FEAST OF THE ASSUMPTION.

When the golden gates were opened
Far above this world of ours,
Angels stood with fragrant garlands
Twined with Heaven's choicest flowers.

And with folded wings were singing
A welcome to the coming Queen
As Mary neared the golden gateway,
Listening to their heavenly psalm.

'Round her brow they twined the roses,
In her hand the lilies fair,
For on wings of love extended
To a throne they gently bear.

Mary, Jesus' Blessed Mother,
Placing her beside His throne;
With a smile of heavenly sweetness
He welcometh His mother home.

As the knights marched through the street many comments were heard as to their neat appearance and soldierly bearing. Upon arriving at the park at Sea Breeze camp was immediately opened in approved military style, commencing with guard mount at 9 o'clock.

Through the kindness of B. O'Reilly, Messrs. T. B. Mooney, Louis W. Maier, Thomas Holleran, E. Y. Higgins, James Butler and G. E. W. Freckleton, who donated the carriage, the old ladies of the Home, East Main street, enjoyed a delightful drive on the afternoon of Thursday, the feast of the Assumption. After a five mile ride out East avenue as far as the Country Club they were driven to the Sacred Heart Convent, Prince street, where, in the beautiful chapel, they assisted at benediction. Here also a delicious luncheon was served and other entertainment provided, and to the music of "St. Patrick's Day" and kindred strains they began to move and old-fashioned dances were indulged in.
