AT CLIFF HAVEN.

[Written for The Catholic Journal] The dawning of Sunday morning brought what seemed quite home-like to see, at Cliff Haven, a tremendous down pour of rain for a few hours, but before the services of high mass were over, the sun shone though the day was cool throughout Solemn mass was celebrated by Father Driscoll, of New York, Father McDonald of Nova Scotia, being deacon and Rev. Mr. Slattery, sub-deacon. An excursion from Montreal brought a large number of Knights of Columbus the previous evening and the Chaplain of the Canadian Council Father Heffermen who delivered the sermon, taking for his text, "Faith" He was listened to by a large and appreciative congregation.

The male enoir of twenty-five voices from St. Anne's Church, Montreal, sang the mass in a most excellent manner. In the evening the choir gave a concert to a crowded audience, in the auditorium, which was very entertaining.

Monday morning the sun arose in all its splendor and the day proved a very warm and pleasant one. Three lectures are given in the formoon and in the evening. Father Gasson S. J. is giving the principal morning lecture could not see the situation from his EMcKenna, John Hamn, J. A. Maier, the Middle Ages." Dr. Walsh, of Georgetown University, is giving the Bards." Monday evening a Flower at the Curtis Pine Villa, which was very amusing.

At the date of writing Tuesday p. m. the day is a most perfect one.
