemorate the Silver Jubilee of the Confraternity ment in Claremorris. The program of Mount Carmel, attached to the was opened by Dr. McGuire; the guid- Church of St. Teresa, Clarendon ing spirit of the Claremorris branch, street. Dublin, took place recently. singing in Irish. He was followed by The first part being allotted to the women and the remaining portion to such singing in the Gaelic tongue, and ling demonstrations of piety and ferror been witnessed. There was Mass with Mr. J. Burke, Currastelaun, recited music each morning at 7 o'clock, which was largely attended, while at the service in the evening the spacious church was croweded, The Rev. J. F. on Sunday morning, July 14, and at are held every Tuesday evening in the the 12 o'clock Mass Father Walshe delivered a vigorous discourse on "Reading." In the evening the Triduum concluded. It was indeed a magnificent sight, nearly all present wearing the scapular of Our Lady across their shoulders.

> Recent deaths in [Dublin.DUFF-Mary Anne Duff. FARRELL-On July 16, at Cork

> Street Hospital, Margaret Mary Farrell, 52 Smithfield, Dublin.

LISTON-On July 18, at No. 35 Cabra parade, Dublin, Edmund Campbell Liston, aged 24, son of Daniel D. Liston of 3 McCarthy's Edildings, Cabra.

relled all such land moropolists and INGLIS-July 18, at 6 Home Ville, to beware of the landsharks less they O'BRIEN-July 16, at 31 Lower (Off James street), Mrs. Bridget Camp-

Tin-Tsin Times of the 13th of April CARROLL-On July 11, Michael Carcontained a long obituary notice of roll, Garron Castle, father of Rev.

Patrick's Day, 1846. He was third (in religion Sister Mary Joseph Felix), and representative of the community. son of the late Andrew Irwin, of Bal- FITZPATRICK-July 5, at the Conlymore, Boyle, County Roscommon, vent, Rue de Clichy, 34 Paris, Mary, cousin to Charles D. O'Rorke, of Clon- in religion Sister M. Michael, daugh. organ erected in the parish church of ter of late Joseph Fitzpatrick, Chap-

United Irish League, of which the re- GEOGHEGAN-July 19, at Mount-

olous profession.

being their general Communion day. Elphin diocese was held at Summer- the Gaelic League has among its mem. must be careful to keep that outside The Bishop, in blessing the new ban- hill College, Sligo. Director Very Rev. bers William Staples. Miss Hayden the limits of the Island of Saints. mers, said the words of the Church as E S. O'Laverty, C. S. S. R. At the Miss Reilly and Messrs. Hickey. At Kilbride, near Mullingar, a high-fare. The banners are given to them of Riverstown, in room of the late In Se. Patrick's College, Maynooth, 1s post office authorities for the reception as soldiers of Christ, and they were to Rev. Andrew Quinn, and Very Rev. vacant owing to the resignation of the of letters. When the little carrier carry them with the same courage and William White, Tarmonbarry, to the Very Rev. Dr. O'Loan. The concursus (Francis McCarthy) came to the box the same determiation that was ex- vacant canonries in the diocesan chap- for the professorship will commence he found it filled by bees. The postpected from soldiers. They were en- ter. On the same occasion he pro- in the college hall on Wednesday, Sept. man was assailed by the bees, when sin and the devil and their weavons on the Very Rev. M. Kielty, president. Miss Mary Annie Cahill (in religion bees settled down in the box for their were praye rand the Sacraments. Summerhill College, the title and priv- Sister Mary Anthony), daughter of Mr. honey-making operations, and were The Standing Committee of the lieges of Doctor in Sacred Theology. (abill, Loughlinstown House, Fresh-busy passing in and out through the ael Ryan was the Bishop's assistant.

> KILKENNY -- Miss Mary Anne Cahill, of Loughlinstown house. Freshfold, was professed in the Convent of Mercy, Naas, June 24 last. Her religious title is Sister Mary Anthony.

At recent meeting of the Waterford was submitted at the suit of E. K B. Tighe against the Rev. J. Mullins. Mullinavat, and others This kind of notification is given the workhouse authorities so that they can make arrangements to receive the evicted ones. But it is not likely that the "Rev. J. Mullins and others" will go into the poor house to oblege the evic-

The Mooncoin football team went to victors by seven points

KINGS.-Died. -July 10 at Walshisland Cometery was very largely attended.

A committee meeting of the Edenheld July 14.

LONGFORD .- On Sunday, July 14. Rev. Luke O'Reilly, a native of Longford, was ordained to the priesthood by Archbishop Reggio, of Genoa ltaly. Father O'Rellly was a student of Mount Melleray, where, under the Trappist Fathers, he pursued a successful course of classics and philosophy. Having completed his studies be went to Genom, and there at the missionary College of Brignole Salecan -read an ample course of five years' theology. Father O'Reilly, after a stay of a few months among his friends in Ireland, will leave for Cape Town, South Africa—the scene of his future labors.

Mr. John Kenny, Lisanure, Edgeworthstown, dled July 8, aged 71 years; deeply regretted. Deceased had been a member of the Granard Board of Guardians for over forty years, and during the past two years was chairman of the district council. The funeral was one of the largest ever witnessed in this district. 110 cars following his remains to the family burying ground—the old cemetery at Edgeworthstown.

LOUTH .- The demise of Mrs. Margaret Snow, North Quay, Drogheda occurred July 18. The funeral to Don-roe Cemetery was largely attended.

MEATH.-"The Drogheda Independent of July 15 contained this good news about the Irish language movement in Navan: "The young men of years. Navan are determined not to be behind in the movement for the revival of our native language. A gaelic class was formed some months ago in Navan, with a membership increasing from week to week. The members Walshe, C. S. S. R., being the preach- have been working with such zeal as must command success. The classes Boys' School on the Fair Green, and the pupils have made rapid progress in acquiring a knowledge of the Irish language. They are able to offer each other the ordinary salutations and greetings of neighbors, in Irish, can carry on a simple but extended dialogue in the mother tongue. One of the July 16, at 105 Sorrento road, Dalkey first fruits, if we are correctly informed, of the labors of those conducting the class, was the singing on Friday night last of a hymn in Irish during the devotions of the Men's Sacred Heart Sodality. The hymn was chanted in the Cathedral Church by a number of boys from Mr. Halpin's school, and our informant, described it as having filled his heart with joy and The greed of the Uitlanders and of the the Sacrament of Confirmation to a right hand was also severely injured.

centuries of neglect, once more soundbranch whose valuation upon lands GIBNEY-July 18, in hospital Wil- ing His praises in the house of God. A great United Irish League demonstration was held on Crossakiel Fair

Green July 14. at which the Kells and Killallon bands were in attendance. Mr. Patrick White, M. P., for the district was present, and delivered an ad-CAMPBELL-At 2 St. James' avenue dress on the good results which follow the founding of a branch in any parish. Mr. John Flood presided.

QUEEN'S. The death of Mr. James Bowe, only son of Mr. Timothy Bowe, Ballinakill, occurred July 15, The in-

WESTMEATH .- On July 14 the new Rochfort Bridge, was opened. High Mass was celebrated by Rev. Father Murray, vice-president St. Finlans Seminary, Navan, the deacon being Rev. James Flynn, professor Navan its members are: John Hogg, treasur- tel, idmerick, Mr. John Mallen, of 89 Seminary, and the sub-deacon Rev. M. er; Terence McLoughlin, James Mur- Upper Dorset street, nephew of the Sheridan, Castletown. The master of ray, Thomas Doyle, John Doyle, John late Rev. James Boyle, P. P., Glasgow, ceremonies was Rev. Thomas Mulvanny, Killucan. After the first Gospel nolds, John Beirne, Patrick Owens, Dominican Convent, Kingstown, Brid. Rev. Father Malachi preached an eloyear of her age and third of her relig. olic Church during centuries of persecution. Now had been evolved the evil theory that one religion is as of the society assembled in full force July 8 the retreat for the priests of KILDARE. The Nass branch of good as another, and the Irish people

ly novel incident occurred lately. There is a wall box erected by the he had to beat a basty retreat. The Bishop of Kildare and Leighlin, of- later on communication the event to Mr. P. McGettrick presided at meet- ficiated. Mass was celebrated by Rev. that august individual, the Postmast-

> WEXFORD. - At an examination held by the Incorporated Society at Wexford lately George Laville, son of Mr. Laville, National Teacher of Kyle, was awarded a scholarship at Pococke College, Kilkenny, tenable for three уеага.

Board of Guardians an eviction notice brother the Rev. M. O'Sullivan, Ban-Died .- At the residence of her now, Maria Theresa Collins, Wicklow, The interment was in Trinity Cemetery, at Ashford, funeral well attended by all classes and creeds.

Peter Chapman, farmer, of Mongahee, near Ramsgrange, met a seingular and serious accident July 15. He was cutting a piece of iron with a cold chisel, when the severed piece new upward and struck him n the eye, completely shattering the organ.

tously team in contest in the change stremony of constitutions place. It their present yearly reflect the landlord will years. Only a few weeks previous oc-Dr. Brown.

> children of Boystown parish. He was on a most favorable arrangement. Father Duffy, Boystown, congratulat- gregation. ed the teachers on the proficiency displayed by the children. He celebrated 8 o'clock Mass in St. Joseph's. Valley-| cers for the present year: T. Larkin. | Columba led in devotion to faith, and mount, on Tuesday morning and then treasurer; S. Larkin, chairman; P. W. fatherland. The entire congregation left for the Cross of Blessington

MUNSTER

CLARE.-A meeting was held in by the banks of the blue Mediterran. Mullagh July 14 for the purpose of taking steps to celebrate the golden jubilee of the Rev. J. Cahir, P. P., Kilmurry-Ibrickane. Father Cahir has spent the greater portion of his life in the parish, being curate for a ish priest during the past twenty-five ter Mary Dominic, daughter of the tries, etc. Officers appointed: Presi-

The death of Mrs. Butler, of Ballyline, happened July 12 at Baltard House, Doonbeg. The remains were interred in the family vault on the Island of Mishi-Cronin, near Crusheen. The remains on Sunday morning were conveyed to Doonbeg church, where solemn Requiem High Mass was colebrated. The Rev. Martin Hogan. Doonbeg, celebrant; Rev. J. Ryan, Kilrush, deacon; Rev. L. J. Browne, submaster of ceremonies.

Board has given $2,500 to the finan- numerously attended. cial committee of the Cork Exhibition for 1902. The committee feel very thankful; but they need not. The money of the Irish people, robbed from lately, and proved a success. The enthem in overtaxation for a hundred tertainment was organized by Mr. Pat-copyrights and goodwill of the com- forefathers in the National tongue. The that a bullet was lodged over her pany that printed and published "The Courthouse was filled, standing room spine. It is understood that young Cork Daily Herald" and the "Cork not being available when the concert Weekly Herald." They ceased to be commenced. Mr. O'Shea had specially less use of firearms will be brought to issued after July 20.

was professed a religious of the Pre- line Ryan, planist, and Mr. Robert setation Order July 11 in the convent Thompson, Cork, champion Irish piof Doneraile. Rt. Rev. Dr. Browne. per. Beside these, the Irish choir of ed Irish League, Mr. Francis Little Bishop of Cloyne, officiated. The title the Presentation Convent School gave presiding, it was arranged to take up of the newly professed is Sister M. Several choruses in the Gaelic tongue, Anthony.

Castlemartyr branch of the Gaelic dances League was held lately in the national schoolroom.

The annual distribution of prizes took place at the Loretto Convent, ciscan Church, Carrickbeg, after which ler, parish priest, presiding.

In the hall of the Young Ireland Society, Cork City, July 17, Mr. B. Maginness, of Dublin, delivered a lecture on "Boer Wars, Past and Present."

In plain language robbers made war on a peaceful people.

Recent deaths in Cork.—CODY—On July 14, Cornelius Cody, youngest son of the late James Cody, C. H. C. SHAW-On July 13, at Kilnap Glen. Wm. H. J. Shaw. MURPHY-July 14, at 2 Beale's

Hill, Lower Road, Patrick Murphy. COGAN-On July 18, at Whitepoint, Queenstown, John Cogan.

M'AULIFFE-At the South Infirmary, July 18, the wife of Michael Mc-

Ouliffe, Loch Hine. BUCKLEY-On July 13, at Clyduff, Carrigtwohill, Daniel Buckley. ROHAN-On July 16, Mrs. Lizzie Rohan, late principal teacher Killorg-

lin, County Kerry. M'CARTHY-Ou June 7, at The Elms, Gore, New Zealand, John Mc- noon they had spent, they heard the Carthy, Mount Alto House, Riverstown.

DEASY-July 17, at Killacloyne. Margaret Deasy, aged 14years. HENNESSY-On July 17, at 31 Great George's street, Hannah Hennessy, The Lough.

CASEY.-On July 16, at 7 Great George's street, Patrick Christopher ry, recently received a letter from the Sheares street, Daniel Joseph (Donak') to formulating a scheme for the pro-MacGrath, aged 18. KENNY-On July 15, at 47 Richmond Hill, John Kenny, Ballyflebeen, Ballinamona, Mallow.

O'FLYNN-On July 19, at Summerill. South, Catherine O'Flynn. KERRY.-The victory of the Pennsylvania University men over the Dublin University men in Killarney, July tended.

13. was a very popular event. Killarney never had so many visitors at the same time as on that occasion. The funeral of the late Mr. Thomas Horan, Knockogue, Brosna, took place July 14 to Brosna cemetery, and was very numerously attended. The clergy in attendance were Rev J. Neligan, Rev G. Callaghan and Rev. T. Harrington. The farewell address from the Sneem and Tahilla people to their managh), Glenfarme and Newbridge late respected pastor, the Venerable Archdeacon Mangan, published a short time since, has been illuminated and presented to the Archdeacon at the United Irish League, was held at his residence, the Presbytery, Ken-

Three young men, Maurice Herliny, Dereen, John Duggan, Readrinagh, and Timothy Sullivar, Mullin, were charged in the courthouse at Killarney with being armed and disguised and firing at John Cronin of Reaboy, a gamekeeper, in the employment of Lord Kenmare, on July 7. The prisoners were returned for trial to the next Kerry Asizes, but admitted to bail. Sullivan in £50 and two sureties of £25 each, and the other two in R20 and awo sureties of £10 each.

LIMERICK .- The tenants on the estate of Mr. Richard Eilis, part of which is in the town of Abbeyfeare, agree to this or not.

TIPPERARY. - Mr. S. Mansergn WICKLOW .- The Most Rev. Dr. Friarsfield, Tipperary, has reinstated of Drimbolme, was accidentally killed land, Geashill, John Byrne, late Dolly- Welshe, Archbishop of Dublin, visited the widow and orphans of the late Jdly 16 at Tullybog Bradley Mountain. mount Hotel. The funeral to Walshis- Valleymount July 17 to confirm the Mr. Michael O'Dwyer, of Shanbalty, He was yoking his horse when the received at Blessington by Fathers | On Sunday, July 14, a mission was knocking down Mr. Meehan, drawing Heffernan and Curran. There were commenced in Powerstown by Fathers a heavily laden cart over his body. derry branch of the Gaelic League was over 100 children for confirmation, and Coyle and Stanley, of the Oblate Or- Death was instantaneous. His Grace Father Heffernan, Boys- der, Incihcore. The beautiful little town; Father Curran, Blessington, and church was filled with a devout con-

> The Tournagulia branch of the United Irish League has elected thtse offi- upon himself to lead his people as St. Harnett, vice-chairman; Maurice D. took t he greatest interest in the Unit-Leahy, honorable secretary; P. J. ed Irish League, and the throng of Harnett, assistant secretary. To at- people who waited to hear the objects tend the Divisional Executive Wil- of the national organization explaned liam Ahern, Daniel Gorman, J. Doher- at the chapel after Mass was the best ty. P. Sullivan M. Body and C. Rior- evidence of the hold it has upon the lenaule, Thurles, aged 18 years. PURCELL-On July 11, at

Mary's Dominican Convent, Kings- League, demanding compulsory sale of goodly term in his early life and par- town, Bridget Purcell, in religion Sis- the land the support of home induslate Philip Purcell, Ballycahill, Thur-dent, Father McKay; vice-president, les, in the 25th year of her age and John Strain; -treasurer, John Gorman, third of her religious profession.

> LONERGAN-On July 6, at the residence of her sister, Mrs. Patrick Barrett. Rafane, Margaret Lonergan, Lonergan, Knockgrafion Cahir, on July 13, Anastatia (Nancy) Crotty in her 66th year.

Gortagow House, Holycross, occurred sing through Newry on the homeward deacon; Rev. R. Fitzgerald, Kilkee, July 9, at the age of 72 years, deeply Journey their behavior was a disgrace regretted. The funeral, to the an- to the human race. CORK.—The Congested Districts cient cemetery of Ardmoyle, was very

WATERFORD.—An Irish concert was held in the Courthouse, Lismore, the creamery, between the workhouse rick O'Shea, the Irish tenor, who has no notice of it till she went home, and The Cork "Examiner" pudchased the done much to revive the songs of our on undressing herself it was found engaged Miss Eva Ryan, Queenstown, book. Miss M. A. Kenedy, of Newmarket, violinist, and her sister, Miss Madeand three pupils of the Christian of Nationalist registration in Ennis-A meeting of the members of the Brothers School gave some Irish

'The death of Mr. Adam Power, Carrickbeg, occurred July 16. Solemn Requiem services were held in the Fran-Youghal, July 15, Rt. Rev. Mgr. Kel- the interment was made in the cemertery of the same church.

CLEARY-On July 18, Denis Cleary, thrilled him with delight to hear the British government for gold—the gold ANTRIM.-A Catholic young man He was conveyed to Monaghan Infirmgrandson of the late Mr. Denis Cleary, melodius accents of the Gael, after of others—he asserted caused the war, was attacked in a brutal manner in ary.

Albert street, Belfast, July 13, He was proceeding along that thoroughfare when a crowd of Orange rowdies set upon him. After a struggle he escaped and, running some distance, he met a policeman, to whom he complained. The policeman refused to accept the charge and the rowdies were permitted to escape. Rt. Rev. Dr. Henry, Bishop of Down and Connor, July 15 distributed the prizes won during the year by the pupils of the Sacred Heart of Mary, Lisburn. Father McCashin said: "This institution has gained itself a great name and fame for the excellent musicians it produced," but this time he beiteved it had surpassed itself. They had positive evidence of that when, in the course of the delightfuul afternork of their youthful entertainers. But more than that, they had the proof of the certificates which the young ladies had received from the farthest and best colleges and examining boards of the world of music.

ARMAGH .-- Mr. M. J. Magee, New-Board of Agriculture stating that he MACGRATH—On July 15 at It will soon visit the district with a view motion of cottage industries in South ..rmagh.

> CAVAN.-Mr. Bernard Farrelly, of Stakeel, in Killeshandra district, on July 13 was taken suddenly ill at his home and died almost immediately, deeply regretted by all who knew him. The tuneral was very numerously at-

> One of the largest meetings held in County Cavan (North) during the past ten years was that of July 14, on ... Fawcett's estate in Laragy, parish of haminagh near Glan, when 5,000 assembled to sympathize with the tenants on the estate threatened with evictions. Contingents attended from Billinagh. Doobally, Glangevila (County Cavan), Holywell, Mullagndon, Boho, Kiltyclogher (County Fer-(County Letrim).

> A public demonstration, under the auspices of the Dromard Branch of Fyhora, near Arva, July 14. Bands, with banners and contingents, attended from Arwa, Scarbby, Cormore, Leggan, Columbkill, etc. J. P. Farrell, M. P., and Mr. Phillips, executive for North Longford, were present

> DERRY.—Solemn Requiem Services were held July 18 in Magherafeet Parish Church for the late Very Rev. Canon McNeece, Cardinal Logue presiding. The celebrant. Very Rev. Canon McOscar, Moy; deacon, Rev. John Quinn, Adam., Armagh; Sub-deacon, Rev. Father Quinn, Moneymore; master of ceremonies, Rev. J. Beck. Magherafelt

DONEGAL.—On the morning of July curred the death of her sister Ellen.

Matthew Meehan, of Durnish, parish animal took fright, sprang forward,

On July 14 the patriotic parish priest of Killmecranan, with which place the great St. Columba is closely associated, Father McKay, P. P., took people of Tyrconnell. On the motion DIED.—Delaney—On July 13, at of Mr. McFadden, seconded by Mr. Coolquill, Ellie Delaney, Coolquill Kil- Strain, Father McKay was moved to the chair. Resolutions were adopted St. forming a branch of the United Irish Kilmecranen; secretary, Patrick Mo-Fadden, Kenaghan.

DOWN.-On Monday July 15, says the Newry Reporter, a large number CROTTY-At Cross street, Clonmel, of excursionists visited Warrenpoint and Rostrevor from Belfast. The conduct of many was not reprehensible. The death of Mr. Richard Bourke, particularly at Rostrevor. When pas-

> FERMANAGH.-Whilst a Lisnasken girl named Murphy was coming into town lately with a churn of milk for and the town, she states that she felt a sudden pain in her back. She took men who have a record for the reck-

> At a recent meeting of the members of the Enniskillen branch of the Unita public subscription for the purpose killen.

> MONAGHAN.--A serious accident occurred at Kilrooskey, near Clones, lately. Mr. James Gray and another young man were blasting in the quarry of the former, when some powder exploded, blowing both some distance away. Mr. Gray received contused wounds about the eyes and one on the nose. His left hand was badly lacerated, especially the fingers, and his