Friday 10—St. Macarius, bishop. Fast.
Saturday 11—St. Leo the Great, pope, doctor and confessor. Fast.

Forty Hours Devotion.
The Forty Hours Devotion will be held in the following churches next week:
April 5—Spencerport.
The Passion of Our Lord.
Remember that on that same day on which Christ entered Jerusalem the Paschal lamb was led with great solemnity from Bethphage to the temple. It is not surprising, then, that our divine Saviour should meet on the same road so many people.

Naturally speaking, we may say that the people, wishing to pay homage to Christ and to make His entry into Jerusalem as solemn as possible, knew no other way of manifesting the feelings of their hearts. But we must raise our minds higher, and see the hand of God in things which appear so natural and accidental. Jesus went to Jerusalem to be crucified, and by His death to conquer hell, to bring down upon men the fullness of grace, and detach their hearts from the things of this world in order to direct them to heavenly things. Hence God so willed it that the great multitude should applaud the triumph of the Redeemer, and—as the Church says in this day—with palms in their hands they proclaimed His victory over Satan. The olive branches signified the oil of grace which would be diffused over the children of redemption. The garments spread under His feet signified the renunciation of all earthly affections which the just must make for God's sake; for, according to St. Gregory, earthly affections are the garments that entangle our souls, and the better to fight our spiritual enemies we must get rid of them.

To day we behold Christ entering Jerusalem amidst the hosannas of the people—five days later we shall see Him dragged to Mount Calvary amidst curses and blasphemies. To-day the people are all in love for Him and pay Him homage—in a few days we shall see them filled with hatred, demanding His blood.

NOTICE.
Leaders of the city church choirs, are requested to send us their Easter programs early next week.
As our puzzle pictures did not arrive in time for this week, the children will not find any in this issue. They will be published next week however.

Deaths.
Arthur Keegan died at his home, 3 Romeyn Street, Wednesday, aged 65 years. He is survived by three sisters, Mrs. A. Quinlivan, Mrs. Thomas Breen and Miss Margaret Keegan, all of this city.

A Dorothy Dodd Shoe Chat

A year ago we introduced Dorothy Dodd and her shoes to our public. During the months since then hundreds of women of Western New York have become happily acquainted with "Dorothy Dodd" shoes. Now and then there's some one who finds fault but its only the exception which proves the rule. Most women who have worn "Dorothy Dodd" shoes the last twelve months will proclaim them the most stylish boot, the most comfortable, and as durable as any shoe they ever put on their foot.

The "Style of a 'Dorothy Dodd'" is unique. It cannot be duplicated by any other maker, because the "Dorothy Dodd" is a totally different construction from any other ladies' shoe made. It holds the foot firmly at the waist (that's the instep) prevents the toes from slipping forward, and thus gives a correct poise in walking. Yet it makes the foot look nearly a whole size smaller. That's curious, and you won't believe it till you see it. Just for once try the "Style of a 'Dorothy Dodd.'" Spring style for 1903 are ready-footwear for every occasion. Oxfords, $2.50, Boots, $3, except a few special numbers which are 50c more.
