LERQY.

Mr. James Carey, a well-known and popular young man, died suddenly of heart disease Sunday afternoon, March 22nd. He attended the high mass that day and appeared well and cheerful as usual. Mr. Carey was born in Batavia about 40 years ago and spent most of his life in this village. He was of a quiet and genial disposition and will be missed by his many friends who deeply sympathize with his mother and sister in their double affliction, the father having died in November. The funeral was held from St. Peter's church on Wednesday, Rev. L. Vandepool officiating. Interment at Batavia. The pall bearers were Wm. Moody, Frank Murray, Robert Baxter, Patrick Buckley, Frank Murnan and James Growney. May his soul rest in peace.

Miss Johanna Neville after an illness of six years with lung trouble, died at her home on North St., on March 24th, aged forty-seven years. The deceased had lived in Geneseo all her life and was held in highest esteem by all who knew her. The funeral services were held from St. Mary's church on the 26th ult., at 10 o'clock, and was largely attended. Rev. A. A. Hughes officiated. An aged father and two sisters, Elizabeth and Mary survive and they have the sympathy of a large circle of friends in this, their sad bereavement.

Mrs. O'Donnell of Silver Springs, was aguest of her sister, Mrs. J. Keeley, this week.

Mrs. T. Gougherty of Caledonia, visited her sister, Mrs. M. Smith, this week.

On the morning of the 27th ult., a workshop on the Cox farm, about two miles east of this village and occupied by Michael Cahill, was burned to the ground with contents which consisted of a new cutter, robes, blankets, harnesses, farming tools, two bicycles and a chest of carpenter's tools. As the afternoon of the day, previous to the fire, was cold a fire was started in the shop and during the night it is thought that some bags which were near the stove ignited and caused the fire. Mr. Cahill's hired man discovered the fire at about two o'clock and gave the alarm and as the shop is close to the house it was with great difficulty that it was kept from reaching the house. The loss which is several hundred dollars is partly covered by insurance.
