COOK OPERA HOUSE.

The Glyceretti Troupe of acrobats is an important feature of next week's bill at the Cook Opera House. They are said to have a sensational offering. Jess Dandy, the famous Hebrew impersonator will be another important feature. Mr. Dandy has given us a change in the old type of stage Jew. This is the prosperous Jew—in the Ghetto but not of it. His characterization is clever as well as amusing.

Foy and Clark, well-known laugh makers, have a comical skit called "The Spring of Youth". The Four Cuttys have a refined musical act. Atalie Claire is a famous soprano. The Four Otts have a screaming comedy sketch. Murphy and Nichols, and other comedians will entertain.

This bill will be given twice daily at Cook Opera House, the matinees commencing at 2:15

The New National Theatre.

Patsy Bolivar is a character made famous and popular by Billy B. Van in almost every city of the country and the same "Patsy" will be the central figure around which will revolve all the fun, frolic, song and dance that has been interwoven into the hilarious 3 act comedy "Bolivar's Busy Day" which Mr. Van and Nellie O'Neil will present at the new National Theatre next Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday, with Monday and Wednesday matinees.

"The Prisoner of Zenda" with a strong cast, headed by the well known romantic actor, Edwin Mordant and the equally charming Ola Humphrey, comes to the new National Theatre Thursday, Friday and Saturday with Thursday and Saturday matinees. The drama abounding in romance satisfies the pleasures of the imagination to the utmost. Mirthful enough to please the lovers of humor and serious enough to satisfy the intelligence of thinkers it is a piece of dramatic literature worthy the consideration of all.

BAKER THEATRE.

One of the most notable dramatic productions of the epoch is "The Western Girl", which will be seen in this city at the Baker Theatre Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday evenings, Jan. 5, 6 and 7 with bargain day matinees Tuesday and Wednesday. Miss Anna Oakley, who has for years been the star attraction of Buffalo Bill's "Wild West" has been secured at an enormous salary to play the title role.

Manager Shubert announces a grand scenic production entitled "The Scout's Revenge" at his popular playhouse next Thursday, Friday and Saturday evenings with bargain day matinees Thursday and Saturday. The production has been given a complete dressing of new special scenery, and no detail has been neglected or money spared in making "The Scout's Revenge" a grand, modern, American melodrama and an enjoyable performance to witness.

There was but one correct answer received this week. The winner is Elizabeth Kelly, 91 Exchange St., city.

Key to last week's puzzles:

- No. 1—Head of florist is formed by girl's waist, the features outlined by her arm.
- No. 2—Turn right side of picture down. Head of clerk is between the Wheelittes, his nose at girl's shoulder.
- No. 3—Turn left side of picture down. First tourist is at boy's left shoulder. Invert picture. Head of second tourist is directly under that of first.
- No. 4—Invert picture. Head of driver is outlined by girl's body, his forehead at her waist and his nose at her collar.

"For the Benefit of Others" by Capt. Allen J. Hodge

Captain Allen T. Hodge of Washington, says: "Father John's Medicine cured me of a bad attack of pneumonia and surprised Dr. Boyd, my physician, who said your medicine was 'all right' and ought to be in every family." Physicians prescribe it, and have for years. No opium, morphine or other poisonous drugs. This old remedy derived its name from having been prescribed by an eminent specialist for the late Rev. Fr. John O'Brien of Lowell, Mass., over 50 years ago by whom it was recommended. It is a food medicine and body builder-nourishing the system and driving out the impurities. It cures colds and all throat and lung troubles. Its gentle laxative effect strengthens the stomach and starts the wholesomeness working right, then you have vital force to drive off colds and visiting disease.

Father John's Medicine is for sale by the following Rochester druggists. Any druggist can get it for you: Bryan Drug House, Dake Drug Co., H. B. Newman, 160 Jefferson Ave.; G. W. Jones, 198 Central Ave.; The Kobbie Pharmacy, Clinton Ave. and Andrew St.; Chas. M. Peck, 173 Plymouth Ave.; F. W. Fickett, 639 Lake Ave.; Geo. Hahn, 561 State St.; A. C. Donaghy, 159 East Ave.

If your druggist does not have it, send $1 for a large bottle, express prepaid. Carleton and Hovey Co., Lowell, Mass. For Sale in Geneva by Dr. A. L. Sweet's druggist, 60 Seneca St., and W. H. Partridge, 12 Seneca St.
