

One Million Dollars Worth of Opium-- The Lives It Wrecks and Destroys.

More than $1,000,000 worth of Opium arrived at the port of San Francisco recently--it came in the ordinary course of trade, attracting no more than passing notice. This gives an idea of the extent to which this poisonous and deadly drug is used. Each year an increasing quantity of the various narcotic drugs taken from it, is used in the patent medicines and so-called "quick relief" cough cures--this is one reason why doctors are opposed to patent medicines; and rightly, too, for aside from death and injury to health to men, women and children from the reckless use of such drugs in patent preparations, many unfortunate victims thus have unconsciously fallen victims to the deadly drug habit, leaving the ever increasing hopelessly insane at the Sanitariums and Mad Houses. If this warning against such preparations causes you to appreciate this danger, the result will justify this article, which has been written so you will realize its importance when you read that without these drugs, Father John's Medicine cures colds, bronchitis, asthma and throat and lung troubles; prevents pneumonia and consumption. In the fifty years since an eminent specialist prescribed it for the late Rev. Father John O'Brien of Lowell, Mass., by whom it was recommended and from whom it derived its name, it has never failed to do all that is claimed for it. Its gentle laxative effect strengthens the stomach and corrects the digestion; its food elements give vital force to the system, by which disease is overcome and health and strength restored. It builds up the body and makes flesh. Not a patent medicine.

Father John's Medicine is for sale by the following Rochester druggists. Any druggist can get it for you: Bryan Drug House; Duke Drug Co.; H. B. Newman, 160 Jefferson Ave.; G. W. Jones, 190 Central Ave.; The Kobbie Pharmacy, 111 East Ave. and Andrew St.; Chas. M. Peck, 172 Plymouth Ave.; F. W. Fickett, 689 Lake Ave.; Geo. Hahn, 561 State St.; A. C. Dempsey, 159 East Ave.
If your druggist does not have it, send $1 for a large bottle, express prepaid, Carleton and Hovey Co., Lowell, Mass. For Sale in Geneva by Dr. A. L. Sweet's druggist, 60 Seneca St., and W. H. Partridge, 12 Seneca St.

STANDARD WOOLEN MILLS CO.,

98-Main Street East-98

1902 FIRST ANNIVERSARY 1903

It is just a year ago since we opened our doors in Rochester. During that time we have made many friends and won many patrons, and wish to thank one and all for past favors. The good will of our friends is the greatest advertisement we could wish for, and we feel assured that with the confidence reposed in us by the thousands of customers who had their clothes made here in the past year, the coming year will see our circle of patrons greatly enlarged. Remember that we save you from $6 to $10 on a SUIT or OVERCOAT made to measure. "Mill to Wearer" eliminates all the extra profits.

TAILORING GOODNESS.

A few words in regard to the quality of our tailoring. All garments are made in our own building, at 98 Main street east, in well lighted and sanitary shops, under personal supervision of the manager. All the vital parts, such as shoulder, collar, lapel and breast are carefully shaped, worked out and padded by hand to insure permanence of shape. All button-holes are hand-made and only the finest of Irish linen canvas goes into our coats. Sewing is with pure dye silk all through, and linings are first-class quality serge and farmer's satin.

SUITS

Any Style Sack or Cutaway Frock.

For Settings we show all the predominating styles of fabrics and newest effect in weaves. There are plain blacks, blues and grays, nobly and dressy fancies, rich subdued mixtures, in Tweeds, Cheviots, Cashmeres, Worsted, Tribets, Vicunas, in fact every pattern known in the trade to select from. These goods will be cut to your individual measurement by expert designers and cutters and with them goes our guarantee for satisfaction throughout. Mail orders will receive our immediate attention.

TOP COAT

Any Style Desired Short, Medium or Long.

In Overcoats there are the ever stylish Covert Cloths in tan and gray also pleasing mixtures in stripes and plaids; Cheviots in herringbone and other weaves of many shades and colors; and Vicunas in gray and black, dark mixtures and a variety of twist effects. A Spring Top Coat may be considered a luxury by some, but to be without one may mean more business for the doctor. Take a hint. Leave your order now so it will be ready when you need it. Samples of cloth by mail on request.

TROUSERS. FANCY VESTS.

For Trousers, Worsteds and Cheviots will be worn in stripes, checks and many other combinations of patterns. If you have not yet traded here we invite you to come in and leave a trial order for a pair of trousers at $3. We will take all the risk, if they are not entirely satisfactory when made up, you need not take them. Headquarters for Uniform Trousers.

Never before has there been such a demand for Fancy Vests as there is going to be this season. The variety of colors and wide range of fabrics, patterns and weaves, is sure to create a desire to own one in the minds of men who have never worn a Fancy Vest before. Made in any style, single or double breasted, with or without collar, the price is $3.

Correspondence.

NEWARK.
Among the out of town people present at the dedication Sunday were Mr. and Mrs. Magee and daughter, Loretta, of Buffalo, N. Y.
Mrs. S. L. McGahey has been writing Ill, but is some better at the present writing.
Mrs. W. B. Roche has been on the sick list for the past week.

CHILL.
Died in Chill, N. Y., on Wednesday, March 11, 1903, Mrs. Mary M. wife of William J. Porter. The funeral took place on Friday of last week from St. Feehan's church. Rev. J. J. Beenhahn officiating. The funeral was attended by a large concourse, who gave evidence by their presence the esteem in which the deceased was held by all. Her remains were interred in the Catholic cemetery of Chill. She leaves her husband, son, father, brother and entire community to mourn her loss. Mrs. Porter lived in Chill about six years and during the pastorate of Rev. Martin M. Moagher she was appointed the first organist of St. Feehan's church, which position she ably retained until her death. Her last illness caused many months of suffering but she bore her cross uncomplainingly and with Christian fortitude and so well did she show a cheerful manner that many of her nearest friends were unaware until the last few days, that death was near. May her soul through the mercy of God rest in peace.

CANANDAIGUA.
A meeting of the men of St. Mary's congregation was held last Sunday to prepare for the new church. Work has already commenced on the excavating and will be pushed forward rapidly.
The funeral of Bridget Curran took place last Saturday.
Month's mind masses were said last Monday for John Hogan and last Wednesday for Father McCormack.
Father Hartley gave a lecture on St. Patrick last Tuesday evening at the Grand Opera House. He spoke very eloquently and was well received by the audience.
The school collection will be taken up next Sunday, the fourth Sunday of March.
The Young Ladies' Sodality will receive Holy communion next Sunday. The regular monthly meeting will also be held.
Copies of the "Temperance Ladder" were distributed in church a week ago Wednesday evening, to be signed by the members of the parish, and they were taken up last Wednesday. The "Ladder" is an ascending series of promises on temperance, each one a little harder than the preceding one.
There are many sick in the parish and Father Dougherty is kept busy attending the calls.
Following is the program furnished St. Patrick's night:
Song, "Shoogy Shu," Robert F. Thompson; recitation, "Give Me Three Grains of Corn," Elmer Barry; recitation, "Ararat," Ethel Stewart; violin solo, selected, Anna Davidson; lecture, Rev. James E. Hartley; song, "Come Back to Erin," Mrs. H. H. Foreman; recitation, "Grandma's Shamrock," Gertrude Kelly; recitation, "There Came to the Beach," Elmer Barry; Irish monologue, Floyd Hutchens; reading, "March 17, 1802," H. H. Foreman; song, "Acushla Macchree," D. C. Clark.

The Holy Name Society formed at the C. M. B. A. rooms at 7:30 p. m. wearing badges, and marched to the rectory, whence they escorted the Reverend Lectures to the Opera House.
SENECA FALLS.
Mrs. Ann McPartland McKeon, wife of Joseph McKeon, died Friday morning at her home in Toledo St., of a gripping followed by pneumonia, age 75 years. The deceased was born in County Louth, Ireland and has lived in Seneca Falls 55 years. She was a woman of kindly impulses and lovable disposition, whose tender regard for her family won for her the respect and esteem of all who knew her. Her death is deeply regretted by a large circle of friends, whose sympathy is extended to the sorrowing family. She is survived by her husband and five children, John F., Joseph P., Hugh, Mrs. Owen Doohan and Miss Bridget all of this place. The funeral was held Sunday, the funeral mass was held Monday morning.

Miss Sarah Finnegan, daughter of the late Richard Finnegan, died Monday at the home of her sister, Mrs. Archibald Manning, in Auburn. He remains were brought here to the home of her mother and the funeral was held from St. Patrick's church Wednesday morning.
St. Patrick's church celebrated St. Patrick's day with a high mass at nine o'clock. The sermon was delivered by Rev. J. J. Hartley of Palmyra.
Mrs. John Hanlin was called to Green Island, Albany county, last week by the death of her father, Patrick McGahey.
Joseph H. Creely is visiting with relatives at Elmira this week.
Mrs. Michael Galvin is in New York visiting her husband.
Miss Alice McCaul is in New York for this week.
Mrs. George Graham has been visiting in Chicago. Before returning home she will go to New York where she will select her spring millinery.
Mrs. Anna Dantz is in New York.
The children of St. Patrick's school enjoyed a treat of candy and nuts from their pastor on March 17th.
John J. Maloney, postmaster of Willard, called on friends Sunday.
Daniel McPartland of Rochester, was called here by the death of his aunt, Mrs. Joseph McKeon.

AUBURN.
Rev. J. J. Hickey was celebrant of the mass at the dedication of the new Catholic church in Newark last Sunday. Father Hickey presided over the parishes of Lyons and Newark for eleven years and built the St. Michael's church in Newark which the congregation have occupied up to the present time.
Rev. Father Crowley of Elmira, delivered the sermon on St. Patrick at St. Aloysius church, St. Patrick's night, before a large audience, and Rev. John O'Hern, a former assistant at St. Mary's,

THE OLD RELIABLE

There is no substitute discussed on St. Patrick in St. Mary's Lyceum Hall the same evening, for the benefit of the Young Ladies Sodality. There was a good attendance notwithstanding the numerous other attractions in town.

Rev. Father Higgins of Skaneateles, delivered the Lenten sermon at the Holy Family church last week, and Rev. Dennis Flynn of Binghamton, this week. The Lenten services are well attended.
The funeral of Michael Cahill, who was found dead in his room from the effects of escaping gas, took place from St. Mary's church Monday morning and was largely attended. Rev. J. Doran was celebrant of the solemn high mass. Rev. William Mulhern deacon and Rev. E. Silke sub-deacon. Interment in St. Joseph's cemetery.
St. Patrick's day was celebrated in all Catholic churches with great pomp this year. At the Holy Family there was a solemn high mass at 9 o'clock. In the evening the pastor, Rev. J. J. Hickey delivered a magnificent panegyric on Ireland's patron saint, which held the large congregation spell bound to the end. This was followed by solemn benediction of the Blessed Sacrament. Father leodore being celebrant assisted by Fathers Regan, Hickey and Kelly. The A. O. H. society occupied the greater part of the middle aisle. After the services the society proceeded in a body to the Osborne House where a grand banquet was served. Hon. J. J. Delaney of Syracuse, being the principal speaker.

BAKER THEATRE.
"Tracy, the Outlaw," the ultra sensational melodrama for which Arthur Bruce Vassant, found his inspiration in the career of Harry Tracy, the Oregon desperado, will be the attraction at the Baker Theatre Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday, March 23, 24 & 25. Bargain day matinees daily. Pierce Kingsley will sing the title role.
Ray's "A Hot Old Time" is coming in an entirely new dress to the Baker Theatre Thursday, Friday and Saturday. The play in its present guise is designed to bring peace and good will to men and to wake up kindlier feelings everywhere. After a visit even a scolding wife will spare her husband, for she cannot talk of anything but the show. Matinees Thursday and Saturday.

COOK OPERA HOUSE.
Quite a novelty is scheduled for next week at the Cook Opera House. This is Madame Konorah, a lightning calculator. Her methods are eccentric. The balance of the bill includes: Hallen and Fuller, in "Election Bets"; Miss Georgia O'Ramey, comedienne; Hal Merritt, cartoonist and monologist; George W. Day, entertaining monologist; Lloyd and Walton, baritone singers; Cadieux, bounding wire acrobat; Orth and Fern, comedy pianists; "Seminary Girls," a delightful musical sketch played by seven people.

No correct answers were received this week. The majority failed to find the tutor which can be found by referring to key.

Key to last week's puzzles:
No. 1--Turn right side of picture down. Head of knight is between the queen and the court attendant, his face outlined by the queen's right arm. Invert picture. Face of jester is beside the queen's, his nose at her chin.
No. 2--Invert picture. Columbus' son is in the wall above and back of his father. Face of tutor is outlined by that of priest.
No. 3--The two hidden merchants are between Columbus and the mule driver. Hold picture in upright position.
No. 4--Invert picture. Hidden man is just above head of the priest seated at the upper end of the table.
