Correspondence

DANVILLE.
Rev. W. T. Dunn preached an excellent sermon last Sunday morning on the Gospel of the day.

The Children of Mary Society attended the first May devotion in a body at St. Patrick's church on Friday morning, May 1st.

Martin King Jr. won the first gentleman's prize in the speaking contest of the high school last week. Mr. King had already been named by Professor Banner for the inter-academical contest at Hamilton college, May 9th, in which twelve schools take part.

Rev. W. T. Dunn preached at the Forty Hours devotions in Caledonia Monday evening and assisted at Forty Hours services in Hornellsville Tuesday.

Trustees Maloney of St. Patrick's church is out again after a short illness.

Rev. W. T. Dunn has issued his first quarterly statement of pew rent paid for 1903 and a list of contributors to the Easter collection. The pew rent paid exceeds by a large sum the amount received for the corresponding quarter of last year. 12 additional pews have been rented since Jan. 1, 1903. Nearly every family in St. Patrick's Danville and Holy Name Mission, Oranville, is represented in the generous Easter collection. $41 Danville and $14 Oranville.

SENECA FALLS.
Miss Bridget Alice McKean, youngest daughter of Joseph McKean, died at the home of her sister, Mrs. Owen Doohan, in West Bayard St., Thursday, April 23rd, where she had been since the death of her mother six weeks ago. The deceased was of a cheerful, happy disposition, which endeared her to all with whom she came in contact, and her death is deeply regretted by her many friends. She had been in delicate health for nearly five years, but the immediate cause of her death was acute heart failure. The remains were taken to the home of her father in Toledo St. The funeral was held from St. Patrick's church Monday morning. The high mass was celebrated by Rev. Father M. U. Dwyer. She is survived by her father, Joseph McKean, one sister, Mrs. Owen Doohan, and three brothers, John, F., Joseph, P. and Hugh, all of this place.

The Forty Hours devotions begin in the parish next Sunday, May 10, at the 10:30 mass.

May devotion in honor of the Blessed Mother are held every morning in the church during this month.

BATH.
The marriage of Miss Elizabeth M. Entenard, daughter of Walter Lee, was celebrated at St. Mary's church last Wednesday afternoon. Rev. Father Griffin officiating. They left the same evening for a short trip to Rochester, Mass. The bride is the daughter of Mr. Entenard of Bath, Me.

At a meeting of the Steuben county Board of the Ancient Order of Hibernians held in a room at Sunday afternoon, plans for holding a union picnic and held day under the auspices of the county A. O. H. section during the summer months were discussed and committees appointed to make the necessary arrangements. It was also voted to recommend the teaching of Irish history in the Catholic schools. Those present from Bath were President James L. Crogan, Secretary John S. Hogan and C. E. Carroll.

The local L. C. B. A. gave a dancing party at their rooms Friday evening.

W. T. Moran, Grand Knight and Captain J. W. Fiddler of Cornish, Council No. 281, Knights of Columbus represented that council at the State convention in Rochester the past week.

Miss Dolores V. Kinsella of Cornish, is spending two weeks in Bath.

Mass next Sunday will be at 9:15 o'clock sharp.

St. Patrick's Easter carnival at Cornish netted the church $7,363.10, the piano contest bringing in $4,957.26. It was the largest sum ever realized by a similar fair in Southern New York. The popular and genial pastor of St. Patrick's parish, Rev. Walter Lee, deserves great credit for the splendid result of his labors, and it is doubtful if such a magnificent sum could have been realized by any other management in the Crystal city. Father Lee is popular with all classes and deservedly so.

Miss Nellie McNamara has been graduated from the Rochester Business University and has accepted a position in that city.

SHORTSVILLE.
Frank Barrett, formerly of this place but now of Waterloo, was united in marriage Wednesday of last week to Miss Mary FitzPatrick of Ontario, at that village by Rev. Father Miller of Webster. Miss Anna Pinn was bridesmaid and Frank Shaw of this village a nephew of the groom was best man. A large number of friends were present at the wedding. Mr. and Mrs. Barrett will reside at Waterloo.

Mr. and Mrs. W. McLaughlin of Ovid are visiting James McLaughlin of this place.

Edward Hamilton and family of New York city have arrived in Littleville for the summer.

James Brophy and family moved to Rochester the first of the week.

A sad accident occurred here early last Saturday morning, which caused the death of William Goodlick of Victor, who was struck by the 2 o'clock fast freight. Mr. Goodlick accompanied by three young men of Victor, were in attendance at a party given here by the Macabees. His remains were taken to his home in Victor and the funeral was held Monday morning.

Miss Minnie McIntyre of Geneva was the guest of friends here the first of the week.

LYONS.
The remains of James Mahaney who died suddenly last Monday morning in East Newark, arrived here Monday night and were taken to his home on Jackson St. Mr. Mahaney left some early Monday morning to bring a missionary box from Newark and expired on the way from heart disease from which he had suffered for many years. James Mahaney was a familiar figure in Lyons since 1880. He was born in Kingston, Canada, in 1842, and at the age of eight years came to this village and went to work on a farm. He joined Temple Lodge No. 153, Ancient Order of United Workmen in 1881 and was an honorary member of Lyons Division No. 2, Ancient Order of Hibernians. He served through the civil war, being badly wounded several times. He held membership in A. D. Adams Post, No. 153, Grand Army of the Republic. He held at various times positions on the democratic ticket in this village. He is survived by a wife, six sons, James, George, Daniel, John, Joseph and Patrick, of this village, four daughters, Anna and Margaret of Newburgh, and Adelia and Nellie of this village. The funeral was held from St. Michael's church Thursday morning at 10 o'clock.

CALEDONIA.
The devotion of the Forty Hours opened at St. Columba church last Sunday and closed Wednesday morning. On Sunday evening the sermon was by Rev. Father O'Brien of Rochester. Monday evening Rev. Father D. Donohue of this village, Tuesday evening Rev. Father Hughes of Geneva, and Wednesday evening Rev. Father Ferron of Verplankville also assisted during the Forty Hours. The devotion was well attended and a large number received the sacraments.

St. Columba's young people are preparing to give an entertainment and May festival on Friday evening, May 29.

Jury Verdicts.

At Fort Scott, Kan., a jury in the district court returned a verdict finding a certain accused person guilty of larceny. The verdict had not been prepared in the technical form desired, and the judge sent the jury back to make the necessary corrections. The jury was gone for half an hour, and when it returned it brought in a verdict acquitting the prisoner.

But a verdict even more amusing was perpetrated by a jury at Pittsburg. The case was a criminal one, and after a few minutes' consultation the jury filed into the box from its room. "Have you agreed upon a verdict?" asked the judge. "We have," responded the foreman, passing it over. "The clerk will read," said the judge, and the clerk read, "We, your jury, agree to disagree."

A Satisfactory Ounce.
An old highlander, rather fond of his glass, was ordered by his doctor during a temporary ailment not to take more than one ounce of spirits in the day. The old man was a little dubious about the amount and asked his boy, who was attending school, how much an ounce was. "An ounce—sixteen drams, one ounce." "Sixteen drams!" exclaimed the delighted highlander. "Gaw, no! so bad. Run and tell Tonal Mac-tavish and Big Duncan to come doon the night."—Dundee News.
