CONNAGHT

Galway

The funeral of Mr. James McCormack, of Athlone, took place on Friday. Rev. J. Hassey, presiding, conducted the religious service. In a touching eulogy, Mr. J. C. M. Cavanagh, the Bishop of Galway, referred to the deceased gentleman's good works, his public and private charities, and his religious devotion.

Doct. National organisations are doing splendid work at home with great success. The death of Mr. Patrick Fitzpatrick, of the factory is stated to have been a shock to the workmen and the public.

A meeting of the Drogheda branch of the Gaelic League was held on February 7 to consider correspondence from the National Office, and to receive the report of a deputation of the local members.

The death of Mr. Michael O'Mahony, of the medical profession in Dublin, was deeply felt. The funeral was held at 10 Nicholas avenue, Frank Coyle, rector of the city, conducting the service.

MUNSTER

Clare

The first annual meeting of the Clare Education Association was held in Ennistymon on Friday. Rev. G. O'Halloran, principal of the Ennistymon National School, was elected president, and Rev. J. H. O'Malley, principal of the Ennistymon National School, was elected vice-president.

The death of Mr. Michael Cusack, of the Clan of Cusack, was deeply regretted. He was a member of the A. O. D. C. of Ireland, and a prominent figure in the National Movement.

The death of Mr. Michael Slattery, of the medical profession in Enniscorthy, was deeply regretted. He was a member of the National Medical Association of Ireland.

The annual meeting of the Ballyvaughan branch of the Gaelic League was held on February 10, and the following officers were elected: P. C. O'Donnell, president; J. J. O'Farrell, vice-president; P. J. Mulcahy, secretary.

The death of Mr. Michael Cusack, of the Clan of Cusack, was deeply regretted. He was a member of the A. O. D. C. of Ireland, and a prominent figure in the National Movement.

LIMERICK

A young boy was named O'Grady, of Limerick, and he was six years old. The boy was buried on Saturday in the local cemetery.

The death of Mr. Michael Cusack, of the Clan of Cusack, was deeply regretted. He was a member of the A. O. D. C. of Ireland, and a prominent figure in the National Movement.

The death of Mr. Michael Cusack, of the Clan of Cusack, was deeply regretted. He was a member of the A. O. D. C. of Ireland, and a prominent figure in the National Movement.

The death of Mr. Michael Cusack, of the Clan of Cusack, was deeply regretted. He was a member of the A. O. D. C. of Ireland, and a prominent figure in the National Movement.

The death of Mr. Michael Cusack, of the Clan of Cusack, was deeply regretted. He was a member of the A. O. D. C. of Ireland, and a prominent figure in the National Movement.