The annual inspection and field day of the fire department of this village will take place next Thursday, Nov. 7. The Mt. Morris band has been engaged to furnish the music for the occasion. Thomas O'Grady of Rochester was in town on Wednesday.

Mrs. W. Curran of Avon was the guest of her sister, Miss Mary J. Higgins, over Sunday last.

The mission which was given last week at St. Mary's church was very successful, and good effects must surely result from it. Father Hughes has worked hard to have all the congregation attend and by the large number of communicants (nearly 500), his labor has been repaid. On Thursday evening Father Dalley preached a sermon on temperance, and 350 took the pledge. On Sunday evening, long before the appointed time for the closing services of the mission commenced the church was thronged. Father Burke preached the closing mission sermon. Both of the Fathers are eloquent preachers, and their sermons and instructions will long be remembered by St. Mary's congregation.

SHORTSVILLE.

The play, "Champion of Her Sex," which was given on Wednesday evening of last week, under the direction of Prof. Thomas Hogan of Rochester, as shorted by St. Dominic's dramatic club of Shortsville and Manchester proved a success. The cast of characters was as follows: Mrs. Duplex, a wealthy widow, Louisa McLaughlin; Mrs. Bartobara, her mother, Elizabeth Cummings; Florence Duplex, her daughter, Kathryn Delephant; Caroline Duplex, step-daughter of Mrs. Duplex, Margaret Dunn; Rhoda Dendron, Polly May, schoolmates of Florence Duplex, Katharina Moore and Alice Smith; chambermaid, Anna Dunn; cook, Julia Cummings. The specialties, composed of home and Newark talent, were carried out fine among which was the comic sketch, "Dot Garden Gate," given by the Newark talent. The songs, "Aunt Old Schoolhouse Door," and "Poor Old Maid," by Prof. Thomas Hogan, were carried out to perfection. The songs, "Dolly Grey" and "Daisy Dimple's Dan," rendered by Patrick McLaughlin of Manchester, are worthy of great praise. After the play they "tripped the light fantastic" to the strains of Weller's orchestra. This play will be presented by the same cast at Clifton Springs some time this month.

Mass will be said at 9 o'clock to-morrow morning (Sunday), instead of 11 a. m., giving a chance to those who have not completed the jubilee.

Hon. Jacob S. Haight.

Hon. Jacob S. Haight, who has been nominated for the Assembly in the Fourth district, one of the best known and most popular democrates on the west side. He was born in Chiles in 1854. His early schooling was obtained in the town of Riga, completing his education at the Academy in the same town. For nearly 20 years he has been a resident of the town of Gates. He was first engaged in farming, but 20 years ago he started in the coal business. He has an office and extensive yards on West avenue, near the city line.

Mr. Haight has always been active in the affairs of his town and has held many local offices despite the fact that the town is normally republican. He was first elected as justice of the peace, serving four years. Following this he represented the town of Gates twice in the board of supervisors, being elected both times by handsome majorities. In 1893 he was the democratic nominee for sheriff and made an excellent run. Mr. Haight was elected assemblyman by a handsome majority in 1897. It is exact justice to state that he made an excellent record in the assembly. He handled much local legislation and was able to acquire a prominence seldom gained by a new member. He was very popular among his colleagues and had much success with his measures. He was the author of the bill abolishing the use of the whip in the levy and was influential in support of other popular measures. Although he was the only democrat on the west side of the legislature, winning the confidence of his entire constituency. He was also author of the bill dissolving the west side sewer commission, a saving to the people of $50,000.

Acts as a Tonic.
Rev. J. Heldeger used Pastor Koenig's Nerve Tonic for sleeplessness, recommended me to try it, and it had the desired effect. I am of a very nervous disposition, which makes me at times so irritable that I am not able to be steady at any work or occupation, and in the evening I am so tired that I could not sleep until I used this remedy, and it seems to act also as a tonic, as well as a cure for nervousness. It is a wonderful medicine, without which it would have been hard for me to have continued my work. I was requested to write this for Sister Gabriela of Yankton, S. D., who writes me: "I used Koenig's Nerve Tonic for nervousness, and it cured me. I feel better now than I have in many months. I am now able to do my work and to enjoy life." Prepared by the Rev. Father Koenig, of Fort Wayne, Ind., since 1875, and now by the

COOK OPERA HOUSE.

A grand solid bill of vaudeville, coprising nine thoroughly meritorious turns, is promised for next week at the Cook opera house. The chief performers are Filson and Errol, who were last seen in Rochester in a skit called "The House Divided." These clever actors now have a new sketch named "A Trip on the Derby," which is said to be an immensely entertaining little comedietta. Another strong attraction is Midgley and Carlisle, who have long been recognized as one of the best juvenile teams in vaudeville.

One of the most famous dancers in America will be found in Manie Gehrue, who introduces all kinds of original buck dancing, cake-walking and the like. The World's trio gives a comedy sketch with songs and dances. The Three Poiriers do sensational stunts on rings and bar. The St. Onge Brothers are an immensely funny team of trick bicyclists. The Three Deltorellis are a trio of grotesque and entertaining musicians from Europe, who produce really meritorious music. A novelty is given by the Four Malatzoffs, who exploit the dances of the peasants of Russia. This act is instructive as well as entertaining. Carlin and Williams set out to make you laugh, and always succeed admirably.
