The Sunflower Pedro Club held their second regular meeting of the season, at the residence Mrs. Valentine Hartz, 177 Bronson Ave. The ladies prizes were won by Mrs. J. Schreiner, 1st; Mrs. Peter Vay, 2nd. Gentlemen's, Mr. John Haag, 1st; Mr. S. Schwartz, 2nd. Lunch was served and a general good time was had as the club is composed of jolly members.

The sympathy of Branch 62, L. C. B. A. is extended to Mrs. Ellen Ammering in the loss of her son Charles Ammering, who died at his home on Dewey Ave., age 32 years. He leaves a wife and four children, his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Louis Ammering, three brothers and two sisters. He was a devoted husband and a kind father. His bright and cheerful disposition won for him many friends, which was shown by the large attendance at his funeral, which was held Wednesday morning at 9 o'clock from the church. He was a member of Frances Xavier Society, and several others, which attended the services in a body. The floral offerings were numerous and beautiful.

The feast of St. Cecilia was celebrated in this church, last Sunday. The choir rendered the Palestrina mass without organ accompaniment. Dr. Sinclair took occasion to announce that subscriptions for a new organ, would be taken up some time in the near future, to replace the one which has done service for more than half a century. He hoped that on St. Cecilia day of 1903 we would listen to this new organ, which would be the grandest in the city.

As is customary in the evening of that day a banquet was served to the members of the choir. This being the tenth anniversary of the directorship of Mr. Pohl, Dr. Sinclair in behalf of the members, presented him with a diamond ring. In presenting it he stated that he hoped he would always wear it as it was emblematic of the work he was engaged in, the two metals representing the Cecelian and the choral music, both classes of music being adopted by the Catholic church. As the diamond obtained its luster by polish so the choir by constant drilling has been rendered with a proficiency unequalled by any local choir. In conclusion he congratulated the choir on their director and the director on the untiring efforts of the members. The director although taken by surprise thanked the members in a few well chosen words and hoped that he would continue to hold their good will and that he would try as in the past to give to them his best abilities. Speeches were then made by Rev. Joseph and Emil Gefell and Rev. Jos. Miller. A fine musical program was rendered.

Crowley of this city, the new branch starts off with 20 charter members, the Hon. John F. O'Brien, Sec. of State elect, being one of the charter members. The new branch has bright prospects of being a large one in the near future. Grand Sec. Ryan, Grand Trustees Quinn of Troy, Chancellor Tierney of White Hall, and Charles Crowley of Rochester, were the installing officers. Following are the officers of the new branch: Spiritual adviser, Rev. Wm. S. Kelley; Pres., Harry P. O'Hagan; 1st vice pres., John J. Coogan; 2nd vice pres., Frank K. Byrne; rec. sec., A. Ray Conners; assist. sec., J. L. Coogan; fin. sec., H. J. Doyle; treas., Wm. H.

Garlick; marshal, Harry Brown; guard, W. H. Marsh; trustees: Rev. Father Savage, John P. Tierney, F. K. Byrne, W. J. Caffery, F. L. Buskey.

ST. JOSEPH.

The feast of St. Cecilia, patron saint of the choir, was observed on Sunday last. Solemn high mass was celebrated by Rev. Leonard Schwabl, assisted by Rev. Aloysius Engelhardt and Rev. J. B. Dengra. An eloquent sermon was delivered by Father Engelhardt in which he gave an interesting sketch of the life of St. Cecilia. He thanked the choir in the name of the congregation for their excellent service during the past year and prayed that through the intercession of their patroness, God would bless them and their work. Cherubin's Ave Maria was beautifully rendered by Miss Amelia Zegewitz during the offertory. Weber's mass was sung and at its close the inspiring choral setting of the Hymn to St. Cecilia by O. Deschler, which displayed the full powers of the choir.

A very attractive list of lectures is presented by the Literary Society, in a neat little prospectus of its work for the present season, which it has just issued. It is headed by the name of Henry Austin Adams, who was so favorably received here last winter. The subject of his lecture will be given later. Other lectures are as follows: The Education Bill in England, Rev. Edward J. Hanna, D. D.; The Monroe Doctrine, Joseph O'Connor; The Advantages of Catholic Clubs, Rev. Wm. Kessel, C. S. S. R.; The Friars in the Philippines, Rev. Andrew E. Breen, D. D.; Monastic Life and its Influence on Civilization, Rev. Thos. A. Hendrick, LL. D.; Some Monuments of Ancient Greece, John B. O'Connor. The program is varied by a number of social entertainments; The pamphlet also contains other information pertaining to the society, and copies of it may be had at Yawman & Stupp's store. Admission to these lectures is not restricted to the members of the society or of this church, but all who are interested are cordially invited to attend.

The school building has presented a gay appearance during the past week. The fair with its bright and many colored booths and myriad of electric lights seems like a scene from fairyland. The booths vie with one another in attractiveness. The morning glory booth of the Ladies Aux. is admired by all visitors. The children's booth is a dainty creation in blue and white and shows the painstaking work of the sisters of the school. It is filled with many articles of attraction for the children. The hungry goose nearby is eager to be fed and fishing is good at the pond. These and the post office are all the work of the sisters.

A general store is to be found at the booth of the L. C. B. A. and it is supplied with a Home Telephone for the convenience of all. The booth is made in the form of a colonial porch, finished in white and green. At the C. Y. M. A. booth the wheel of fortune spins merrily and distributes its gifts impartially, accompanied by the voices of the witty auctioneer and his assistants. A large assortment of religious articles are on sale at a unique little church in charge of the C. W. B. L. and linen goods of every description can be had at the booth of the Ladies Aux. of the K. of St. John. The basement contains the "Rathskeller" and dining room, where a good old fashioned Thanksgiving turkey dinner was served on Thursday.

The attendance has averaged about fifteen hundred nightly and many more than this number were present on Thanksgiving Day. Rev. Father Kessel as chairman of the executive committee, deserved great credit for the completeness of the arrangements. Along with the other members of the committee he has worked with untiring zeal during the past two months. The other members of the executive committee are as follows: G. E. Noeth, secretary; H. N. Schlick, F. Kleinhaus, George Gaeb J. Schnorr, E. Sereu, J. Englert, T. Fisher, J. Twitchell, Major Hestinger, W. Mayer.

To-night will be specially devoted to the young ladies of the Auxiliary and to the C. Y. M. A. The fair will be open on Monday evening and if any have not yet visited the fair, they should not let the opportunity pass without doing so to-night or Monday.

The Young People's Society of this parish held a very successful entertainment and social last Wednesday evening notwithstanding the unfavorable weather. The committees in charge worked hard to make it a success and their efforts were well rewarded. The new hall presented a very handsome appearance.

A meeting of the Young People's Society will be held at the school hall next Sunday afternoon at 4 o'clock at which time the election of officers for the ensuing year will take place. It is also expected that the members will make a final report on all tickets for the entertainment last Wednesday evening. This meeting being a very important one it is hoped that as many members as possible will attend.

On Monday evening Dec. 1st, at the school hall a meeting of the Cardinal Manning Club will take place. A musical program has been arranged for this meeting.

IMMACULATE CONCEPTION.

Sore Throat!
Don't delay; serious bronchial trouble or diphtheria may develop. The only safe way is to apply a remedy you can depend upon. Wrap the throat with a cloth wet in it before retiring, and it will be well in the morning.
There is only one Painkiller, "PERRY DAVIS."

ORIENTAL RUGS

CAN you think of anything more apt for a wedding present or a holiday remembrance than an Oriental Rug? Certainly the friend of whom you are thinking would appreciate such a gift highly. An Oriental Rug has much the same interest as a fine painting and is of equal or greater importance among the furnishings of a room.

Should our suggestion strike you favorably, we should be glad to have you see our large collection of Turkish, Indian and Persian Rugs. It abounds in choice examples of the Eastern weaver's peculiar art and the great variety of sizes and considerable range of prices make it possible for us to give general satisfaction.
