

REALIZED A FORTUNE

AN EASY METHOD OF MAKING MONEY.

It Was Discovered by a Frenchman—Warning to Collectors—Birds Eggs that seem of Little or No Value—Some Finely Marked Eggs.

A sparrow's egg seems of little or no value, and yet there is a man in Paris who can transform it into a prize really worth having.

A few years ago this wideawake Parisian was an assistant in a provincial museum of natural history, and while there he learned and saw a great deal which has since been of much use to him.

Of course, not having many rare eggs and lacking the necessary facilities for procuring them he could not supply them unless he manufactured them, and this he did.

Almost every collector of birds' eggs desires to have one or two finely marked nightingale's eggs, and is willing to pay a high price for them.

It can be seen that this is a very profitable business and a little consideration will show that there is not much risk of detection.

Not the least interesting of astronomical puzzles is the Gegenschein, or counterglow, a faint light twenty degrees or thirty degrees in diameter, that is seen by the naked eye only in the zodiac and always exactly opposite—or 180 degrees from—the sun.

The largest bridge in existence is not, as one would imagine, the work of some famous English or French engineer.

WINS HER WAY.

Showing the World News by Lida Calvert Obachina.

In the largest library in Oxford, England, has hung from time immemorial this notice: "Women and dogs are not admitted here."

Milton thought it improper for women to learn Greek and Latin.

Yes, and not so many years hence historians will record the fact that as late as the close of the nineteenth century, and perhaps a little later, it was considered improper and unwomanly for women to vote.

GLADNESS. If living is a joy to you, Because your soul is sound, And life seems good and sweet and true.

Of doubting and despair, But lift your voice all clear and plain, And sing that life is fair!

The Effect of Exercise on a Girl's Hands. The prominence given to athletic exercises in the training of girls is having a noticeable effect upon the size of their hands and their feet.

It seems rather contradictory, however, to hear that the foot is decreasing in size among the fair sex, but the explanation given by a well-known maker of ladies' boots and shoes is that the foot loses its flabbiness and becomes more firm and set.

ALMANAC OF CRIME. Very curious is the almanac which has been published by a foreign criminologist. It is entitled the "Almanac of Crime," and its object is to indicate those periods in each year when the various crimes are most likely to be committed.

Place one pint of fine-cut white celery in a saucepan over a fire, cover with boiling water, add one-half teaspoonful salt and cook till tender.

Broiled Oysters. For a family of six procure three dozen large oysters, drain and spread them in a napkin, cover them with another napkin, pat them lightly, season with very little salt and pepper and brush them over with melted butter.

BACHELOR'S REFLECTIONS.

All things that are not worth waiting for come to those who wait.

Brain power and refinement of intellect move in inverse ratio.

After you have learned to unlearn you are in a fair way of learning to learn.

It is hard for a fat woman to think that her thinner sister is not so out of pure malice.

A woman always feels that the way to improve her husband's health is to make some change in the weight of his underwear.

It is only in books that a man loves a woman so much he would be willing to let some other man have her if it would make her happier.

Polite society needs lies, but lies can get along without polite society.

Being "in" at the death is when a rich relative leaves you something in his will.

When a woman's friend has nothing to wear it is her providence; when it is herself it is her husband's providence.

Some people seem to think the way not to let their debts worry them is to spend money having a good time.

Two bores never get any amusement out of each other.

Falling in love is getting exclusive in your affections.

A village gossip has a conscientious feeling of duty well performed when she can tell you how many pieces the banker's wife had in the wash.

The thing to do is not to try to make your wife think you haven't been drinking, but to try to make her think you never can touch a drop without its going to your head.

After a woman indorses her minister's views on scandal she runs across the street to ask her neighbor who it is his wife always sits at the front door to see when he goes by.

No thoroughly occupied man is miserable.

The automobile smells worse to the man who can't afford to buy one than it does to anybody else.

Charity is like unto a river; the deeper it is the less noise it makes.

HEALTH AND DIET. After dinner sit awhile; after supper walk a mile.

Better wait on the cook than the doctor.

Hunger is the best sauce. The first dish pleaseth all.

Who sups well, sleeps well. Health and mirth create beauty.

Diet cures more than the lancet. Medicines are not meant to live on.

You dig your own grave with your teeth.

The nearer the bone the sweeter the flesh.

God cures, and the doctor takes the fee.

Often and a little eating makes a man fat.

You can't eat your cake, and have your cake.

Go to bed with the lamb, and rise with the lark.

Wine is a turncoat; first a friend, and then an enemy.

Children and chickens must be always picking.

Better lose a supper than have a hundred physicians.

He who would live for aye, must eat sage in May.

One hour's sleep before midnight is worth two after.

The best physicians are Dr. Quiet, Dr. Diet and Dr. Merryman.

That is not always good in the maw that is sweet in the mouth.

Eat a little at dinner, less at supper, sleep a lot, and you will live long.

He who hath good health is young; and he is rich who owes nothing.

Those who would be young when they are old must be old when they are young.

The full stomach loatheth the honey-comb; but to the hungry every thing is sweet.

The poor man walks to get meat or his stomach, the rich to get stomach for his meat.

THE WEELITTLES AT HOMBURG.

On a grassy knoll overlooking the Elizabeth Fountain, Homburg they view their surroundings with satisfaction.

FIND ANOTHER PARK LOUNGER.

THE WEELITTLES AT NUREMBERG.

After a long walk through Nuremberg they stop for well-deserved rest near a picturesque group of buildings one of which is known as the 'Tentmaker's Tower'.
