BEORT INSTRUCTIONS ON THE GOS PELBY A REVEREND PATRER.

Gospel - St. Matthew xxiv., 15-25. The abomination of desolation

One object of this gospel was to advise Christ's followers among the Jews to escape the evils that were to come over Jerusalem, and the other was to warn Christians who will be living at the end of the world to prepare for the desolation that will precede His second coming, when He will come to judge the living and the dead.

In regard to Christians, Christ spoke of that abomination which will be caused by all sorts of crimes, and which, like a mighty torrent, will overflow the earth in the days of Antichrist, who will appear at the end of the world.

Christ counsels Christians to flee from the general corruption that will reign supreme with Antichrist, even at the cost of what was most dear to them sermon of Bishop Maes was the note on this earth, preferring to lose all things rather than lose their souls and forfeit the imperishable goods of heaven.

Considering how all the predictions in regard to Jerusalem were most minutely fulfilled, we understand why Jesus Christ said that heaven and earth shall pass away, but that His words shall not pass away. Moreover, let us learn to fear the dreadful punishments of the anger of God, to do penance for our sins, to avoid the occasions of sin, and to prepare ourselves for the day of judgment, of which the Gospel speaks, and which is explained on the first Sunday of Advent.

REV. DR. HENEBRY.

EDITOR OF CATHOLIC JOURNAL: Time and again, through the medium of your esteemed paper, I wrote in a praiseworthy manner of that noted professor of the Celtic language, the Rev. Dr. Henebry of the Catholic l'niversity at Washington Just now here is much criticism in the Ancient Order of Hibernians as well as in the Gaelic League on the "non-re-appointment' of Rev Dr. Henebry in the Celtic chair. For such an action on the part of the authorities of the university who have the matter in hand, there seems to be no clear nor absolute reason for the change. Undoubtedly the much regretted commo tion had its birth in the snap judgment of some individuals who are Saxonized in their way of thinking if not, "red tape" must have its play vithin the walls of the university. Or it may be the Rev. Dr. is too radical an Irishman for the "policy worshippers," who seemingly are anxious for H. Ansell & Co., his removal. However, we trust the whole matter has been grossly exagappointed authorities of the university will deliberate the case in a manner that will vindicate Rev. Dr Henebry Rochester 3350. in his worth and usefulness in the Celtic chair. Moreover, the Rev. Dr. is acknowledged the peer of all Gaelie scholars of the day. Aye, he is the greatest Celtic philologist within the pale of the Catholic church. He is a Principal Office and Yard.
