

Thoughts on Spring Renovating

ONE of the first things to be done in the way of home beautifying for spring is to have the furniture brightened with new upholstery. Our Drapery Department can help you here with its large fresh stocks of Tapestry, Damasks and Velours. If economy is a particular object, we ask your attention to a choice lot of tapestry suitable for parlor and dining room pieces, which we have marked down to 75c, $1.00, $1.25, $1.50 and $2.00 a yard. The patterns are very handsome and include some rich Oriental effects. Original prices were from 25 to 30 per cent. higher.

Among the many effective things for the bedroom which we have received during the past week are a number of pretty dimities and cottons in Louis XIV. and Dresden patterns. We make these up with moss edging, producing a dainty dressing for the sleeping room at a very moderate cost.

Our line of Ruffled Muslin Curtains for bedrooms include a large variety in English mull with 5-inch ruffles, ranging in price from 75c to $3.00 a yard.

Shirt Waist Boxes are now a necessity in every well-regulated household. We have them, covered with linen taffetas and plain burlaps, to harmonize with almost any room at $3.00 and $3.50.

Telephone us your order for carpet cleaning. It will be executed promptly and in the most satisfactory manner.

NOTICE TO OUT-OF-TOWN SUBSCRIBERS.
Through an old ruling of the Post-Office authorities, which has not been enforced lately, the Journals going out of town were held at the post office last week until Monday when we were notified. This will not happen again and we hope our readers will bear with us in this instance.

NEWARK.
The dedication of St. Michael's church will take place next Sunday, March 15, at 10:30 a. m.

Miss Nellie Down's has been spending sometime with friends in Syracuse. Mrs. James Walsh has returned from Syracuse where she has been visiting friends.

DANSVILLE.
These pupils' names appear in the February honor roll of St. Patrick's school: 8th grade—Thomas Nolan, Charles Murphy, Harry Roberts, Edward Carey, Grete Lyman, Lavens Welch, Catherine Sheerin, Lillian Goodwin, Marie Byron 7th grade—Richard Kelly, Anthony McLaughlin, Francis McNeil, Joseph King, Ellen Finer. 6th grade—Frad Mahoney, James Mahoney. 5th grade—Lawrence Driscoll, Clarence Welch, George Roberts, Arthur Goodwin, Carl Haver 4th grade—William Norton, Clair Byron, Mary Driscoll, Clara Kelly, Clara Schleyer, Ruth McNeil, John Maloney. 3rd grade—Martin McLaughlin, Mary Middleton. 2nd grade—Harry Mahoney, Clarence Goodwin, Andrew Sheerin, Eugene Welch, Hilda Mehlenbacher, Helen Norton. 1st grade—John Welch, Raymond Welch, Eleanor Goodwin, Regina Driscoll, Helen Morrison.

Rev. M. Kriechel assisted at Forty Hours devotions at Mt. Morris this week and Rev. W. T. Dunn at Mt. Morris and Salamanca.

The members of the Ancient Order of Hibernians will receive holy communion in a body at St. Patrick's church next Sunday. The society is composed of Dansville's best and most progressive young Irishmen.

Miss Elizabeth E. Blum has gone to New York and will visit in Addison before returning home.

Mr. Daniel Blum is rapidly recovering from a severe attack of pneumonia.

Mrs. M. McTigue is in Dansville called here by the serious illness of her mother Mrs. Henry Hubertus.

A welcome letter received by the Misses Dougherty announces the safe arrival of their sister, Miss Cecelia Dougherty, in Pasadena, Cal. where she was met by Miss Elizabeth Earls and Miss Alta Owen.

Rev. W. T. Dunn baptized on Sunday March 15, Frances, the infant daughter of Mr. and Mrs. St. Peter Finn. Mr. and Mrs. Frank Kauber sponsors.

Miss Margaret E. Barrett has returned to New York city.

Th. A. O. H. will give a card party in their rooms St. Patrick's night.

BATH.
Division 8, A. O. H. of this village, will celebrate St. Patrick's day on Tuesday evening next. An interesting and instructive program has been arranged for the evening when a lecture and supper will be held in Hibernian hall. Rev. Father John F. Farrell, chaplain of the N. Y. S. & S. Home, will deliver the lecture on St. Patrick and songs and recitations by local talent will also be rendered. The ladies of the L. C. B. A. will furnish the supper. It will be a private affair only, the members of the Division and their friends being invited.

Father Griffin will organize a first communion and confirmation class this summer.

Father Griffin gave a very interesting account of the life of Pope Leo XIII, last Sunday.

William H. Grogan of this village, who has been a student the past three years in the law office of Hon. John F. Little, here, and who recently passed the examination for admission to the bar, was sworn in at Rochester before the Appellate Division of the Supreme Court Tuesday afternoon.

The sermons on Friday evenings by Father Griffin are proving interesting and helpful and are attended by large congregations weekly.

$100 REWARD, $100.
The readers of this paper will be pleased to learn that there is at least one dreadful disease that science has been able to cure in all its stages and that is Catarrh. Hall's Catarrh Cure is the only positive cure now known to the medical fraternity. Catarrh being a constitutional disease, requires a constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure is taken internally, acting directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system, thereby destroying the foundations of the disease, and giving the patient strength by building up the constitution and assisting nature in doing its work. The proprietors have so much faith in its curative powers, that they offer one Hundred Dollars for any case that it fails to cure. Send for list of testimonials.

THERE IS NO SUBSTITUTE

The New National Theatre.
The artistic comedienne, Rose Melville, will appear at the National all next week, with the usual matinees, in the rural comedy drama, entitled, "Sis Hopkins." The supporting company is an excellent one and a finished performance may be expected.

The winner this week is:
Virgie Barrons, 6 Lorraine place, city.

Honor roll: James Nelligan, 35 Lowell st.; Helen Brown, 327 Reynolds st.; Mary Frawly, 144 North st.; W. Stasselwander, 94 Lorenzo st.; Thomas Froehler, 389 Campbell st.; Helen M. Kleehammer, 418 Clifford st.; Bart Miller, 12 W. Frost ave.

Key to last week's puzzles:

No. 1—Turn left side of picture down. Nobleman's son is in hangings back of his father. His head is formed by carving in back of nobleman's chair.

No. 2—Invert picture. Head of third nobleman is outlined by arm of chair at left of picture, his body outlined by sleeve of man stroking his mustache. Legs are formed by folds in hangings above.

No. 3—Invert picture. Head of friar is directly between those of Columbus and priest who greets him. Second is in top of pillar in center of picture.

No. 4—Invert picture. Head of traveler is directly over the well at the side of the road, in front of the friar's mule, his body extending toward top of picture.

The Hendrick Commercial Training School Alumni, who number something over forty, had his honor Mayor Rodenbeck as the guest of the evening at their last meeting, held at 340 Powers Block. The mayor was unanimously and enthusiastically elected honorary member of the H. C. T. S. Association, the club organization, and became personally acquainted with every member, assuring them of his regard and interest personally and as a body, while on the other hand all the young ladies declared that if Miss Anthony ever succeeded in bringing female suffrage to Rochester Mr. Rodenbeck should receive their votes.

Music That Strains the Clothing.
The standard of musical excellence varies according to differences of taste, nationality and occupation. Mrs. Umblatter, whose husband was the director of a New York orchestra, had a standard of her own which she did not hesitate to confess to one of her neighbors.

"What operas does your husband like to play best?" asked the visitor, a friendly and well meaning person.

"That I know not," said the wife, busily darning an old shirt, "but this I know: Whatever he likes, I like not the Wagner operas. For the sound they are good enough, but for the clothes—ach, he never yet comes home from any one of those Wagner operas that he has not torn a place in his poor old shirts. When the cloth is weak and has been often mended, one prefers the Italian operas always."

BAKER THEATRE.

There will appear at the Baker Theatre next Monday for three days with daily matinee, Metropolitan Artists headed by Eddie Russell, who will appear in the title role of "Mickey Finn." Mr. Russell is a comedian to his finger tips. He has played with the best of them, and paved his way to the top of the ladder by good conscientious work. He is surrounded by a company far above the average. This company has toured the country from the Atlantic to Pacific and has met with universal praise. If press notices are messengers of merit, then this company should rank amongst the best of them. The show is thoroughly equipped with scenery, costumes and properties. They are here for three nights only, March 16, 17 and 18.

COOK OPERA HOUSE.

A heavy bill of vaudeville is promised for next week at the Cook Opera House. The Four Lukens, who have given their sensational acrobatic act here when only three men participated in the turn, have an offering that is said to be the best of its kind. Eugene O'Rourke will entertain in "Parlor A." James Richmond Glenroy, the man with the green gloves is listed for a monologist. Kelly and Violette are described as pleasing singers and swell dressers. Hal Godfrey will give a comedy sketch called "A Very Bad Boy." Scott and Wilson have an athletic offering and the Young American Quintette is a favorite combination of young singers. On Sunday night at the Cook Opera House a sacred concert will be given by the Faddette Ladies Orchestra, of Boston.

Running to Cover.

First Man—Isn't Picker a queer character?
Second Ditto—Queer! Why, he's mad; downright mad.
First Ditto—Have you heard that he's just come in for an enormous fortune?
Second Ditto—No. Has he?
What a pity he's so eccentric—at least, not eccentric, but such an original character! But, there, most geniuses are!

BY A TRAVELING MAN

Away From Home He Writes of His Experience for the Benefit of Others.

Mr. Warren M. Lyman of 268 Pine Street, Holyoke, Mass., was in Claremont, N. H., on Dec. 3, 1902. For the benefit of others he tells the following story: "I want to tell you what a good remedy I have found. Father John's Medicine to be for a long standing cough, when all else had failed. Last winter I had a hard cough and tried almost everything, even going to a doctor, but could get nothing to help me until I got a bottle of Father John's Medicine. After taking one bottle my cough was entirely cured. This winter I took another severe cold and cough, and was soon cured by your medicine. I cannot say enough for it, and always recommend it whenever I see anyone with a cough. (Signed) Warren M. Lyman, 268 Pine Street, Holyoke, Mass."
