The bride wore a white Swiss gown trimmed with carmine lace, and wore a white veil. She carried a white prayer book inlaid with pearls, the gift of the groom, while the bridesmaid wore white Swiss mulle and carried white carnations. There was a large assemblage at the church. Acts as a Tonic.

Rev. J. Heidegger used Pastor Koenig's Nerve Tonic for sleeplessness, recommended me to try it, and it had the desired effect. I am of a very nervous disposition, which makes me at times so irritable that I am not able to be steady at any work or occupation, and in the evening I am so tired that I feel the greatest necessity for rest, but could not sleep until I used this remedy, and it seems to act also as a tonic as well as a cure for nervousness. It is a wonderful medicine, without which it would have been hard for me to have continued my work. I was requested to write this for Sister Gabriela of Yankton, S. D., Mother M. Madala.

FREE A Valuable Book on Nervous Diseases and a Sample Bottle to any address. Poor patients also get the medicine free.

Electric fans, roll top desks, fine engravings and pictures, mirrors, expensive floor coverings etc. are not supplied to the pupils of the Hendrick Commercial Training School, nor is the pupil charged for those luxuries in high tuition rates, as is the case in some other business schools in this city. This school is comfortably and suitably furnished, and what it does offer its pupils is first class instruction by each's second to none in the city at moderate rates also effective and bonafide assistance to obtain positions when qualified.

Its stenographers, who write the Pernin, the only shorthand taught in Rochester having highest gold medal, Columbian Exposition, are winning golden opinions from their employers, who will be soon heard from. We again ask the patronage of the readers of this paper to help us build up the largest as well as the best business school in Rochester.

We thank those who have responded to our former invitation and assure them that they will have no cause to regret their preference. Everyone knows where Powers Block is and when you hear the hum of study and the click of the typewriter at No. 340 step in, we will be glad to have you inspect our school and speak a good word for it whether you register or not.

COOK OPERA HOUSE.

An aggregation of well-known and capable vaudeville performers will figure in the attractive bill scheduled for this week at Cook's Opera House. About the most notable artists on the lists are Mr. and Mrs. Dolly Nobles, who appear in what is said to be an extremely clever sketch called "Why Walker Reformed." There is considered novelty in the act given by Madame Taglione.

The Four Nelsons are reported to be the most astonishing quartette of acrobats that ever threw a somersault. The troupe consists of three women and one man. The ensemble and individual of work the four is known to be of the highest possible order.

Adelina Roattino is an Italian Prima Donna, whose superb soprano voice has won her a place near the top of the list of professional vocalists. Callahan and Mack sing Irish ballads and offer some amusing comedy work. A young woman named Bertie Fowler gives several accurate and quaint character imitations. Mallory Brothers and Brooks calling themselves "colored swells" offer a turn that has never failed to please. The "Clipper Quartette" are capable and tasteful singers. Ed. Reynard is an expert ventriloquist whose figures are so constructed so that they can walk about.

BAKER THEATRE.

The Baker theater offers for the week commencing October 14, two very strong attractions. "Down Mobile," a thrilling comedy drama of human interest, dealing with life as it exists to-day in some sections of the South, and which recently came from the pen of the well known playwright, Lincoln J. Carter, will be the attraction the first three nights of the week with matinees on Tuesday and Wednesday. Many students to the drama have pronounced it the finest picture of Southern life ever given to the public since the days of "Uncle Tom's Cabin."

The favorite singing and dancing comedian Smith O'Brien, who will be seen at the Baker theater the last three nights of next week, with matinees on Thursday and Saturday in Con. T. Murphy's latest Irish drama, "The Game Keeper" is to-day the only recognized star who can sing, dance and act. The scenery carried for this production is said by capable critics to be the most beautiful and correct ever used in a play of this kind, all the scenes having been made from photographs of the originals of Dublin County, Ireland, where the play takes place.

C. R. & B. A.

The editor of the Bulletin, in the current issue, makes an apology for not publishing an account of the picnic held this summer, and in another column gives a full account. "It is better late than never."

The Central Council held an enthusiastic and well attended meeting at the rooms of Council 18 last Tuesday evening. Under the head of "Good of the order" the members were pleased to listen to the remarks of Supreme Medical Examiner Maloney and Supreme Trustee J. P. Henry, brother James M. Nolan and others.

Considerable routine business was transacted, and the subject of holding a banquet brought forth much discussion. It was finally decided that the delegates should confer with the members of their councils and report back at the next meeting, which will be held at the rooms of Council 23 in the Durand building. After the meeting a drawing was held for an article that was left over from the picnic. It was won by M. D. Kavanaugh, and refreshments were then served, and several members played popular airs on the piano. Altogether it was the liveliest meeting held in some time.

The Central Council never does anything by halves, and they were agreeably surprised on Wednesday evening last when the pedro party given by Council 44 under their auspices proved to be more successful than they had anticipated. Chairs, tables, cream, etc., had been provided for 100 people, but when the committee saw double that number they were simply dumbfounded. Be it to their credit they quickly recovered and secured extra chairs and tables, but it was too late to order extra ice cream, so many had to do without. The game was necessarily short on account of the crowd. The following were declared the winners. First, Miss Blanche Lay, Mr. Doyle second, Miss Sullivan and Mr. Poppen. After the refreshments were disposed of the floor was cleared and dancing enjoyed until midnight, when all dispersed after having spent a most enjoyable evening.

THEFT THROUGH KISS.

The great Cardinal Theodoli was once robbed through the kiss of a traitorous brigand, says London Tid-Bits. He was captured by the brigand while walking alone, and carried to a mountain retreat. Two thousand pounds was the sum demanded and paid for his ransom, and when giving him his freedom the brigand asked if he might kiss his hand. The request was granted, and not until he had reached home in safety did the cardinal discover that during the process the brigand had stolen his ring set with a large ruby of priceless value. Two years afterwards, however, the brigand, repenting the deed, returned the ring undamaged.

The first anniversary banquet of Branch 620 will be held on Wednesday, Oct. 23rd, for members only.

A pedro party will be given by Council 96, C. R. & B. A., at Koch's hall, Thursday evening, Oct. 24.
