

CITY PARISH NEWS.

Interesting Budget of Happenings Gathered by Our City Reporters.

BLESSED SACRAMENT.

Active preparations are being made by the L. C. B. A. members of the parish for the grand silver tea reception to be held in the six school rooms of the new building on Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday evenings of this coming week. One of the features will be the sale of palms. As one of the largest florists has made special rates to the L. C. B. A. it is hoped that hundreds of palms will be disposed of. Refreshments of all kinds will be served and an orchestra will be in attendance. A Turkish smoking room will be one of the features. No special admission will be charged. All are invited.

The Young People's Society will be organized to-morrow at 4 o'clock. Father Connors will explain the aim and nature of the society. Both married and single are eligible for membership.

Father Connors wishes to thank Mrs. E. A. Mallon and Mrs. Craig and all who assisted them in the handsome donation which he received this week for the new church. This is in addition to the $25.00 which was received a few weeks ago from the same parties.

The sanctuary lamp donated by Mrs. James C. Barry was placed in position last week.

At services on Sunday evening of the blessing of the Sacred Heart statue donated by Mrs. Geo. Engert, Father Rawlinson preached a very fine sermon. The choir was assisted by Miss Margaret Heveron and Miss Bertha Rogers, violinist.

CORPUS CHRISTI.

Next Thursday May 29th is the feast of Corpus Christi. On that day a large class of boys and girls, who have been in preparation for the event, will receive the Holy Eucharist for the first time.

At the evening services during the Forty Hours Rev. T. Hickey, V. G. delivered the sermon on Sunday evening, Rev. W. P. Ryan on Monday evening and Rev. Dr. Nolan on Tuesday evening. The sermons were both instructive and interesting and were listened to by large audiences.

Mrs. Mary Reilly and family, of Joslyn Pk. have removed to Frank street.

Miss Jessie Minges rendered a number of solos at the funeral of Miss Brennan at Immaculate Conception church last week.

The Forty Hours devotion which opened in this church at high mass on Sunday closed with the procession of the Blessed Sacrament on Wednesday. The Blessed Sacrament was in exposition each day and large numbers visited the church during that time. It was gratifying to see the large numbers who attended services and received the sacraments.

A regular game of the C. Y. M. League was played Tuesday afternoon at 4 o'clock on the South Park grounds. Those engaged in the affair were the St. Mary's and Corpus Christi teams. The Corpus Christi's won by a score of 19 to 18. A batting rally in the ninth won the game. It was witnessed by a crowd of spectators. The game was interesting from the start although both pitchers were hit rather freely. Our team is slowly rounding into form and played a clearer game than before. The Corpus Christi's have now won 1 game and lost 1. The names of the players are: Legler, c; R. Hall, p; Slattery, 1 b; Kolb, 2 b; Ford, s; Frank, 3 b; Sullivan, 1 f; Lynch, c f; G. Hall, r f.

Ground has been broken at the corner of Main St. East and Prince for the new church.

IMMACULATE CONCEPTION.

The funeral of Miss Minnie K. Brennan took place from this church Friday morning at 9 o'clock. Solemn high mass was sung with Rev. Father O'Neil as celebrant, Rev. Father Finley, deacon and Rev. Father Eckle, sub-deacon. Rev. Father Gleason and Rev. John Doran were in the sanctuary. Miss Jessie Minges sang most beautifully the solos: "There is No Heart Like Thine, Dear Jesus" and "Nearer My God to Thee." Mr. William Predmore rendered with feeling "The Message to the Sacred Heart." The following acted as bearers: William Waters, Raymond Westbury, Bernard O'Killy, Frank Dowling, Sylvester Redding and Joseph Comerford.

In Memoriam.

On Saturday, May 17th, the members of the Nazareth Hall Academy Association met in the chapel of Nazareth convent to assist at a requiem mass in memory of the late Harry J. Cox. Rev. Geo. W. Burns celebrated the mass and the convent choir furnished the music. Many members of the association as well as relatives and friends of the deceased member were present.

At a meeting of the association held May 11th the following resolutions were adopted:

Whereas, Almighty God in His infinite wisdom has seen fit to take unto Himself the soul of our fond school mate, Harry J. Cox, at a time when he was just embarked on a career that promised to be one of unusual brilliancy in the business and social life of our city and at an age when he had already, by his integrity and ability, gained the confidence of his associates and colleagues who knew him in his school days can perhaps better than others appreciate because of our knowledge of the beauty of his character. Therefore be it Resolved, that we express to the grief stricken family our lively sense of the worth of our deceased brother, and convey to his sorrowing relatives our deep sympathy for their untimely bereavement. Also be it

Resolved, that a copy of the resolutions be embodied in the records of the Nazareth Hall Academy Association and another copy be sent to the bereaved family as a tribute to the memory of one we loved.

Committee, James Leo Fee, Augustine Hone, John Messner, Daniel Joyce.
