ST. MICHAELS NEW CHURCH.

IMPRESSIVE CEREMONY OF DEDI-CATION AT PENN YAN.

Beautiful Structure Formally Opened Last Sunday -- Prominent Priests

Who Assisted In the Service --Excellent Work of the Pastor, Rev. Martin Hen-

The new St Michaels Church at Penn Yan, was formally dedicated by Rt Rev Bernard J McQuaid, Bishop of the Diocese of Rochester, last Sun The dedication ceremonies were held at 11 o'clock in the morning Assisting Bishop McQuaid in the dedication ceremony were Rev. Thomas Hendrick, of Rochester, Rev. Joseph Hendrick, of Ovid, Very Rev Dean McDonald of Geneva, Rev. Ludlow E Lapham of Rochester, Rev. James T. Dougherty of Canandaigua, Rev. Jere migh Maley of Craig Colony, Rev. Father Wall, of Stanley and the rector. Rev. Martin Hendrick.

Solemn high mass was celebrated by Rev Thomas Hendrick, with Rev Jos. Hendrick as deacon, Rev. Ludlow Lap ham as sub deacon, and Rev. Jeremiah Maley as master of ceremonies. The bishop sat at the left of the sanctuary. under a canopy The four priests who conducted the services were former residents of Penn Yan Every available foot of space in the church was occupied. About one thous and people were seated, and half as many more were standing. A special train from Canandaigua brought one hundred and seventy-five people, half of them being members of the Holy Name Society there. Many more came from ()vid, (leneva, Dundee and other places and a few from Avon, where Father Martin Hendrick was stationed for twenty-five years. The choir was augmented for the occasion, and the music was very fine. Rev. Martin Hendrick became pastor of the church in 1899, and has since continued its pastor. The erection of the new church is due in the main to his efforts.

The church will cost the in the neighborhood of $30,000, and is equipped with all modern improvements. The architect and builder of the new structure is George R. Styrker, of Penn Yan.

The church is of brick, gray Roman, and the trimmings are of light Indiana limestone. The roof is of tile, or fadeless green slate. The church is built in the decorated style of Gothia and has a tower. The auditorum consists *11:15ac.
of north and south sides and centre aisles. The sanctuary is in the extension of the auditorium with a vestry on | *6 48, 8 10 ac., *9:25ac., *9:42, *11 88

SACRED HEART ACADEMY.

Bishop McQuaid and About Forty of the Clergy Attend the Commencement. On Thursday last the annual commencement exercises were held at the Academy of Sacred Heart. After an entertaining program had been presented the graduates, the Misses-Langie, Whalen, Foley and Galvin, knelt before the venerable bishop and as he invested them with the golden medal.

Next came the distribution of premiums by the right reverend bishop. who crowned each kneeling claimant with a wreath handed him by a charming little flower girl. The highest honor for exemplary conduct was won by Miss Christine Galvin; the gold medal, for Christian doctrine, by Miss May Foley; success in study, by Misses Florence McRoden and Miss M. M Duffy.

The bishop then addressed the class and expressed the greatest gratification with the high order of the exercises and voiced the belief that with the Jesuits the religious of the Sacred Heart lead in the highest order of education.

At the close of the address all knelt to receive the episcopal blessing.

COOR OPERA HOUSE. The Cook Opera House Stock Company, which has firmly established itself as a highly popular dramatic organization, and which has scored a success in every play so far presented, will next week present "The Butter-

The play was produced a number of seasons ago in New York, where it enjoyed a long and successful run. The locale of the last act is in the Berkshire Hills, and the scene is said to give opportunity for a handsome setting. As the Cook employs two scenic artists, who are constantly painting and building scenery especially for the stock productions. Richard Baker will see that the piece is staged accurately and sumptuously.

This is not a "costume play" so Mr. Glazier, Miss Hope, Miss Courtney and Mr Hartford and the other favorites will be able to display more of their natural characters, while portraying the different roles allotted to them.

The Butterflies will be presented at the (bok every night next week with matinees Monday, Wednesday and Friday and Saturday Matinees ten
