ANTRIM-A meeting of the Belfast executive of the United irish League was held in the United National club. Berry street May 15. Mr Thomas Maguire, solicitor, presided. There was a numerous attendance of delegates from the branches. The new branches-the Joseph Devlin and the Thomas Sexton—affiliated and paid fees. This makes seven affiliated branches in Belfast.

The weekly meeting of the Joseph Devlin branch of United Irish League in Ballymacarrett was held on May 11, Mr. McMullan, presiding. There was a large attendance of members. The minutes having been read and confirmed, several new members were proposed for admission. The chair man addressed the meeting and urged on those present to make a supreme effort to make the branch a credit to the district. He hoped in a very short time to have the strongest branch in the city, if not in Ulster. He also stated several very useful items were purchased in the past week to amuso the members of the club. The funeral of late Captain John Delargy left his residence, the Lordonderry Arms Hotel, Carlough on May 8, for the cemetery at Bay, Glen-Prior to the interment the remains were brought into the Cathotic church where solemn rites were conducted by the Rev M liamill, assisted by the Very Rev.
