BATH

The death of little Mary Murray, the bright twelve year old child of Mr. and Mrs. Ferdinand S. Murray, occurred at their home, on East Morris St., last Saturday morning at 11:30 o'clock, after an illness of three days from peritonitis. The announcement of her death was indeed startling as it was not generally known that she was ill. She was the oldest of four children and the bereaved parents and family have the sincerest sympathy of the community. The funeral was held Monday morning at St. Mary's church, Rev. Father Griffin officiating. Interment was in St. Mary's cemetery. The funeral was largely attended, a number of relatives of the family being present from Elmira, Horseheads, Mt. Morris and other places. The floral offerings were many and beautiful among them being a beautiful cross from the children of St. Mary's Sunday school, who marched in a body to the funeral, and a wreath from Div. 8, A. O. H. of which the father of the deceased is a member. The pall bearers were: William Godfrey, Jas. Conley, Geo. Collins, Jas. O'Loughlin, Ed. Lindsay, Theo. Moran, Jas. Gaffney.

A high mass was celebrated by Father Griffin St. Joseph's day at 8:30 o'clock.

Father Griffin is giving an interesting series of Lenten sermons on Wednesday evenings on the articles of the creed.

St. Patrick's day was observed in Bath this year in the proper spirit. The day was begun with a high mass at St. Mary's church celebrated by Rev. Father Griffin at 9:30 o'clock. The wearing of the green was a feature of the day and many wore the coats that had a bunch of green or green ribbon pinned thereon. The day was celebrated in a manner befitting the occasion by division No. 8, A. O. H. of this place, on Tuesday evening last, by an interesting program, consisting of oratory, musical selections, recitations and readings. It was an occasion long to be remembered by those present as a most pleasant and profitable one. The exercises were held in Haberlin hall in the Hallock block. Fifty persons sat down to the banquet and the compliments showered upon those in charge of the supper were indeed deserving. Father Griffin said grace before the party was seated. The hall was handsomely decorated with potted flowers and here and there were interspersed American and Irish flags. A large crayon portrait of Archbishop Quigley adorned the wall back of the speakers stand, which was finely decorated with green bunting, American and Irish flags and potted plants and flowers. The program followed:

Grace, Pastor Rev. Father Griffin, song, "Of for Philadelphia in the Morning," Robert McNamara, cornet solo, Prof. W. G. Keem, solo, "Come Back to Erin," John M. Powell, Mrs. C. W. McCormick, accompanist, recitation, "Erin Ever Hopeful," Miss Sarah E. Lan non, address, "St. Patrick," Rev. John F. Farrell, soprano solo, "The Shamrock, the thistle and the Rose" recited "Down where the Cotton Blossoms Grow," Miss Julia T. Hart, address "The Destiny of Ireland," Rev. Father Griffin, "Eunet's Last Speech," James L. Flaherty, solo, "Killarney," John M. Powell, soprano solo, "Believe me if all these young Charms," Miss Julia T. Hart, cornet solo and patriotic airs, Prof. William G. Keem, "America" audience.

CANANDAIGUA

The funeral of Mrs. Ellen Maloney of Hopewell, who died last Sunday, took place Wednesday morning from St. Mary's church. The deceased is survived by her husband, Frank Maloney, and by four sons, John, Stephen, Michael and Peter.

Mrs. M. Ryan of Genesee, and Mrs. John Kelly of Stanley, were prayed for last Sunday.

Father Dougherty preached in Auburn last Wednesday evening and Father Silke took his place here.

The school collection taken up last Sunday amounted to $81.

The English history of the St. Thomas Aquinas Reading Circle is on Sir Walter Raleigh and Shakespeare, this week.

The Ontario Co. Historical society has recently purchased the Collier building just south of the Canandaigua Academy, in which historical relics in possession of the society will be kept. The sum of $2,000 will be expended in purchasing and repairing the building. Miss Mary Clark Williams is the treasurer.

The great progress made by the Rochester and Eastern Rapid Transit Co. is waking up the people in regard to the pavement question. Now things look as though Main and probably Gibson and Bristol streets will be paved this summer.

The Catholic graduates at the academy this year will be Frances Brady, Bessie Doyle, Bessie Dugan, Alice and Margaret Farrell.

CALEDONIA

On Tuesday evening, March 17, Rev. Father Gommenginger delivered a very eloquent and interesting sermon on the life of St. Patrick.

Miss Frances Wood of LeRoy, is spending a few days at the home of her mother on Jersey Ave.

The Forty Hours devotion opened at St. Patrick's church Murnford last Sunday and closed on Wednesday morning. On Sunday evening Rev. Father Winters of Corpus Christi church, Rochester preached the sermon, on Monday night Rev. Father Ryan of the Cathedral, and Tuesday evening Rev. Father Maloy of Sonyea. The devotions were well attended and a large number received the sacraments.

There are rumors of several weddings after Easter.

The many friends here of Mrs. Mary Mooney Porter were grieved to hear of her death at her home in Chili last week. Mrs. Porter was organist at St. Columba's church several years ago and made many friends here by her kind and lovable disposition.

Miss Margaret Kennedy of Buffalo, is the guest of Mrs. D. Guilfoyle at Manchester.

Mr. James Brophy has gone to Rochester to work and will remove his family there later.

We do job printing of all kinds.
