OUR AGENT, Mr. A. Herman will visit subscribers in Auburn, N. Y., next week.

SHORTSVILLE

Miss Mary Dunn, of Seneca Falls, spent the latter part of last week at her home here. Mrs. J. Tobin, who has been very sick, has recovered. Frank Russell, of Rochester, was the guest of his parents last Sunday. J. McLaughlin and family, of Manchester, have moved to this place and will occupy the Kennedy house on Ontario St. James Martin, of Saginaw, Mich., is the guest of his parents at Manchester. Miss Agnes Toomey is visiting her parents at Vt. Mr. and Mrs. G. Hirst, of Rochester, spent last Sunday here, the guest of the latter's mother, Mrs. Kinsella. To-morrow being the first Sunday of the month the Altar and Rosary society will meet after usual.

AUBURN

At the Holy Family church the elaborate functions of the Holy week came to a fitting climax in the brilliant ceremonial and gorgeous decorations in the morning and evening services of Easter Sunday. The sanctuary with its giant palms and great rhododendrons in full bloom formed a charming setting to the marble altars bedecked with Easter lilies and pink and white azaleas in profusion, while the hundred of incense-drenched flowers floated the entire church with unexampled brilliancy. The sermon on the occasion was preached by Rev. J. J. Hickey. His subject "The Joys of the Resurrection" never perhaps received a more eloquent portrayal and was most laudably commented upon in the daily press. Solemn vespers were sung in the evening, the pastor as celebrant being assisted by Rev. Fathers Egenbrogan, Kelly and Flynn. The musical program under the direction of the organist, Mrs. Stephen J. Murphy and James A. Hennessy was unexcelled in the city. Professor Muder's violin selections among which was the Flower Girl, from Faust, being especially fine. St. Mary's Alumni Association held a meeting Tuesday evening. The Knights of Columbus will hold a dance on April 16th. The funeral of Mrs. Frank Jordan took place last Monday from Holy Family church. Miss Margaret McConnell is critically ill at her home.

LMA

Easter Sunday was fittingly observed at St. Rose's church. The altars were decorated with the choicest flowers and wreaths of smilax. The gloom of the past two days was dispelled by the many lighted tapers which well expressed the joy of all for "He is risen." Many familiar faces were to be seen at the late mass, who had come from various avocations in life to spend the day in the old home or with friends of earlier days. Married, by Father FitzSimmons at noon, Wednesday 2nd inst, Mary Mahar of this place, and George Sheldon, of East Rush. The bride was beautifully attired in white and was attended by Marie Sheldon, sister of the groom, who was also attired in white. The groom was accompanied by his brother, Frank Sheldon, who acted as usher. After the ceremony a beautiful collation was served at the home of the McCabe sisters, aunts of the bride, with whom she has made her home since the death of her parents. Good wishes for the future was expressed by all.

Mrs. Roseanna Carroll, so long a resident of this place, has moved her family to Rochester. Our choir suffers a great loss in Anna Carroll, who has been for several years our leading soprano. The school question is still a vexed subject with us. A meeting is called for next Friday night when we hope something definite may be decided on. CALEDONIA. The services at St. Columba were very elaborate and impressive Easter Sunday. The altars presented a beautiful appearance with the many lighted candles and floral decorations of lilies, azaleas, potted plants and cut flowers. The sermon was very eloquent and appropriate for the day and the musical program under the direction of Mr. Theo. Hogan, of Rochester, was exceptionally fine. Miss Frances Wood, of LeRoy, spent Easter Sunday at her home here, also Mr. and Mrs. George Wood, of Buffalo, are visiting relatives in town. Mrs. P. Handman and little daughter of Buffalo, were guests of her sister, Mrs. John Leary, over Sunday.

CALEDONIA

Rev. Coleman O'Loughlin, of Phelps, delivered an eloquent panegyric on St. Patrick at the Holy Cross church on March 17th. Father Kennedy, of Hammondsport, was in town this week. ROMULUS. Easter Sunday was observed in the Sacred Heart church, Romulus, with a high mass, and sermon on the gospel of the Resurrection by Father Hendrick. The choir was under the direction of Miss Nellie Steele. Miss Ellen Snook presided at the organ, accompanied by Chester Denniston and Master Leon Denniston. The instrumental music was well rendered. The singing was very nice, the choir being a credit to the careful training of the teacher, Miss Steele. GENESSEO. Miss Elizabeth Schuler, who is teaching at Allen's Hill, was home for the week. Miss Mary J. Higgins was the guest of her sister, Mrs. W. Carran, of Avon, on Sunday. Miss Blanche Toland, teacher at Bellevue, was home for the week. Rev. A. A. Hughes entertained his family at home on Sunday. Mrs. Kate and daughter, of Fort Genesee, were the guests of Mrs. J. J. Higgins.

of her aunts, Misses Margaret and Mary Walsh, on Sunday last. The celebrated Master Park team, of Buffalo, defeated the Normal team in basket ball by a score of 22 to 10 on Friday evening of last week. The will of Cornelius O'Leary was admitted to probate on Saturday last. John C. O'Leary is executor. Amount of personal property $500. Invitations have been issued for the marriage of Miss Anna Fitzgerald and Charles H. Keller, both of this town, at St. Mary's church on Monday, April 7th, at two o'clock P. M. Timothy C. Reagan has purchased an interest in the Livingston Democrat. Mr. Reagan has been connected with the Democrat office for twelve years and has been its foreman for the past six years and his many friends are glad to hear of his new adventure and wish him success. Misses Johanna Cahill and Nellie Thompson entertained the Jolly club on Tuesday evening last and a very enjoyable time was had by all present. The first prize was won by Miss Mary E. Hickey and the booty was carried home by P. Carragher. This is the last meeting of the club for this season. The club will probably play Whist next season as a number of the members play the game now.

Mass was celebrated at St. Mary's church on Easter at eleven o'clock. Rev. A. A. Hughes preached a very appropriate sermon to the day. The altar was handsomely decorated with cut flowers and potted plants. The choir rendered Leonard's mass in E flat in an excellent manner.

DANSVILLE. Miss Kirschel spent Easter with her parents in Buffalo. Rev. M. Kirschel, of St. Mary's parish, visited Rochester and Buffalo this week. Herman Geiger has been visiting in Williamsville and Buffalo. Miss Alice Mahedy spent Easter in Buffalo with her sister, Miss Mary. Miss Mary Murphy, of New York city, visited the Misses Rowan, Franklin street, Holy Week. John Maloney, of Rochester, spent Easter with his parents. Miss Sophie Wolf has gone to New York city. Mr. and Mrs. D. W. Burrows have moved to Buffalo. They will be missed in St. Patrick's parish. The C. R. & B. A. received Holy Communion in a body at St. Mary's church last Sunday morning. During the Lenten season Rev. Father Dunn gave a practical course of sermons on the seven deadly sins. The C. M. B. A. and the Cadets of the Sacred Heart will receive Holy Communion at St. Patrick's church next Sunday morning. Hon. H. E. Huver, a member of St. Mary's parish was thrown from a carriage Friday and died before he could be taken to his home. St. Boniface Society, the Grand Army and the Maccocks attended the funeral which was from St. Mary's church Monday morning. Mr. Huver had heart trouble for some months. Helen Marie, infant daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Philip E. Blum, born March 24th, was baptized at St. Patrick's church Easter Sunday by Rev. W. T. Dunn. Sponsors: Mr. John Blum and Mrs. Callagan. The young ladies of St. Mary's parish gave a delightful card party in Columbus hall Thursday evening. The floral decorations at St. Patrick's church Easter Sunday were very elaborate. The choir under the directorship of Prof. George Kramer rendered appropriate music. Rev. W. T. Dunn delivered an excellent discourse from the text: He is risen. He is not here. The Easter collection amounted to $1193.00. Simple but effective were the floral decorations at St. Mary's church. The pastor, Rev. M. Kirschel, wore handsome vestments, the gift of the Christian Mothers society. Father Kirschel preached a fine sermon in English at the 8 o'clock mass and in German at high mass at 10:30. The pastors of both churches were pleased with the attendance of members at all the public devotions during the Lenten season, and especially pleased with the large numbers who approached the Sacraments. The forceful sermons and active work on the part of Rev. Fathers Dunn and Kirschel have been fruitful.

EAST BLOOMFIELD. The lecture, auction sale and dance that took place last Monday night proved successful and entertaining in every particular. The Rev. D. S. Kennedy C. S. P. lectured on the subject of Intemperance in a very interesting and instructive manner. Rev. Father Gommenginger of Caledonia visited at Father Neville's last week. The many friends and acquaintances of Mr. T. M. Hogan of Rochester were glad to meet him again at the lecture and dance recently.

COOK OPERA HOUSE. The vaudeville show announced for next week at the Cook Opera House promises to be rich with music, comedy and novelty. About the most sensational turn on the list will be Woodward's seals. These ungainly animals, which, seemingly, would be difficult subjects for training are made to do all kinds of amusing things. Mrs. Thorndyke Boucault, wife of the famous Dion Boucault, will appear in a sketch called "A Proper Impropriety" assisted by Herbert Pattee. Avery Strakosch, formerly with Strakosca opera company, has received many complimentary press notices for the judicious use of her fine soprano voice. The four Cuttys are said to present an unusually attractive musical act. Will F. Denny, a favorite singer of "descriptive ballads," has a repertoire of up-to-date compositions. Thompson and Wolfe will appear in a clever little sketch called "After the Matinee." The Dancing Howards mingle comedy and singing with expert dancing. Lawson and Nason are comedy cyclists. Hallon and Fuller will appear in a new sketch. This bill will be given at Cook Opera House twice every day next week, except the Sabbath. Whenever anyone "has trouble" in a theatre, it is apt to be with the door-keeper. The management wishes to call attention to the fact that this position is filled by Mr. Mert Clark, whose long experience in handling crowds, makes things run smoothly for everybody.

BAKER THEATRE. The Baker Theatre starts its fifth successful season of stock productions next Monday night, April 7th, and it is claimed that this will be the most pretentious effort ever made in giving Rochester theatre goers a successful series of most distinctly meritorious productions. The company engaged this year includes such well known people as Miss Esther Lyon as leading woman, who has achieved many notable and conspicuous successes in a widely varied line of characters during her ten years experience in stock work. Mr. Herbert Bostwick as the leading man is expected to promptly win favor with local theatre-goers on account of his being a capable actor. The opening bill for week of April 7th will be William Gillett's stirring and realistic war drama "Secret Service." The plays that will be produced during the entire season it is promised will be just as excellent as this opening play. The matinee days will be the same as past seasons, being Tuesday, Thursday and Saturday. 10c will be charged for admission at matinees to all parts of the house and at night 10, 15 and 25c for reserved seats. Seats are now on sale for "Secret Service."

C. R. B. A. The Central Council will meet with Council 25 on Monday evening next. Council 18 will have a pedro party next Tuesday evening. All members are invited to attend.

Knights of Columbus. The Knights of Columbus will hold a smoker next Friday evening. The Easter reception was a decided success. The rooms were filled to overflowing and a thoroughly good time was had by all present.

Easter Wedding. Invitations gotten up neatly at this office at reasonable prices. Call and see our line.

Spring Suits. Assemblyman Gardiner of 232 State street, has one the most complete stocks of cloths for the spring trade in the city. All the new shades in Scotch and English suiting and the new weaves for spring overcoatings are on his counters. Mr. Chris Kerrigan who has charge of the cutting is turning out work that gives complete satisfaction. The prices are the lowest in the city for the class of work.

Life of McKinley. Those of our subscribers who have not been reached by our agent and who desire to secure their book at once can get one by calling at this office.

A STUPENDOUS WORK

THE WORLD-WIDE ACTIVITY OF THE SISTERS OF CHARITY

Remarkable Statistics With Regard to the Labors Throughout the World of Self-Sacrificing Spiritual Daughters of St. Vincent de Paul.

According to a foreign correspondent, a few weeks ago a Belgian Catholic editor asserted that the Sisters of Charity conducted 2,700 hospitals, asylums and orphanages in various parts of the world. At once, one of those intolerant persons who pretend to believe that the Church is doing nothing for humanity, challenged the statement, and requested the editor to show on what he based his assertion. Since the challenger happened to be a Socialist-Liberal member of the Belgian Chamber of Deputies, the editor proceeded to gratify him. He gained access to the official record of the Mother House, and the result of his investigation was a surprise, even to himself. Says the correspondent: "According to the official record of the community, there are not 2,700 houses—hospitals, asylums, orphanages—managed by the Sisters of Charity of St. Vincent de Paul but exactly 2,785. There are as many convents, to be sure—too many for those people who dread the pernicious influence of the church of Rome—but not enough for the sick, the orphans, the aged, who find, under the convent's roof, shelter, help and consolation. France and Algeria count 1,073 houses; England has 45; Austria 239; Belgium 45; Spain and its colonies have 440; Portugal 8; Prussia 39; Switzerland 7; Turkey 23; China 13; Persia 3; Syria 12; Egypt 7; the United States and Canada have 100; Central America has 19; Brazil 29; Chile 24; Colombia 14; Ecuador 18; La Plata 21; Peru 19. "In these 2,785 houses there are 31,000 Sisters. Who can realize the amount of good done by that army of gentle women superiorly trained for the battle against disease, poverty and crime? Who that is Catholic does not glory to belong to a Church that fosters the devotion represented by these thousands? Who that has a heart does not feel grateful for the treasures of charity that God has placed in woman's soul?"

THE AUBURNVILLE SHRINE

The crown of thorns in gold for the statue of Our Lady of Martyrs to be erected the coming summer at Auburnville shrine is now ready and a marvellously fine piece of work it is. It will be described in the Messenger for May, in which number there will be a fine illustration of it. Arrangements will soon be made for exhibiting it in some of the cities in which the shrine is well known, in Providence where it was designed and made, in Boston, New York and Philadelphia. The statue will be ready in June. The day for the ceremony of blessing it and offering the crown will be determined later. The chalice will be ready in good time; offerings of gold for it will still be gratefully received. Mass will be said at the shrine on Sunday, April 13, the anniversary of the death of Catherine Tekowitza. The hotel property purchased last year by the Rev. John J. Wynne has been transferred to the corporation of the Shrine of Our Lady of Martyrs and is now entirely under the control of this body.

THE CHILD AT PRAYER.

A baby to a Baby prays. Oh, Infant Jesus, meek and mild. From 'mid the glory and the rays Look on a little child. As one child to another may, He talks without a thought of fear, Commending to a Child to-day All that a child holds dear: His father, mother, brother, nurse, His cat, his dog, his bird, his toys, Things that make up the universe Of darling girls and boys. All sheep and horses, lambs and cows, He counts them o'er, a motley crew, And children in the neighbor's house, And all the people, too. His friends—why all the world's his friend, This four-year's darling, golden curled. 'Tis long before it has an end, The bed-roll of his world. A child lifts up his little hands, Unto a Child; and it may be The Host of Heaven at gazing stands That tender sight to see. —Katharine Tynan.

UNGENEROUS BEQUEST TO THE CATHOLIC UNIVERSITY OF AMERICA.

Word has come to the university that it has been made a beneficiary under the will of the late Mrs. Sarah Ferris Devlin, of Boston, Mass., for the sum of $50,000. The university authorities are deeply grateful for this noble gift, and are very much encouraged in their exertions to complete this year the endowment fund of the university. On Saturday, 15th inst., a solemn mass of requiem for the repose of this good lady's soul was sung by the vice-rector, Very Rev. Dr. Garrigan, at which the professors and students of the institution assisted. The rector, Bishop Conaty, occupied his place in the sanctuary, and the be reaved husband of the deceased, Mr. Edward Devlin, was also present.

MASS FOR SAILORS.

Charlestown Navy Yard Will Have a Catholic Chaplain. For the first time in the history of the Charlestown navy yard there will be a regular Sunday mass for the Catholic sailors stationed there. Arrangements have been perfected and the first service will be held on Sunday, April 6, on the training ship Wabash. This is the outcome of an effort that the Rev. John W. McMahon, D. D., pastor of St. Mary's church, Charlestown, has been making for a little over a year. He went to Washington and with Congressman Fitzgerald calling on Secretary Long, asked that a chaplain be appointed for the navy yard. This was not practicable at the time on account of the lack of unassigned chaplains, and instead the secretary was asked to grant to the priests of Charlestown the same privileges which are accorded at Brooklyn. The Catholic Alumni sodality took the matter in hand some weeks ago, and appointed a committee of its members to act in the matter. The committee consisted of the Hon. Henry F. Naphean, Michael J. Murray, Dr. John T. Bottomley, Dr. Thomas J. Ball, and the Rev. D. T. O'Sullivan, S. J., the spiritual director of the sodality. Congressman Naphean presented the request to Secretary Long, who again favorably received the petition. On Tuesday afternoon, Rear Admiral Johnson, Capt. Pignat of the Wabash and Chaplain Brown of the navy yard, met in the commandant's office with a committee consisting of the Rev. Dr. McMahon, the Rev. Philip J. Gormley of St. Mary's church, and the Rev. Dr. O'Sullivan, accompanied by Thomas P. Flannagan, a member of the sodality, who introduced the committee to the commandant. Rear Admiral Johnson, Capt. Pignat and Chaplain Brown at once expressed their willingness and promised every assistance consistent with the regulations of the yard. Arrangements were then made for the celebration of mass every Sunday at 9:30 a. m., on board the Wabash, beginning April 6 next.

An organization known as the "Minute Men" has been started for "patriotic" purposes. It is only that A. P. A. masquerading under a new title. Bigotry by any other name will smell as unpleasantly. These movements founded on religious intolerance are foredoomed to fester and decay.—Sacred Heart Review.
