SHORTSVILLE.

James McLoughlin and family spent Easter at Romulus, the guest of his brother.
James Dunn, after spending a ten days vacation at his home here, returned to his school duties at Brockport Tuesday.
Miss Marie O'Neil of Seneca Falls, was the guest of her parents over Sunday.
Miss Agnes Farrell of Canandaigua, visited relatives here last week.
Mrs. M. Russell, who has been quite sick, is somewhat better.
Miss Mary Dunn of Seneca Falls, spent Easter at her home here.
Miss Mary Delahanty of Rochester, was the guest of her parents over Easter.
Miss Margaret Kennedy, who has been visiting relatives at Manchester for the past two weeks, returned to her home at Buffalo, Wednesday.

AVON.

Miss Mary Lavery of Rochester, spent Sunday at the home of her parents Mr. and Mrs. James Lavery.
Messrs. John Finn and James McLoughlin of Meadville, Pa., were guests at the home of Mrs. William McLoughlin Sunday.
A special meeting of the Young Ladies Sodality was held Sunday, at which they decided to put on a play in June.
Messrs. Martin Hendrick and William MacGweney of Lima, visited in town Sunday.

A beautiful holy water font has been purchased by the Rosary Society.
Mr. and Mrs. Peter Carriger of Geneva, spent Easter at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John Ryan.
Mr. Martin Shelley of St. Andrew's Seminary, is at his home for his Easter vacation.

The entertainment and dance under the auspices of the L. C. B. A. which was held Easter Monday evening, was again a most decided success, both socially and financially. The way in which each character took her part in the play reflected much training and hard work on the part of the nuns who had charge of the play. Music for dancing was furnished by Shannon's orchestra.
Miss Peters of Rochester, is a guest at the home of Rev. Father Farron.

BATH.

At St. Mary's church last Sunday the engagement of Miss Josephine C. Loneragan, a well known and popular young lady of this place, and Michael F. McNamara of Elmira, was announced. Their marriage will take place the latter part of this month at St. Mary's church in this village. Mr. McNamara is a lawyer by profession and is a prominent member of the bar at Elmira. His father, Rev. Father McNamara, was a member of the Wetmore tribe No. 47 of that city.
Mass next Sunday will be at 10:30 o'clock and the pew rent for the first quarter will be taken up.

The Easter collection was a substantial one and the collection for the holy land also amounted to a neat sum.
Much credit is due the ladies who decorated the altar and the church for Easter Sunday. They never look prettier.

The Easter music was finely rendered by the choir at St. Mary's church. The regular choir was augmented by several additional members including Mrs. Jos. McGuire, Mrs. Fred Richards, Miss Sarah Collins, Robert McNamara. There was a large crowd out for Easter service. Rev. Father Farrell, chaplain at the Soldiers' Home, preached a sermon on the "Resurrection of Christ."

CALEDONIA.

The services at St. Columba's church Easter Sunday were very beautiful and impressive. The altars were elaborately decorated with Easter lilies, palms, potted plants and many lighted tapers. The sermon was eloquent and appropriate for the day. The choir rendered excellent music.

Miss Jennie Martin of Rochester, is spending the week with friends here.
On Easter Monday, at St. Columba's church was solemnized the marriage of Miss Sarah Sheehan of this village and Mr. Joseph Cennan of Mt. Morris, Rev. B. W. Gummenginger officiating. The attendants were Miss Eva Feeley and Mr. John Sheehan, brother of the bride. Mr. and Mrs. Cennan will make their home at Mt. Morris.

LYONS.

Monday night the Ancient Order of Hibernians held their entertainment and dance, which was a decided success. The entertainment consisted of solos by James Courneen, Jr. and Lillian Murray, a duet by Lena Myers and Nora O'Keefe, violin solo by Albert Beach accompanied by his sister, a piano duet by Cora and Elsie Strohm and a piano duet by Jennie Peals and Grace Windell. All the numbers were well rendered and greatly pleased the hearers. Dancing followed until early morning. Gucker's full orchestra furnished the music.

DANVILLE.

The altars of St. Patrick's church were handsomely decorated by the Sisters for Easter Sunday with rare cut flowers Easter lilies, palms and potted plants and innumerable candles radiated the scene. Rev. W. T. Dunn preached two appropriate sermons to large congregations. The excellent musical programs published last week were finely rendered under the direction of the sisters. The number of communicants was extremely large and included the Children of Mary, C. E. & B. A. and many members of the congregation. The Easter collection amounted to $340. Vespers and benediction of the Blessed Sacrament at 7:30 in the evening.
At St. Mary's church on Easter the altars were decorated with choice cut flowers, palms and plants and brilliantly lighted with many candles. All present at the services were strongly impressed by the sermons on the "Resurrection" delivered in English at the early mass and in German at the high mass by Rev. Father Sindels of Canisius College Buffalo. Rev. M. Krieschel sang the late mass. The musical program in charge of the sisters was well rendered by the large chorus choir. St. Boniface society and many members of the congregation received holy communion. The collection amounted to $210. Vespers were sung in the evening at 7:30 and benediction of the Blessed Sacrament given.

The C. M. B. A. will receive holy communion in a body at St. Mary's church next Sunday and the Rosary, Altar and Scapular society will receive at St. Patrick's church.
The Children of Mary gave beautiful cut glass cruets and serve to St. Patrick's church for Easter.
St. Mary's dramatic club will present the play "Tony, the convict" in Columbia's hall soon.
Miss Elizabeth Cogan is home from Rochester.

FAIRPORT.

In the presence of their relatives and a large gathering of well wishers occurred on April 13th, the marriage of Miss Etta Lyden to Mr. Philip J. Hartley, two of Fairport's most popular young people, in the church of the Assumption of the Blessed Virgin Mary. The bridesmaid was Miss Margaret Hartley and the best man Mr. William Hartley, sister and brother of the bridegroom. Rev. James J. Hartley of Rochester and Rev. James E. Hartley of Palmyra, attended the nuptial ceremony. The bride was given to in a traveling suit of dove broadcloth.
Mr. and Mrs. Hartley left on the evening train for a Western trip, after which they will make their home on Summit Street, Fairport.

PENN YAN.

The many friends of Miss Kathryn Ginder are pleased to know she is now able to be out and is rapidly improving under the care of Dr. Brady.
Miss Jennie Tunney died at the home of her parents in this village after a lingering illness.
Saturday morning about four o'clock fire broke out in the grocery store of Mr. Brankerhawker on Head St., and completely destroyed everything.

RENOUCE THE WORLD.

TWENTY-SIX YOUNGLADIES CONSECRATE THEMSELVES TO THE SERVICE OF GOD AT NAZARETH CONVENT.

On Easter Monday morning the beautiful ceremony of reception and profession occurred at Nazareth Convent at 8 o'clock. A large number of clergymen accompanied Rt. Rev. Bishop McQuaid as he entered the chapel just before the procession of postulants and novices.
Miss Mary Glendon was cross bearer and was followed by eight little girls who carried the habits and veils of the postulants. Beautifully attired in bridal array of silk, lace and orange blossom, the seven young ladies knelt at the altar, and in gentle voices pleaded for admission to the novitiate of the order. In answer to the questions of the venerable bishop they declared their intention to be sincere, their will free and wholly unbailed, and were at once admitted to enter upon their two years of probation at the end of which time they will be admitted to the first vows, and again at the end of seven years final vows will be made by them provided they live up to the requirements of the novitiate and gave satisfaction to the Superiors of the community.

The new novices assumed the following names:
The novices who made their first vows are:
Sr. M. Alicia Mc Donald, Sr. M. Imelda Foley, Sr. M. Joachim Byrne, Sr. M. Avellina Cullen, Sr. M. Ernesta Sailer, Sr. M. Francis Paula Lavin, Sr. M. Ephrem Powers, Sr. M. Sulphie Blais, Sr. M. Mellie Rafferty, Sr. M. Stephen Brennan, Sr. M. Clara Marie McCormac, Sr. M. Pauline Smyth, Sr. M. Oswald Wilson.
The following made final vows:
Sr. M. Rose Alice Conway, Sr. M. Phyllida Denifee, Sr. M. Abel O'Connor, Sr. M. Jamesina Walsh, Sr. M. Bruno Mahoney.
The following clergymen were in attendance:
Very Rev. F. Hickey, Vicar General of the diocese. Rev. Angelo Luger, spiritual director at Nazareth Normal School. Rev. A. M. O'Neill, rector in immaculate Conception church. Rev. Geo. J. Ekle, assistant at Immaculate Conception. Rev. Geo. J. Eider, St. Bernard's Seminary. Rev. A. Meehan, D. C. of St. Bernard's Seminary. Rev. T. Fitzsimons, M. R. Lima. Rev. John J. McGrath, rector St. Aloysius church, Auburn. Rev. James Winters, assistant Corpus Christi. Rev. J. Nolan, St. Andrew's College. Rev. M. Gleason and Rev. E. Rawlinson of St. Mary's church. Rev. John Brophy, rector St. Monica's church. Rev. John Connors, rector Blessed Sacrament church. Rev. E. Giff, chaplain at St. Mary's Asylum.

The altar was beautifully adorned with nature's rarest blossoms, golden candles and many waxen tapers, with the Episcopal Raiment of the venerable celebrant of the mass, Rt. Rev. Bishop McQuaid, made the scene one of real splendor. A large congregation of relatives and friends assembled to do honor to the occasion. The bishop, always equal to the occasion, spoke words of wisdom and kind fatherly advice to the new members of the community.

The musical program exceeded anything heretofore given at the convent, including as it did Easter Noyettes, A Halleluia, Jubilate and the grand Te Deum, in which the rich tones of the clergy blended with the sweet voices of the nuns.
At the close of the ceremony the new novices held a reception for their friends in the convent parlors.

KNIGHTS OF COLUMBUS.

New York State Council Officers Circular.

The State Council, Knights of Columbus, of the State of New York, will convene at Colonial Hall, St. Paul St., one block north of Main St., in the City of Rochester, N. Y., on the 5th day of May, 1903, at 10:30 o'clock a. m.
On Tuesday morning, May 5th, High Mass will be celebrated at St. Mary's Church, on South St., at 9:30 o'clock for the members of the Order, Officers and delegates attending the Convention.
Officers, delegates and members of the Order are earnestly requested to meet at Colonial Hall on St. Paul St., at 9 o'clock, a. m., and proceed to the church in a body. Members of the Rochester Council will act as an escort to the delegates and it is desired that the Reverend clergy, members of the Order, in attendance will be present in the sanctuary.
The State Deputy and the State Secretary will have rooms at the Powers Hotel. Delegates upon their arrival in the city of Rochester are requested to call at the room of the State Secretary and register, to the end that they may secure the rates given by the various hotels, leave their certificates entitling them to reduction of railroad rates referred to hereinafter, to be signed by the State Secretary and countersigned by the representative of the Trunk Line Association. The State Secretary will be at his room on Monday evening, preceding the opening of the Convention.
On Tuesday evening, May 5th, Rochester Council will tender a reception to the officers, delegates and members of the Order and their ladies at the New York State Armory on Washington Square, at 8:30 o'clock p. m., and inasmuch as extensive arrangements have been made by Rochester Council for the reception and ball which will follow, it is the wish of the members of the Rochester Council that the officers, delegates and members make arrangements to attend the same. Admission to the reception and ball will be by the Third Degree password at the door by members which will admit members and ladies accompanying them.

Other forms of entertainment will be provided by Rochester Council for the ladies accompanying delegates to the convention and for the delegates and officers as well, due announcement of which will be made in the convention hall.
It is desirable that delegates and members wishing rooms in Rochester secure the same in advance, by communicating with James P. Jones, William H. Gragen or Bernard Kennedy, a committee for that purpose, any one of whom may be addressed to Union Club, Rochester. Delegates or members desiring rooms will indicate the hotel desired and rooms will be secured by the committee and delegates notified of such reservation.
A committee of the Rochester Council will meet the incoming trains on Monday afternoon, evening and Tuesday morning, wearing badges which will indicate their readiness to escort delegates to the hotels selected.

Arrangements have been made with the Trunk Line Association, embracing all the railroads entering the city of Rochester, for a reduction to a fare and one-third on the certificate plan.
Signed,
JOHN W. HOGAN, State Deputy,
NICHOLAS I. CLARKIN, State Secretary

PUZZLES

Key to last week's puzzles:
No. 1—Invert picture. Hidden man is back of right leg of standing man, his features outlined by wrinkles in his boot. Mug is behind seated man, between leg of table and back of his chair.
No. 2—Turn left side of picture down. Goat is in foliage over building, his tail touching brim of boy's hat.
No. 3—Turn right side of picture down. Top of gypsy queen's head is outlined by trunk of tree in left of picture. Tambourine of third dancer from left of picture is at queen's chin. The face looks toward top of picture.
No. 4—Invert picture. Boy's cap is at his waist, between right arm and leg. Bowl of pipe is between first and second trees from left of picture, the stem extending to boy's head.
No correct answers were received.
