OUR AGENT,
Mr. A. Herman will call on subscribers in Geneseo, Mt. Morris, Dansville, Bath, Corning, Horseheads, Waterville and Elmira.

BATH
The annual election of officers of Division 8, A. O. H., was held on Friday evening.

Dr. John E. Hason, a coroner of Steuben county, was thrown from his rig last Saturday night near the Erie depot, while on his way to answer a sick call in the country, and two ribs were broken. His horse became frightened and ran away.

The body of Miss Lena Bennett, who died last Saturday night in Buffalo, was brought here and interred in Grove cemetery, Monday. She was 81 years of age, and formerly lived with Mrs. Catherine Mather, deceased.

John Moore of Indianapolis, Ind., was the guest of his uncle, Michael McNamara, this week.

City Attorney John Griffin of Hornellsville, a brother of Father Griffin of Bath, was in town Monday, on legal business before the surrogate.

At the democratic town convention held last Saturday these nominations were made: A. L. Underhill, supervisor; William D. Fry, town clerk; James M. Ferris, John Fanelet, Henry J. Donnelly, John S. Rosenbark, justices of the peace; William V. Longwell, John R. Hodges, Constant Duran, assessors; George M. Decker, highway commissioner; Louis E. Durham, John Buckley, overseers of the poor; J. Lyon Robie, collector; William French, Charles E. Thompson, John W. Lindsay, Joseph White and Gillis B. Smith, constables. Justice John F. Parkhurst will hold his first term of Supreme court at Corning November 5.

Misses Mary and Sarah Collins visited the Pan-American at Buffalo last week. The trustees of the home have created the position of assistant engineer at a salary of $60 per month.

The latest sensation at the Soldiers Home is the suspension from duty of Miss Elizabeth Bower, a nurse at the hospital, for alleged insubordination, by orders of A. C. Brundage, acting commandant. Miss Bower left work oblinded of the head and on a leave of absence, but was ordered to the head nurse to remain on duty, and ignored the latter's orders, and when she returned was suspended from duty.

"Wait and See," Dr. Sutterby's running horse, was entered in the Elmira races this week.

Dr. Ten Eyck O. Bursion, formerly head surgeon at the Home, is contemplating removing from Syracuse to Bath and practicing his profession.

The Soldiers' Home is rapidly filling up, members now returning for the winter season.

Nathan Price has been released from jail on $1,000 bail. Price is the man who stabbed Leslie Cornell on September 11.

At Campbell, last Friday night, a light engine backing up the tracks with several cars ran into a rig owned by Charles Phillips of Thurston on the Lackawanna crossing, near the depot. Both horses were killed, but the occupants escaped. The engine was thrown from the track and landed crosswise on the road, blocking it for several hours.

Last Saturday's registration in Bath showed an increase over the corresponding day in 1906. To-day is the last day of registration here.

BARNARD'S CROSSING.
A very quiet but pretty wedding was solemnized at Holy Rosary church, Lexington avenue, Wednesday morning, the 16th inst., at 9 o'clock, uniting Miss Mary Anna Murphy, daughter of Michael Murphy of Hamford's Landing and Mr. Frank J. Reddy. A nuptial mass was celebrated on the occasion. The bride was very nicely attired in her going-away gown and carried an inland prayer book handsomely bound in Persian calf, lined with silk and with gilt crosses, a gift from a departed sister. A wedding breakfast was served at the home of the bride, after which the happy couple left for a brief trip to Ashtabula and Cleveland, Ohio. The happy couple will be at home after Oct. 29th at Glendale park, and will have the best wishes of a host of friends.

SHORTSVILLE.

St. Dominic's Dramatic club will present the play entitled "Champion of Her Sex," at the Harlow Opera House, Oct. 2d. The play will be followed by a grand ball.

SENECA FALLS.
In St. Patrick's church, Monday afternoon at 8 o'clock occurred the marriage of Miss Mary Carraher of this place and John Kane Phelps. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Father Dwyer in the presence of a large circle of friends. Following the service at the church the bridal party was driven to the home of the bride in Ovid street, where a reception was held. The house was handsomely decorated with flowers. Refreshments were served, and at 6.45 the happy couple departed for an extended wedding trip. They will make their future home in Phelps.

The Father-Matthew T. A. B. society will hold its annual reception on Friday evening, October 25th, in Johnson's Opera House. An entertainment will precede the ball.

William Rankin died Saturday afternoon at his home in Bayard street of kidney trouble, aged 55 years. He was a man highly esteemed by all who knew him. He is survived by a wife and one son, James G. Rankin. The deceased was a member of the O. M. E. A., which organization will hold the funeral in a grand hall at 11 a.m. Monday morning. The services will be held at St. Patrick's church, Rev. Father Dwyer officiating.

CLEVELAND'S Superior Baking Powder

may cost a little more per can, but it insures perfect, wholesome food. In fact, it is more economical in the end, because it goes further in leavening and never spoils the food.

CLEVELAND BAKING POWDER CO. NEW YORK

You cannot, if you value good health, afford to use cheap, low-grade, alum baking powders. They are apt to spoil the food; they do endanger the health. All physicians will tell you that alum in food is detrimental.

CALEDONIA.

Edward McLaughlin spent Sunday with friends in Rochester.

Frank Graney left on Monday for a trip through Ohio in the interest of a patent medicine company of Rochester.

A very unique wedding took place in St. Patrick's church, Mumfords, on Tuesday morning at 9.30 o'clock, one in which Caledonia feels greatly interested, the contracting parties being Miss Elizabeth O'Neil of Mumfords and Mr. George Wood of Buffalo, formerly of this place, with Rev. B.W. Gommenginger officiating. They were attended by Miss Lucy Jopp of this village and Mr. Charles Barrett of Buffalo. The bride was crowned in a handsome pearl gray dress with applique trimmings with hat to match, and carried a bouquet of bridal roses and a white rosary. Hermaid was in a pretty dress of blue with a white silk bodice. Miss Margaret J. Sullivan of LeRoy presided at the organ, and while the ceremony was being performed rendered, very effectively, "O Promise Me." Immediately after the ceremony the young couple left over the B. R. & P. road for Rochester, from thence to Buffalo, where a reception was tendered them at the home of the bride's aunt, Mrs. L. J. Campbell. The young couple are well and favorably known here by a host of friends who wish them all kinds of future happiness. The bride is a very estimable young lady, she having acted as organist in St. Columba and St. Patrick's churches for the past ten years. The groom is a very promising young man. The out-of-town friends were: Mrs. L. J. Campbell, Buffalo; Miss Francis Wood, LeRoy; Miss Kathryn Abel, Avon.

Electric fans, roll top desks, fine engravings and pictures, mirrors, expensive floor coverings etc. are not supplied to the pupils of the Hendrick Commercial Training School, nor is the pupil charged for those luxuries in high tuition rates, as is the case in some other business schools in this city. This school is comfortably and suitably furnished, and what it does offer its pupils is first class instruction by coaches second to none in the city at moderate rates also effective and bonafide assistance to obtain positions when qualified.

Its stenographers, who write the Fernin, the only shorthand taught in Rochester having highest gold medal, Columbian Exposition, are winning golden opinions from their employers, who will be soon heard from. We again ask the patronage of the readers of this paper to help us build up the largest as well as the best business school in Rochester.

We thank those who have responded to our former invitation and assure them that they will have no cause to regret their preference. Everyone knows where Powers Block is and when you hear the hum of study and the click of the typewriter at No. 340 step in, we will be glad to have you inspect our school and speak a good word for it whether you register or not.

Acts as a Tonic. Rev. J. Heldeger used Pastor Koenig's Nerve Tonic for sleeplessness, recommended me to try it, and it had the desired effect. I am of a very nervous disposition, which makes me at times so irritable that I am not able to be steady at any work or occupation, and in the evening I am so tired that I feel the greatest necessity for rest, but could not sleep until I used this remedy, and it seems to act also as a tonic as well as a cure for nervousness. It is a wonderful medicine, without which it would have been hard for me to have continued my work. I was requested to write this for Sister Gabriela of Yankeo, S. D. Mother M. Matilda. A Valuable Book on Nervous Diseases and a Sample Bottle to any address. Poor patients also get the medicine free. Prepared by the Rev. Father Koenig, of Fort Wayne, Ind., since 1876, and now by the KOENIG MED. CO., Chicago, Ill. 49 S. Franklin Street. Sold by Druggists at $1 per Bottle 6 for $5. ### SHORT SERMONS.

Humility is the root, mother, nurse, foundation and bond of all virtue. Whatever manner of death may take us from earth, let us make sure of God's mercy, which alone can save us in the hour of dissolution, whether foreseen or unexpected. Be thy longing desire to see God, thy fear to lose him, thy sorrow to be deprived of him for a time, thy joy that he can draw thee to himself; then wilt thou live in profound peace. The martyrs and virgins alike live and die not for themselves and for their own even lawful glory, but for God and his Christ, at the foot of whose cross they always stand in spirit with Mary, the mother of Jesus.
