

OUR IRISH LETTER.

NEWS FROM ALL THE COUNTIES OF IRELAND

What is Being Done by the People at Home - Various Items From Every Section of the Emerald Isle.

CONNAUGHT.

GALWAY.—Mr. Thomas Finney, merchant, Brisbane, Australia, was lately on a visit to Tuam during which he was the guest of Mrs. Hosty, the square. Mr. Finney is a native of Carrakee, near Tuam.

At the Parish Church, Roundstone, July 23, Louisa, daughter of Thomas McCullagh, was married to George Touhy, Carraroe House, Dunmore, Tuam. Rev. Father Gleeson officiated.

"The Tuam Herald" Aug. 3 stated: "Cardinal Gibbons, Archbishop of Baltimore, accompanied by Most Rev. Dr. McCormack, Bishop of Galway, whose guest he is, passed through Tuam on Tuesday on his way to County Mayo to visit the scenes of his youth."

Mr. John Nolan, of Bert, died July 29 aged 79 years, deeply regretted. During twenty years he had been a prominent and very practical member of the Board of Guardians in Athy.

The death of Mr. Wm. Freyne took place at the residence of his brother, Mr. Patrick Freyne, Cathedral Lodge, Tuam, on July 28. Deceased had just arrived from America, where he had spent twenty years.

On July 29 Solemn Office and Requiem Mass were celebrated in the Parish Church, Craughwell, for the repose of the soul of the late Mr. Thomas Quinn, father of the Rev. B. Quinn. The interment took place at Mount Cross, Kinvarya.

The death of Mr. Wm. Freyne took place at the residence of his brother, Mr. Patrick Freyne, Cathedral Lodge, Tuam, on July 28. Deceased had just arrived from America, where he had spent twenty years.

On July 29 Solemn Office and Requiem Mass were celebrated in the Parish Church, Craughwell, for the repose of the soul of the late Mr. Thomas Quinn, father of the Rev. B. Quinn.

The interment took place at Mount Cross, Kinvarya. The funeral was largely attended by the people of New Quay, Carron, Ballyvaughan, Kilmacduagh, Glareenbridge, Ballindereen and Kinvarya.

On July 16 (the Feast of Our Lady of Mount Carmel), at the fine old age of 84 years, and had been only a short time ailing.

The death of Mr. Wm. Freyne took place at the residence of his brother, Mr. Patrick Freyne, Cathedral Lodge, Tuam, on July 28. Deceased had just arrived from America, where he had spent twenty years.

On July 29 Solemn Office and Requiem Mass were celebrated in the Parish Church, Craughwell, for the repose of the soul of the late Mr. Thomas Quinn, father of the Rev. B. Quinn.

street Hospital, Elizabeth St. 51 Francis street. SPENCER—July 31, at Manor place, William Spencer.

TIERNAN—July 31, at 1 and 2 Portland row, North Patrick Tiernan. KEOGH—July 30, at the Meath Hospital, William Keogh.

MGRATH—At 22 Lower Dominick street, Dublin, James McGrath, late of Wicklow. MARTIN—At Our Lady's Hospice for the Dying, John Henry Martin, aged 21.

SILDARE.—On July 31 the annual distribution of prizes took place at the Passionist Convent of St. Sebastian, Killeculin, Newbridge, and a delightful programme was submitted to a large audience including friends and relatives of the pupils, clergy from Kildare, Dublin, etc.

Mr. John Nolan, of Bert, died July 29 aged 79 years, deeply regretted. During twenty years he had been a prominent and very practical member of the Board of Guardians in Athy.

The death of Mr. Wm. Freyne took place at the residence of his brother, Mr. Patrick Freyne, Cathedral Lodge, Tuam, on July 28. Deceased had just arrived from America, where he had spent twenty years.

On July 29 Solemn Office and Requiem Mass were celebrated in the Parish Church, Craughwell, for the repose of the soul of the late Mr. Thomas Quinn, father of the Rev. B. Quinn.

The interment took place at Mount Cross, Kinvarya. The funeral was largely attended by the people of New Quay, Carron, Ballyvaughan, Kilmacduagh, Glareenbridge, Ballindereen and Kinvarya.

On July 16 (the Feast of Our Lady of Mount Carmel), at the fine old age of 84 years, and had been only a short time ailing.

The death of Mr. Wm. Freyne took place at the residence of his brother, Mr. Patrick Freyne, Cathedral Lodge, Tuam, on July 28. Deceased had just arrived from America, where he had spent twenty years.

On July 29 Solemn Office and Requiem Mass were celebrated in the Parish Church, Craughwell, for the repose of the soul of the late Mr. Thomas Quinn, father of the Rev. B. Quinn.

The interment took place at Mount Cross, Kinvarya. The funeral was largely attended by the people of New Quay, Carron, Ballyvaughan, Kilmacduagh, Glareenbridge, Ballindereen and Kinvarya.

On July 16 (the Feast of Our Lady of Mount Carmel), at the fine old age of 84 years, and had been only a short time ailing.

The death of Mr. Wm. Freyne took place at the residence of his brother, Mr. Patrick Freyne, Cathedral Lodge, Tuam, on July 28. Deceased had just arrived from America, where he had spent twenty years.

Scotch vended by Nenagh merchants. Those who have used the native product say it is equal to the Scotch and English article.

MAYO.—Over Mr. James Murphy's premises, Main street, Baltimore, his name appears in Irish language characters, most artistically executed.

Died.—Aug. 1, at Aungvale, Westport, Bernard Doris, aged 85 years. Interment at Aungvale. Funeral numerously attended.

Cardinal Gibbons, of Baltimore, paid a brief visit to Ballinrobe lately. He arrived from Claremorris, and immediately left for Partry.

Father Henry, P. P., Attymass, arrived in Attymass July 26, after his trip to the United States where he had been for two years collecting for the Cathedral of Ballaghaderreen.

On July 23, at the Priory, Ennis, four postulants received the Franciscan habit as clerics. The Very Rev. Father Peter, O. F. M., Provincial officiated, and said that it was a great privilege to receive the habit of St. Francis in a place which was consecrated by such glorious Franciscan memories.

The Saturday record of August 3 said, "The time-honored pattern of Garland Sunday was duly celebrated at Lahinch, and attracted great numbers of visitors from the surrounding districts."

Father O'Mara, Castleconnel, returned from the United States July 27, and was met at the terminus by his parishioners, who accorded him a hearty welcome home.

On July 26 the people of Doneraile expressed their gratitude to Father O'Callaghan for his kindnesses, and their regret at his departure for Rathcornea.

A large demonstration was held at the rooms of the United Irish League, Cork city, July 22, in honor of the United Leaguers who the Crown failed to convict on a charge of boycotting.

On July 26 the people of Doneraile expressed their gratitude to Father O'Callaghan for his kindnesses, and their regret at his departure for Rathcornea.

A large demonstration was held at the rooms of the United Irish League, Cork city, July 22, in honor of the United Leaguers who the Crown failed to convict on a charge of boycotting.

On July 26 the people of Doneraile expressed their gratitude to Father O'Callaghan for his kindnesses, and their regret at his departure for Rathcornea.

A large demonstration was held at the rooms of the United Irish League, Cork city, July 22, in honor of the United Leaguers who the Crown failed to convict on a charge of boycotting.

ra July 28, when the Gaelic tournament organized by the Wicklowmen's Association of Dublin was brought to a successful issue.

Great interest is being taken in the coming sale of furniture and books at Avondale Rathdrum. Catalogues of the books are in preparation.

On July 23, at the Priory, Ennis, four postulants received the Franciscan habit as clerics. The Very Rev. Father Peter, O. F. M., Provincial officiated, and said that it was a great privilege to receive the habit of St. Francis in a place which was consecrated by such glorious Franciscan memories.

The Saturday record of August 3 said, "The time-honored pattern of Garland Sunday was duly celebrated at Lahinch, and attracted great numbers of visitors from the surrounding districts."

Father O'Mara, Castleconnel, returned from the United States July 27, and was met at the terminus by his parishioners, who accorded him a hearty welcome home.

On July 26 the people of Doneraile expressed their gratitude to Father O'Callaghan for his kindnesses, and their regret at his departure for Rathcornea.

A large demonstration was held at the rooms of the United Irish League, Cork city, July 22, in honor of the United Leaguers who the Crown failed to convict on a charge of boycotting.

On July 26 the people of Doneraile expressed their gratitude to Father O'Callaghan for his kindnesses, and their regret at his departure for Rathcornea.

A large demonstration was held at the rooms of the United Irish League, Cork city, July 22, in honor of the United Leaguers who the Crown failed to convict on a charge of boycotting.

On July 26 the people of Doneraile expressed their gratitude to Father O'Callaghan for his kindnesses, and their regret at his departure for Rathcornea.

A large demonstration was held at the rooms of the United Irish League, Cork city, July 22, in honor of the United Leaguers who the Crown failed to convict on a charge of boycotting.

On July 26 the people of Doneraile expressed their gratitude to Father O'Callaghan for his kindnesses, and their regret at his departure for Rathcornea.

A large demonstration was held at the rooms of the United Irish League, Cork city, July 22, in honor of the United Leaguers who the Crown failed to convict on a charge of boycotting.

On July 26 the people of Doneraile expressed their gratitude to Father O'Callaghan for his kindnesses, and their regret at his departure for Rathcornea.

Keane, St. John's, Tralee, and Patrick J. Keane, St. Joseph's, San Francisco, Cal.

At the meeting of the Kerry County Board of the Gaelic Athletic Association, held in Tralee Aug. 3, under the presidency of Mr. J. P. O'Sullivan, Mr. Thos. F. O'Sullivan, honorary secretary, moved:

On July 23, at the Priory, Ennis, four postulants received the Franciscan habit as clerics. The Very Rev. Father Peter, O. F. M., Provincial officiated, and said that it was a great privilege to receive the habit of St. Francis in a place which was consecrated by such glorious Franciscan memories.

The Saturday record of August 3 said, "The time-honored pattern of Garland Sunday was duly celebrated at Lahinch, and attracted great numbers of visitors from the surrounding districts."

Father O'Mara, Castleconnel, returned from the United States July 27, and was met at the terminus by his parishioners, who accorded him a hearty welcome home.

On July 26 the people of Doneraile expressed their gratitude to Father O'Callaghan for his kindnesses, and their regret at his departure for Rathcornea.

A large demonstration was held at the rooms of the United Irish League, Cork city, July 22, in honor of the United Leaguers who the Crown failed to convict on a charge of boycotting.

On July 26 the people of Doneraile expressed their gratitude to Father O'Callaghan for his kindnesses, and their regret at his departure for Rathcornea.

A large demonstration was held at the rooms of the United Irish League, Cork city, July 22, in honor of the United Leaguers who the Crown failed to convict on a charge of boycotting.

On July 26 the people of Doneraile expressed their gratitude to Father O'Callaghan for his kindnesses, and their regret at his departure for Rathcornea.

A large demonstration was held at the rooms of the United Irish League, Cork city, July 22, in honor of the United Leaguers who the Crown failed to convict on a charge of boycotting.

On July 26 the people of Doneraile expressed their gratitude to Father O'Callaghan for his kindnesses, and their regret at his departure for Rathcornea.

A large demonstration was held at the rooms of the United Irish League, Cork city, July 22, in honor of the United Leaguers who the Crown failed to convict on a charge of boycotting.

On July 26 the people of Doneraile expressed their gratitude to Father O'Callaghan for his kindnesses, and their regret at his departure for Rathcornea.

ard McGhee, ex-M. P., presiding. It was arranged that the members would attend the demonstration of the Ancient Order of Hibernians, to be held at Derrymacash.

At a meeting of the Killinere Branch of the United Irish League, held July 8, Mr. Robert Clarke, the president, in the chair, said the business was to receive a report, which was an account, practically, of the proceedings of the branch since its foundation.

On July 23, at the Priory, Ennis, four postulants received the Franciscan habit as clerics. The Very Rev. Father Peter, O. F. M., Provincial officiated, and said that it was a great privilege to receive the habit of St. Francis in a place which was consecrated by such glorious Franciscan memories.

The Saturday record of August 3 said, "The time-honored pattern of Garland Sunday was duly celebrated at Lahinch, and attracted great numbers of visitors from the surrounding districts."

Father O'Mara, Castleconnel, returned from the United States July 27, and was met at the terminus by his parishioners, who accorded him a hearty welcome home.

On July 26 the people of Doneraile expressed their gratitude to Father O'Callaghan for his kindnesses, and their regret at his departure for Rathcornea.

A large demonstration was held at the rooms of the United Irish League, Cork city, July 22, in honor of the United Leaguers who the Crown failed to convict on a charge of boycotting.

On July 26 the people of Doneraile expressed their gratitude to Father O'Callaghan for his kindnesses, and their regret at his departure for Rathcornea.

A large demonstration was held at the rooms of the United Irish League, Cork city, July 22, in honor of the United Leaguers who the Crown failed to convict on a charge of boycotting.

On July 26 the people of Doneraile expressed their gratitude to Father O'Callaghan for his kindnesses, and their regret at his departure for Rathcornea.

A large demonstration was held at the rooms of the United Irish League, Cork city, July 22, in honor of the United Leaguers who the Crown failed to convict on a charge of boycotting.

On July 26 the people of Doneraile expressed their gratitude to Father O'Callaghan for his kindnesses, and their regret at his departure for Rathcornea.

A large demonstration was held at the rooms of the United Irish League, Cork city, July 22, in honor of the United Leaguers who the Crown failed to convict on a charge of boycotting.

On July 26 the people of Doneraile expressed their gratitude to Father O'Callaghan for his kindnesses, and their regret at his departure for Rathcornea.

MUNSTER.

CLARE.—The Nationalists and the patriotic priests of Ennis have given two hundred dollars to Irish party's Parliamentary Fund.

On July 23, at the Priory, Ennis, four postulants received the Franciscan habit as clerics. The Very Rev. Father Peter, O. F. M., Provincial officiated, and said that it was a great privilege to receive the habit of St. Francis in a place which was consecrated by such glorious Franciscan memories.

The Saturday record of August 3 said, "The time-honored pattern of Garland Sunday was duly celebrated at Lahinch, and attracted great numbers of visitors from the surrounding districts."

Father O'Mara, Castleconnel, returned from the United States July 27, and was met at the terminus by his parishioners, who accorded him a hearty welcome home.

On July 26 the people of Doneraile expressed their gratitude to Father O'Callaghan for his kindnesses, and their regret at his departure for Rathcornea.

A large demonstration was held at the rooms of the United Irish League, Cork city, July 22, in honor of the United Leaguers who the Crown failed to convict on a charge of boycotting.

On July 26 the people of Doneraile expressed their gratitude to Father O'Callaghan for his kindnesses, and their regret at his departure for Rathcornea.

A large demonstration was held at the rooms of the United Irish League, Cork city, July 22, in honor of the United Leaguers who the Crown failed to convict on a charge of boycotting.

On July 26 the people of Doneraile expressed their gratitude to Father O'Callaghan for his kindnesses, and their regret at his departure for Rathcornea.

A large demonstration was held at the rooms of the United Irish League, Cork city, July 22, in honor of the United Leaguers who the Crown failed to convict on a charge of boycotting.

On July 26 the people of Doneraile expressed their gratitude to Father O'Callaghan for his kindnesses, and their regret at his departure for Rathcornea.

A large demonstration was held at the rooms of the United Irish League, Cork city, July 22, in honor of the United Leaguers who the Crown failed to convict on a charge of boycotting.

LIMERICK.

Excellent business was done by the members of the Limerick Town Council lately when they appointed a Limerick fireman as captain of the local fire brigade.

On July 29 occurred the death of Mr. Michael McCoy, Newcastle West, at the early age of 41 years, deeply regretted. The interment took place at Churchtown, the cortege being the largest and most representative which ever left the town.

The death of Mr. Patrick Gallagher, Mouncharles, occurred recently at the early age of 26 years, after an illness of twelve months. The funeral to Frosses Cemetery was one of the largest ever seen in the town.

The death of Mr. Patrick Gallagher, Mouncharles, occurred recently at the early age of 26 years, after an illness of twelve months. The funeral to Frosses Cemetery was one of the largest ever seen in the town.

The death of Mr. Patrick Gallagher, Mouncharles, occurred recently at the early age of 26 years, after an illness of twelve months. The funeral to Frosses Cemetery was one of the largest ever seen in the town.

The death of Mr. Patrick Gallagher, Mouncharles, occurred recently at the early age of 26 years, after an illness of twelve months. The funeral to Frosses Cemetery was one of the largest ever seen in the town.

The death of Mr. Patrick Gallagher, Mouncharles, occurred recently at the early age of 26 years, after an illness of twelve months. The funeral to Frosses Cemetery was one of the largest ever seen in the town.

The death of Mr. Patrick Gallagher, Mouncharles, occurred recently at the early age of 26 years, after an illness of twelve months. The funeral to Frosses Cemetery was one of the largest ever seen in the town.

The death of Mr. Patrick Gallagher, Mouncharles, occurred recently at the early age of 26 years, after an illness of twelve months. The funeral to Frosses Cemetery was one of the largest ever seen in the town.

The death of Mr. Patrick Gallagher, Mouncharles, occurred recently at the early age of 26 years, after an illness of twelve months. The funeral to Frosses Cemetery was one of the largest ever seen in the town.

The death of Mr. Patrick Gallagher, Mouncharles, occurred recently at the early age of 26 years, after an illness of twelve months. The funeral to Frosses Cemetery was one of the largest ever seen in the town.

LEINSTER.

CARLOW.—A young lady cyclist, Madge Donohoe, of Clonegal, residing in Kingstown, Dublin, on July 27, met with a very serious accident while riding down Victoria Hill, Dalkey.

The death of Mrs. William Toury, of Drumlin, occurred July 24, at the fine old age of 86 years, and deeply regretted. A long and representative cortege accompanied the remains to the cemetery of Ballymote.

The annual retreat which Rev. Father Staunon provides for the Society of the Sacred Heart was held lately in Tobercurry, conducted by Rev. Father O'Kelly, O. S. D., who two years before conducted a similar religious function.

A fatal accident occurred near Tallaght on July 26. Mr. Thomas Muldoon, aged 26 years, was getting gravel from the Dodder strand, between Pirhouse and Oldbawn Bridge.

The death of Mrs. Johanna Delaney, Skehina, happened July 27, at the age of 70 years. The funeral was numerously attended.

A meeting of the Castleblayney and Finnea branch of the United Irish League was held July 23, with Mr. Joseph Kelly presiding, and Thos. Neman, James Norton, Thomas Lynch, Simon Kirwan, Thomas Keogh, Dan Murphy, James Cadden, Mick Kelly, Joe Masterson, and Patrick Coyle, sec. present.

A meeting of the Castleblayney and Finnea branch of the United Irish League was held July 23, with Mr. Joseph Kelly presiding, and Thos. Neman, James Norton, Thomas Lynch, Simon Kirwan, Thomas Keogh, Dan Murphy, James Cadden, Mick Kelly, Joe Masterson, and Patrick Coyle, sec. present.

ULSTER.

ANTRIM.—The members of the Doctor Drennan branch of the United Irish League, Belfast, held a meeting in the National Club, Berry street, Mr. Bernard Davy occupied the chair.

On July 21, being the Feast of the Most Holy Redeemer, was celebrated with the customary solemnities in the Church of the Most Holy Redeemer, Clonard. At 12 o'clock Solemn High Mass commenced.

On July 21, being the Feast of the Most Holy Redeemer, was celebrated with the customary solemnities in the Church of the Most Holy Redeemer, Clonard. At 12 o'clock Solemn High Mass commenced.

On July 21, being the Feast of the Most Holy Redeemer, was celebrated with the customary solemnities in the Church of the Most Holy Redeemer, Clonard. At 12 o'clock Solemn High Mass commenced.

On July 21, being the Feast of the Most Holy Redeemer, was celebrated with the customary solemnities in the Church of the Most Holy Redeemer, Clonard. At 12 o'clock Solemn High Mass commenced.

On July 21, being the Feast of the Most Holy Redeemer, was celebrated with the customary solemnities in the Church of the Most Holy Redeemer, Clonard. At 12 o'clock Solemn High Mass commenced.

On July 21, being the Feast of the Most Holy Redeemer, was celebrated with the customary solemnities in the Church of the Most Holy Redeemer, Clonard. At 12 o'clock Solemn High Mass commenced.

On July 21, being the Feast of the Most Holy Redeemer, was celebrated with the customary solemnities in the Church of the Most Holy Redeemer, Clonard. At 12 o'clock Solemn High Mass commenced.

On July 21, being the Feast of the Most Holy Redeemer, was celebrated with the customary solemnities in the Church of the Most Holy Redeemer, Clonard. At 12 o'clock Solemn High Mass commenced.