ST. MONICA'S.

The people of St. Monica's Church on Genesee Street decided early in the summer to begin the erection of a rectory for their pastor, Rev. J. P. Brophy. The building is now completed and is a credit to the architect and contractors who had charge of the work.

The ladies of the parish, seeing the necessity of suitable furniture, determined to surprise Father Brophy by giving him a purse of gold with which he might furnish his new home.

The committee selected by the ladies to solicit the purse were Mrs. P. A. Magill, Mrs. B. Ginnity, Mrs. M. Brannigan and Mrs. F. Mills. Immediate after services Sunday afternoon, Father Brophy was invited to the school hall, where the ladies of the parish had assembled. J. P. Henry, in the name of the ladies, presented the purse as a token of the love and esteem of St. Monica's congregation for their young pastor.

ST. BRIDGET'S.

Next Sunday will be the feast of the Immaculate Conception.

The subscription promises to be very satisfactory. With assistance from all the amount required can be easily raised.

Mrs. K. J. Dowling, Sup. Trustee, instituted a new Branch of the L. C. B. A. last Saturday evening at Geneva.

Owing to Father Hendrick's inability to be present at the meeting of the Reading Circle last Monday evening Rev. Dr. Breen gave an informal talk on "Errors Against Culture," which was very instructive and entertaining. We hope to hear from the Rev. Dr. again. Father Hendrick will read his paper at a later date.

Mrs. Louise Sanders, has been quite ill, suffering from pneumonia.

Miss Josephine Mansfield is seriously ill with typhoid pneumonia.

The Fort-nightly padre club will meet next Monday evening at the home of the Misses Geraghty.

A requiem high mass was celebrated at this church at 8 o'clock on Thursday morning for the repose of the soul of Mrs. O'Connor, mother of Rev. Arthur O'Connor of Brooklyn.

Our congratulations are extended to Rev. Father Gommenginger on the very successful fair which was recently held.

Alice R. Kelly of Scio street entertained the W. A. I. O. Pedro club at her home Wednesday evening. The prizes were won by Mr. H. L. Jesserer and Miss Lowe.

CATHEDRAL.

At the Cathedral Sunday, the first of Advent, forty hours' devotion began after the High Mass. There was a procession of the blessed sacrament through the aisles of the church, the chanting of the litany and other special prayers. Rev. Dr. M. J. Nolan was celebrant of the mass. Very Rev. Mgr. De Regge was the master of ceremonies. The sermon was by Bishop McQuaid, who dwelt on the nature of the special devotion as a means of grace.

A meeting of the executive committee of the Cathedral School Association was held Tuesday evening in the office of Very Rev. T. F. Hickey, V. G., rector of the Cathedral. It was decided to hold the annual banquet and reunion of the association on January 14th. The dinner will take place in the Powers Hotel dining room and will be followed by a reception in the Mirror Hall.

The list of speakers has not yet been completed, but one of them will be Rev. Francis O'Rourke of Monroe, Mich., a former resident of this city, who is known as one of the most eloquent pulpit orators of his section of the country.
