Interesting Budget of Happenings Gathered by Our City Reporters.

ST. JOSEPH.

To-morrow is communion and conference day for the married men of the Holy Family.

To-morrow morning at 7:30 the members of Branch 81, C. M. B. A. will receive holy communion in a body. The members are requested to assemble at 7 o'clock in the school hall.

To-morrow will be communion day for the girls of the christian doctrine class.

To-morrow evening at 7:30 will be vespere, sermon, May devotions and benediction.

Monday evening at 8 o'clock will be the regular meeting of Branch 81, C. M. B. A.

A wedding of interest to many of this congregation took place last Wednesday morning at 11 o'clock, when Rev. Father Kessel, rector of this church, performed the ceremony which united Miss Charlotte Friede of this parish, and Dr. Joseph Andries of Detroit. The bridesmaids were Miss Helen Rohr of Buffalo, and the two sisters of the groom. The matron of honor was Mrs. William Stump of New York city. Dr. Andries was attended by his brother Henry Andries of Detroit. The ushers were Francis Rohr of Buffalo, Charles Nellany of New York city, Neil Knapp, Willard Rich and Dr. Egert of this city. During the celebration of the mass Francis Rohr, one of the finest baritone of Buffalo sang Belzjens' "Tota Pulchra Est" and Miss Caroline Cramer of this city gave Millard's "Ave Verum." Professor Francis Bauer, who presided at the organ, gave a fine musical programme as the guests assembled. Dr. and Mrs. Andries will reside in Detroit.

ST. MARY'S

Thursday was the feast of the Ascension. Masses were at 5:30, 7 and 9 o'clock.

A large class of children will receive their first holy communion at the 8:15 o'clock mass to-morrow. The children went on retreat after the 9 o'clock mass on Thursday morning. To-morrow is communion Sunday for the men and boys of the parish. There was a month's mind mass on Saturday morning for Francis Marie Dorsey. CATHEDRAL.

Anniversary high mass was said on Monday morning at 8 o'clock for Owen Cahill and Tuesday morning at 7 o'clock for Louis J. Fellman.

A requiem high mass was offered Friday morning for Nellie Willis.

A large class of children and adults received their first holy communion Ascension Thursday at the eight o'clock mass. In the afternoon they were enrolled in the scapular of Our Lady of Mount Carmel.

Our pastor, Father Hickey, extended his appreciation to those who have so kindly responded to our scholarship.

The May devotions are very solemnly carried out every morning and evening.

The singing of our children last Friday night without any accompaniment was well rendered and appreciated by all.

HOLY FAMILY.

The Forty Hours devotion opened with a solemn high mass last Sunday morning and closed Tuesday evening at 8 o'clock, when the Litany was sung, followed by a procession of the Blessed Sacrament, which was carried by Rev. Emil Gessell. Benediction was given and the Te Deum was sung after the procession.

Next Sunday morning about 150 children will receive their first holy communion at a solemn high mass at 7 o'clock. The children went on retreat Thursday morning.

Only the first communicant's confessions will be heard Saturday afternoon.

Sunday afternoon at 3 o'clock the May procession in honor of Blessed Virgin, will be held. The first communicants will take part in the procession.

Next Wednesday evening the C. M. B. A. Branch 117 will have a meeting in the school hall.

The Knights of St. Theodore are invited to escort the communicants from the school hall to the church Sunday morning.

SS. PETER AND PAUL.

The golden jubilee of the Young Ladies Sodality will be celebrated with solemn high mass at 8 o'clock, Sunday morning, at which the members will receive holy communion in a body, special preparations being made for the occasion. The members will enjoy a banquet on Monday evening in the parish hall.

The Advisory Senate of the L. O. B. A. will hold their first banquet at Teall's, on East Avenue, Monday evening. The guests of honor will be Rev. Bishop McQuaid, supreme spiritual adviser of the association; Mrs. E. B. McGowan, supreme president, and Miss Alicia Blaney, editor of the Fraternal Leader. The arrangement committee is composed of Mrs. E. Burke, Mrs. K. Bauman, Mrs. E. Murphy. Reception committee, Mrs. O'Hara, Mrs. Anna Brook, Mrs. T. Quinn and Miss Louise Meyers.

Mrs. Anna Voeburgh has returned to her old home on Tonawanda St., where she will remain until next fall. The neighbors gave her a grand reception. Several games of cards were played and refreshments served. Mrs. V. Kuder won first prize and Mrs. D. Diehl the second. A very pleasant evening was had by all present. Mrs. Voeburgh wishes to thank all her friends. Many pleasant evenings will be had while she is at her home.

ST. BRIDGET'S.

A requiem high mass was offered Monday at 8 a. m. for Mrs. Mary Heavey, given by Branch 27, L. C. B. A.

Thursday, the feast of the Ascension, masses were celebrated at 5:30 and 9 a. m.

At the meeting of the Fort-nightly pedro club held at Ontario Beach last Tuesday, the prizes were won by Mrs. C. F. Shell, Mrs. W. F. Kelly, Mrs. K. J. Dowling, Mrs. C. Kerrigan, Miss O'Boke and Miss McKearney.

The May party given by members of Advisory Senate L. C. B. A. will take place at Teall's next Monday evening. All the members of the Senate are requested to attend.

Mrs. Mortimer Stone of St. Paul St. died last Monday. The funeral took place Friday morning at nine o'clock. Mrs. Stone was an old and respected member of this parish, having been one of the first members of the old St. Bridget's church.

Mrs. Arthur Thomlinson of Oklahoma, is visiting her father Mr. Mortimer Stone. She came to attend the funeral of her mother. She is accompanied by her little son.

A requiem mass was said Saturday morning at 8 o'clock for Mrs. Hughes, sister of Father Hendrick.

BLESSED SACRAMENT.

The funeral of Mrs. Timothy Mannix, a well known and highly respected resident of Brighton, took place from this church at 9:30 o'clock, Tuesday morning. High mass was celebrated by Rev. Father Connors assisted by Rev. Father Gleason of St. Mary's and Rev. Father Edelman of St. Bernard's seminary. The many floral offerings showed the high esteem in which she was held. She leaves to mourn her loss besides her bereaved husband, three sons, James of Mt. Morris, William of Rochester, Thomas of Brighton, and four daughters, Mrs. Edward Connolly of Rochester, Katherine, Jewel and Anna of Brighton. The bearers were: W. J. Dempsey, W. J. Burke, Lawrence Murray, D. F. Sheehan, James and Henry Fisher.
