SHORTSVILLE.

One of the most destructive fires that ever took place it this village occured early last Monday morning involving a loss of nearly $50,000. The fire was discovered about 3 o'clock Monday morning in the Cottage Hotel occupied by P. Burns. As the village has no adequate means of fighting fire it spread with great rapidity and soon five blocks a residence and three barns were burned to the ground. None of the property was heavily insured owing to the excessive insurance rates and the loss is a very severe blow to the village and to individuals.
