CATHEDRAL.

One week from to-morrow the devotion of the Forty Hours will begin at this church.

The first regular meeting of the R. C. B. C. will be held this (Saturday) evening at the residence of Mrs. K. O. Mahon, 126 East avenue.

The first of the series of "Round Table Talks" on the essays, which Dr. Hanna has arranged to be given before the Nazareth alumnae, was heard last evening at the Academy hall. Charles Lamb was the subject presented, and after dwelling briefly on the personal traits of the writer, Father Hanna directed the attention of his audience to Lamb's achievements in literature, reading several selections from the author's works to illustrate his quaint and graceful style. The lecture was most instructive and entertaining, and was much enjoyed by all.

The pedro party to be held at Cathedral hall on next Monday evening promises to be one of the largest entertainments of the kind ever held in the parish. It will be under the auspices of the Ladies' Aid society, and by them a most cordial invitation is extended to all. A pleasant evening is assured, and at the same time each one is assisting the ladies in their worthy work. The admission fee has been placed at a nominal sum, and refreshments will be served.

At the family residence, 85 Fulton avenue, on last Tuesday evening, occurred the death of John Cogrove. The deceased is survived by his wife, two sons, Patrick and John Cogrove; also by three daughters, Mary, Martha and Anna Cogrove. The funeral was held from this church on Friday morning at 9 o'clock.

Michael J. McGuire died Nov. 11. He is survived by one sister and a brother. The funeral took place from the residence of his sister, Mrs. J. P. Rickard, Jr., 18 Syke street, Thursday morning, Nov. 14th, and from this church.

An interesting and impressive ceremony was performed at Nazareth convent on Jay street Thursday morning at eight o'clock. It was the reception of young women into the order of the Sisters of St. Joseph. The ceremony was performed by Bishop McQuaid and the sermon was delivered by Bishop John Clancy of Elphin, Ireland.

The special function was the solemn profession of vows by sisters who have spent the prescribed time in the novitiate of the order. Among these was the niece of Bishop Clancy. It was for the purpose of performing this ceremony that Bishop Clancy made his journey to this country. He was in the country several years ago and saw the work of the Sisters of St. Joseph and was so pleased that when his niece announced her intention of entering upon a religious life, he recommended that she enter this order. Several postulants were admitted Thursday morning. Among them was Miss Loretha Morgan, niece of the late Very Rev. James P. Clancy. Bishop Clancy made a short address to those who were received and impressed upon them the reality of Christ, the spouse they had chosen, and his desire for their individual service.

ST. JOSEPH'S.

Fire Marshall Walter announced that he had inspected the repairs made on St. Joseph's School, on Franklin street, and that he finds the school building is now perfectly safe and patrons need have no fear of sending their children there.
