MISS LAUGHLIN.

Formerly designer in the millinery department of Sibley, Lindsay & Curr has opened millinery parlors at 101 Beekley building, where she has a display of pattern hats and fine millinery.

COOK OPERA HOUSE.

A most striking and novel feature in next week's bill at the Cook opera house is the Colibri Troupe of Imperial Midgots, recently imported from Hungary, where they played at the Royal Theatre with great success. These miniature men and women, the tallest of whom is 28 inches high, perform with wonderful agility and daring on the trapeze, and are said to execute the most difficult acrobatic feats with ease and agility, facility. And besides, they give a neat little sketch called "After the Ball." Next week all school children will be admitted at every matinee for only 10 cents.

A number of clever artists figure in the rest of the bill. Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Kely give a clever farcical sketch. Jones, Grant and Jones, a black faced sketch. The Moullier sisters are three women gymnasts, but recently arrived from Europe. Fred Noblo is well known as a monologist of the first class. Ada Arnoldson, a vocaliste, has received some flattering press notices. Newell and Niblo give a neat musical turn and the Tossing Austins appear in an act that combines juggling and a little singing and dancing. Burke, Moller and Teller give a comedy singing act. This attractive bill will doubtless draw well, and the 10 cent matinee admission is calculated to attract crowds of children.

Prices: Matinees, 10c, 15c, 20c, 25c. Evenings, 10c, 15c, 20c, 25c. Seats can be reserved one week in advance.
