This young lady is looking into the baking powder question in a practical way. She will find that, using Cleveland's Baking Powder, and a Cleveland receipt book, she can make cake and rolls finer than the baker's and save half the cost.

Besides, she will be sure that they contain no alum and are absolutely pure and wholesome.

the division for-ensuing year, and the interest and enthusiasm of the occasion were enhanced by the presence of the County President Thomas E. Moran, of Corning, and the degree team of Corning division, which afterwards exemplified the unwritten work of the order in a most commendable manner. The ceremonies took place in the parlors of the division in the Hallock block on Liberty street. The installation of the officers was the first thing on the programme, and County President Moran duly installed the following into their respective chairs: President, Timothy J. Hanrahan; Vice-President, James L. Grogan; Recording-Secretary, Bernard C. Ford; Financial Secretary, Richard R. Flynn; Sentinel, Martin J. Hanrahan; Sergeant at Arms, John McNally. After the degree team from Corning worked three degrees on several candidates. The work was finely executed by the following: Thurston, Jas. J. Manning, orator; William J. O'Neil, bard; Charles McMillen; sentinel, John Fetter; grand guide, Charles Carroll; guides, Charles Kelly, Charles Densen, Thomas Connors, Michael Moore. At the conclusion of the ceremonies a social session was enjoyed. The Corning brothers returned home after having spent a most enjoyable evening. It is hoped that they will visit here again in the near future.

CHARLOTTE.

The first week of the mission work was concluded at Holy Cross Catholic church, Charlotte, last Sunday night. The mission has been conducted by Rev. T. F. Burke, of the Parish Fathers. There have been a mass at 5 and another at 8 o'clock, confessions in the afternoon and instructions and a discourse in the evening. The interest has been great and the church, which has been newly arranged to accommodate nearly 500 persons, has been well filled at the services.

There was a series of lectures by Father Burke at Holy Cross church each evening this week and next Sunday for non-Catholics in the following order: "Who is the Religious Teacher of Mankind?" "Can we be Saved Through the Bible Alone?" "Why Confess our Sins to a Man?" "The Lord's Supper—Is it Mere Bread?" "The Life Beyond the Grave." "Why Do We Honor the Blessed Virgin?" "The Catholic Act of Sacrifice." "Why Am I Catholic?"

Many non-Catholics have been attending the mission.

We keep a supply of A. O. H. and A. O. H. Auxiliary blanks. Call and get our prices. They are as low as any. All kinds of printing done at reasonable rates. The CATHOLIC Journal office is at 324 1/2 Main street Telephone 2352.

COOK OPERA HOUSE.

By far the most attractive turn offered on next week's bill at the Cook Opera house is that given by the description of it in the St. Louis Post dispatch. "A brilliantly lighted stage brings out the charm of some rich old paintings, with a production of the famous Gainsborough. When the lights die down the picture is stolen and the other canvases roll up in a mysterious way, disclosing the gorgeously costumed originals in real flesh and blood. Besides them are a many beauties, and the octette step sprightly to the middle of the stage." The octette has been praised by all the western press.

Monroe, Mack and Lawrence are a trio that have been known as expert comedians. They appear in an immensely funny sketch called "How to Get Rid of a Mother-in-Law." The three Brooklyns give a musical act. Forrester and Floyd introducing dancing and cozier songs. Ritz Mario is reported to be a unusually fine and pleasing violinist. The Yale Duo are accomplished club swingers. Willard Simms' imitations and burlesques are said by the Chicago papers to be exceedingly clever and amusing.

Fred H. Caldwell is an entertaining singer and dancer. Hoeker and Lester are on the bill. Fred H. Caldwell is a Rochester boy, and his appearance here on a professional stage should create much interest. This bill will be given every afternoon and evening during the week.

BAKER THEATRE.

A rare treat will be the appearance of Miss Mattie Fulton, a famous soprano prima donna next Sunday evening at the concert to be given by the Grand Amateur Orchestra under the direction of A. L. De Robert at the Baker Theatre.

An extraordinary attraction in romantic plays is "An American Gentleman" in which two Rochester favorites Mr. William Bonelli and Miss Rose Stahl, supported by an excellent company will play an engagement at the Baker Theatre for the first three nights of next week with matinees on Tuesday and Wednesday.

The well known Irish comedian Joseph Murphy will be the star at the Baker Theatre the last three nights of next week with the usual matinees. Mr. Murphy has succeeded in making for himself an enduring place in the hearts of thousands of patrons of the theatre who enjoy the comedies redolent of Old Ireland, her humor and her pathos, her wit and her trials, her sufferings and her courage. Mr. Murphy brings with him an excellent company.

Will Surely Recommend It. 2 Alpena, Mich., Feb. 23, 1900. I have recommended Pastor Koenig's Nerve Tonic in many cases that came under my observation while stationed at Isadore, Mich., and in all cases it had the desired effect, and especially so with Mrs. J. Robatek, Mr. Jas. Sullivan and daughter and Mary Mazurek. Knowing the Tonic is no humbug, I recommend it whenever any sick come to my notice.

Rev. E. L. Buk, written from Cortez, Col.: I have been suffering several years from nervousness and could not sleep, but after taking one bottle of Pastor Koenig's Nerve Tonic could go to bed early and sleep all night. I am highly pleased with its effect.

A Valuable Book on Nervous Diseases and a Sample Bottle to any address. Poor patients also get the medicine free. Prepared by the Rev. FATHER KOENIG, of Fort Wayne, Ind., since 1876, and now by the KOENIG MED. CO., Chicago, Ill., 49 S. Franklin Street.

Sold by Druggists at $1 per Bottle; 6 for $5. Large Size, $1.75; 6 Bottles for $9. In Rochester by J. S. Flannery, 126 North Clinton St.

His Holiness.

There is no personality in the world today which touches the imagination and arouses curiosity as does that of the pope, says the Rome correspondent of the New York Tribune. Not the czar of Russia nor the shah of Persia nor the king of Siam is surrounded with such fascination and mystery, drawing the hordes of all the reverence of millions to himself. This peculiar figure is in many ways unique in his habits and surroundings. He lives in the largest palace in the world, which contains art treasures of untold value. His everyday life has for twenty-three years been bounded by a few square yards of land what is contained in a good sized garden—and he is the only sovereign without possessions, wielding immense power without temporal support of any kind.

Died a Catholic.

Dr. Frederick Loeber, the distinguished chief surgeon of Toussaint Hospital, New Orleans, died recently in that city. On his deathbed he accepted the Catholic faith. Racially Dr. Loeber was a Jew, but in religion he was a Lutheran. His father, grandfather, great-grandfather and great-great-grandfather all were distinguished Lutheran ministers. Dr. Loeber himself was a graduate of the University of Hesse-Darmstadt. Three years ago Emperor William of Germany conferred on him the Order of the Red Eagle.

Father Perosi.

Don Lorenzo Perosi, the young priest who created such a furor in Italy and France with his sacred compositions a few years ago, is engaged upon a new Biblical work founded upon the book of Revelation. It will be entitled "The Apocalypse" and will be first produced, as was his "Resurrection of Christ," in Milan.

ITEMS OF INTEREST.

Archbishop Ireland was among those who received the honorary title of LL. D. at the Yale university bicentenary celebration.

In September of next year the Christian Brothers of Ireland will celebrate the centenary of the institution of their congregation.

A man who sometimes disagrees with his pastor should not stop going to church. And a man who sometimes disagrees with his Catholic paper should not stop reading a Catholic paper.

Belgium, where most of the religious orders recently expelled from France have sought refuge, is probably the most prosperous country in Europe. Its inhabitants are almost wholly Catholics, and they are an intensely pious people.
