TRISH LETTER

OF IRELAND.

What is Being Done by the People at Home-Various Items From Every Section of the Emerald lale.

Connaught

GALWAY-The nuns of the Convent of Our Lady of Mercy of the Most Holy Name, Tuam, are working zealentity and continuously these days to relieve the people around them who are suffering from an epidemic of in-Auenza. The demands made on them have exhausted their resources and they are, therefore, compelled to appeal for general assistance. Dnoations will be received and thankfully acknowledged by Sister Mary McDonmell.

Mr. C. R. Devlin, M. P., expects to leave for Canada in July. Before his departure he will address meetings in Galway City, Bushy Park and Barna. His election for Galway has pleased his fellow workers of Canada, who propose tendering him a reception on his arrival. St. Patrick's Society of June 19 next. Dr. Gillooly sole muly Montreal cabled to nim congratulagions on St. Patrick's day.

LEITRIM-Mr. B. F. O'Beirne, Aughamore House, Ruskey, has been appointed to the Commission of the Peace for the County Leitrim. act of consecrating St. Assicus as first

A meeting of the Manorhamilton Catholic Young Men's Society was Bishop of Elphin. We are of opinion held April 19. The Rev. P. McLouglin, there is nothing of this style of church president of the society, occupied the decoration to be seen in any other chair. Present: P. Wilson, secretary; 3. P. McGuinness, J. M. Doian; treas | places on the Continent mosaic work errer; P. Gaffney, J. Lee, J. Loughlin, on the exterior of buildings in Ireland, J. Killoran, B. Roomey, R. Sweeney, R. Kivlin Reverend chair spoke with such work is simply delightful. selerance to the flourishing state of will form the most beautiful feature the society, and upon the great ad- in a most beautiful church. There is wastages to be gained by young men a heavy debt due on the church and spectoming members. The treasurer the Rev. Father Loughlin, pastor, will was directed to pay off all the out thankfully acknowledge any donations standing accounts, and the rooms were to assist in clearing it off. erdered to be closed for the season,

1.V I brdin miwypnp unuunn chapel of the Convent of the Sisters of A committee was appointed to fix the Charity, at Banada Abbey, Hev date of the society's annual excursion. Michael Connolly received the sacred which is expected to take place the effice of ordination to priesthood from Seginning of June.

The Catholic Church og St. Bridget, Drumkeeran, was on April 20, the part in the ceremonial: Rev. James | Skally, St. John's College, Waterford | latter were: Sir John Scott, Mr. Marscene of an interesting ceremony on O'Connor, administrator, master of (brothers); Miss M. M. E. and J. tin Mahony and Mr. A E. Shaw. whe occasion of the marriage of Mr. J. McGoldrick, N. T., Drumkeeran, ministrator; Rev. James Spelman, Rev. dul, Drumkeersn. Mr. McManus, N. who has received the sacred office, has mel, on the road to Cahir, was sent T., soled as best man, and Miss B. been a student of the College of May. April 14, by his father to fetch home Lyons, sister of the bride, and Miss noeth, and is now a professor at the a donkey. The lad mounted the anihay Stakin, cousin, as bridesmands. Diocesan Seminary, St. Nathy's, at mal and was riding homeward when The ceremony was performed by the Ballaghaderrean. Wery Rev. J. Dolan, assisted by the Right Rev. Dr. Lyster, Blshop of The animal because restive, and the messed by a number of friends and church in Ballmarron on April 19 and head and killed. acquaintances of bride and groom.

was created in Ballaghaderreen when prospect of a lasting peace now dawn Clogheen, took place on April 23. High at became known that a blacksmith ing on the horizon after so many years mass was celebrated Rev. W. Ormond mamed John Grady had been found of turmoil and suffering, and hoped celebrant; Rev. J. Everard, Cahir, in his forge. He had been last that the sanguine expectations enter deacon, and Rev. P. Byrne, Ballyporselects about six o'clock on the same tained by the people of Ireland may een, sub-deacon. evening, and then appeared to be in be fully realized. Hhe then spoke to this usual health and spirits, and up the people of the proposed new church an entertainment was given in the intervals. sto that time working. On Friday and announced to them the glad tid- schools of the Convent, Kilmacthomas. singuest was held by Mr. Burke, coro ings that the Hon. Bourke Cockran, in Some of the items were Irish. mer and after medical evidence was whom the people of the parish of Kilmeard, a verdict of death from natural varnet pride so much, has recovered bas been erected in the Church in Lisgauses was returned.

occurred on Easter Sunday at the age May 17, when the foundation will be The deceased clergyman was in Lisof 6) years, deeply mourned. Solemn blessed by his lordship the bishop, and more as curate for twenty-three years, the happy subsequently a brilliant oration will be sepose of her soul in the Cathedral, delivered by this distinguished and lion of the window: It is essentially Ballgahaderreem, on Tuesday.

The Meyo Fels opened in Bally- who has worked his way with such maunis on April 15. Success attended marked success and earned for him-Athe untiring efforts of those responsi-self, by his extraordinary ability and while for fits organization. No such serviceable career, the respect and splendid gathering has ever come esteem of everybody. tegether in Maya. It was an assem-: Day of intelligence and patriotism to inspire the most indifferent Irishman with home and pride. Nor can its effects or the impression it has left sons of the Feis must trickle down to weeks forty young men and won en mitre, his right hand holding the shamevery hamlet in the county and spread have left one parish alone in the west. rock as he demonstrates the Trinity. Father Canning have left the Feis a dozen more to follow. In numerous his shield. Luchru stands behind, a committee under objections in placing other districts the same sad story is fine figure in his Archdruid's dress, his 48 Haddington road. Catherine Coates. the magnificent schools at the distold. mosai of the organizers.

ROSCOMMON-Mr. Killelea. of Knockarush, Boyle, bought at an auction held lately by Mr. Michael Cunmingham, the farm field by the late Mr. B. McDonagh for £190, the rent Theing £11 16s a year. This represents meventuen years for the tenant's inviterent. Mr. illelea is a prominent League.

Great regret was occasioned in Boyle by the death of Mr. H. Mahou Mr., which took place on April 23, at the residence of his father in Church ctrock, Boyle. Deceased had been in delicate state of health. He had mearly attained the age of 17 years The luneral took place at four o'cleck m Sunday afternoon and was attended by a great number of the citizens. The new church in honor of Our Lord's Swored Heart, in Roscommon. will be dedicated for Divine service ca inne is mert. The building is unished Margaret McGrath. HURLEY—April the chief point of insistence is the PART IN PURITY HE BALL (AND RESTO manner and the state of the sta

and the second s

HE DECUME ONE OF the most interest entrance, by a simple arrangement ing features of a building that will be surely regarded as among the very finest and the most attractive churches MEWS FROM ALL THE COUNTIES in the land. On the rising ground leading from the entrance gate is formed as if out of the natural rock, by aid of old, fantastically shaped stones gathered in the surrounding fields, a beautifully designed grotto, to the rear of the structure there is a representation, in fine naturally colored statuary, of the last tracic scene on Calvary. The Centurion, Longinus, is in the act of forcing the spear into the side of the dead Savious and plercing the Sacred Heart. The background of the picture will be a panoramic view of Jerusalem. grand composition over the front door is a historic representation. Our Lord of the Sacred Heart is seen sitting enthroned with His right hand raised in the attitude of blessing. On either side of Him, standing and inter-ceding with Him, are St. Coman, the first priest known to have spiritual ege of dedicating to God's service on dedicated the diocese to the Sacred Heart in 1883, hence the appropriateness of his holding up for Our Lord's acceptance the map of the diocess.

Over the door leading to the north aisle St. Patrick is represented in the similar edifice in Ireland, yet in many at all events, very rare. The effect of SLIGO-On Easter Tuesday, in the

the Most Rev. Dr. Lyster, Bishop of

Munster

CLARE-The emigration from Ciare

CORK-The death of Mr. Daniel elected, unopposed, for the Cape Clear representatives of the Midleton.

Castlemartyr and Youghal branches.

system." the principle of which is that children themselves vote the name of the boy or girl who, according to their knowledge, spoke the most Irish, not necessarily the best Irish, during the Recent Deaths in Cork-McGRATH

-On April 21, at 68 Patrick street,

Joseph Hurley, late of Lynchburg, Virdivision of the Skibbereen Union.

charge of the parish of Roscoramon KERRY-A grand concert was held (the place is called after him); at in the Market hall, Cabir veen, April Our Lord's feet are seen kneeling the 13, under the auspices of the local past and the present bishops of the branch of the Gaelic League. A large diocese. Dr Gillooly is represented and appreciative audience attended. holding a man of the diocese in his hand; Dr. Clancy is seen holding up in Irish. view of Our Lord a model of the new Mrs. Timothy Sugrue, Sur., Traice, church which he will have the previl-died April 14. The funeral took place there being present members and re- Byrne, suncroft. country.

On April 20, at Bailyglass-Grenagh.

Richard Roche, national teacher, aged 68 years. DONOVAN-Apriu 21, at the South Infirmary, Daniel Donovan, late employe Cork Harbor Commissioners. DONOVAN-On April 20.

Nora Donovan, Farnalough, Newces-

town. BOLSTER-On April 20, at Kil-

gubbin, Ballyclough, Louisa Lowe,

Granard, Liscarroll, and relict of the late William Bolster, Henry street,

Heights, Pittsburg, Pa., on Holy Thursday,s Minnie MacCarthy, Sunday'

Well, daughter of the late Denis Buck-lay and Elen Buckley, Kilcuily, Cork.

0 SU LLIVAN-On April 20, at Ballincurrig, Douglas road, Michael Joseph

O'Sullivan, _HARLEY-On April 23,

James William Harley, of Cork City,

at Altadore, County Wicklow, in his

46th year. MURPHY-April 23, Cor-

aelius Murphy, Prosperity Square,

RYAN-On April 23, at Castledodd,

Charleville, Mrs. Ryan.

LIM ERICK-Mrs. Margaret Weeks, of Knockfennell Grange, died recently at the residence of her daughter in Ennis. The funeral to Grange on April 18 was very numerously attend-

On April 1, In Cappenahan, nea: Ballingarry, the death occurred of Mr. Jeremiah Chiford, who had attained the age of 107 years. He was the owner of a farm where last harvest he cut down the yellow corn and stacked it with his own hands, and during the present season he prepared the ground and sowed the seed.

TIPPERARY-Miss Rose Skally, of Slulceville, Marlfield, Clonmel, was professed a member of the Order of Mercy in the Convent at Dunmore. County Waterford, April 10. Present: Achenry. The following priest took James Skally, Clonmel, and Bernard ceremonies; Rev. Father Breen, ad Skally (sisters) and others.

Niss Katie A. Lyons, second eldest M. Doyle, Rev. Father Doherty, and 11 years, son of a farmer residing at daughter of Mr. Michael Lyons, Cor. Rev. Father Durcan. Father Connolly, Woodroofe, three miles outside Clona motor car came suddenly upon him Bev. T. C. Connelly, and was wit-Achenry, paid a visit to the new boy was thrown on the road on his assisted at mass. His lordship ex- The funeral obsequies of the late MAYO-On April 22, a sensation pressed the satisfaction he felt at the Mr. W. P. Hackett, Military Hotel,

A beautiful stained glass window from his severe illness and will hor of Lismore as a memorial to the Very The death of Mrs. cenan, Banada, his native parish by a visit on Sunday Rev. Archdeacon Sheehy, Dungarvan. The following is a detailed descripillustrious Irishman (Mr. Cockran) Irish, the system of paneling and the ornamental setting being celtic. There are three scenes, the centre and largest representing the argument between St. Patrick and the Archdruid Liuchru. King Diarmuid, with his queen and followers, have come out to meet St. Patrick, who is standing with his monks and young benignus, who carried the books. St. Patrick is in the of a transitory character. The les- is appalling. Within the past new the robes of a bishop, with staff and roughout Connacht. The nuns and ern portion of the country, and about The king is seated, his arm resting on angry gesture indicating defeat. The figure of the queen is beautiful, her Daly, Cape Clear, took place April 15. [ace filled with wonder as she listens Mr. Daly was very popular and was to the words of the saint. Behind her are the soldiers and followers of the king, the background the hills and On April 17 Mgr. Keller, Youghal, forts of Tara. In the lower panel is a distributed prizes to the pupils of the representation of the landing of St. Dublin, Theresa Millikin, Kings town National schools at Gurtroe. The Columbicalle at Iona. The boat, with O'TOOLEApril 21, at 30 Manor street, prizes were awarded by the Youghal slackened sail, is nearing the shore, on | Elizabeth Mary (Lizzie) O'Toole. member of Mr. O'Brien's United kish branch of the Gaelic League as the which is standing a group of armed ATKINSON-April 20, at 28 Forest result of an examination some weeks men. St. Columbkille, in his monk's ago by a committee consisting of dress, with bare head and tonsure, is Atkinson. McNULTY-April 23, at the standing in the bow of the boat steadying himself by the forestay with one This examination was conducted after hand, while in the other he holds aloft the method known as the "Gortrua the cross as if he were addressing the group on shore. Behind him stands another monk with a hook, while others are busy with the boat. The upper scene is that of St. Brigid at Kildare. The saint is seated under the oak surrounded by girls, while she D'Arcy. GEOGHEGAN-April 21, at explains to them the mysteries of het 31 Lower Stephen's street, Charles religion. In this, as in the other scenes

finia. U. S. A. TERRY-At 10 St. our modern ideas, but the spectator Catherine's place, Jeromiah Terry, late | feels as he gazes that the people there engine driver G. S. W. R. ROCHE- are his own people.

Lienster

CARLOW-The Impressive coremony of ordination was held in Carlow Car hedral lately by Rt. Rev. Dr. Foley, gishop of Kildare and Leighlin, when these students were advanced to the priesthood: Rev. John Killian, Kildare and Leighlin; Rev. Peter Mo-Givney, Kilmore; Rev. Michael Cork. MACCARTHY-At Duquesne Cooney, Kilmore. To deaconship: wd.. ygw shrdlu miwynpnu pnunpnp Rev. Timethy Creed. Christchurch; Rev. James O'Connor, Pittsburg; Rev. Morgan O'Flaherty, Alton. To subdeaconship: Rev. Jeremiah Reidy, Perth; Rev. James Bourke, Wichita: Rev. Charles McCarthy, Newfoundland. The bishop was assisted by Rev. L. Brophy, Senior Dean, St. Patrick's college, Carlow. Father Killiar will be C C at Carlow, vice Father at dinner by the Rev. Thomas Bren-O'Brieg, who has been appointed C. C. at Gralguenamannagh.

Dufroe, Bagnalstown, occurred, April 26, aged 22 years, deeply regretted. Mr. Ryan. The remains, on arrival at Ballingkill-All the items on the program were len, were removed to the church. where Rev. T. Byrne, Clonaslee, brother to the deceased, celebrated mass, after which the remains were on Thursday at O'Brennan cemetery | conveyed to the grave where the celeand was the largest that has ever been | brant was assisted by the Rev. Paul witnessed at this ancient burial ground | Murphy, Gagnalstown, and Rev. T.

presentatives of many of the prinicpal | DUBLIN-The remains of Mr. families round Tralee. Castleisland, O'Toole, whose death occurred on Ardfert, Abbeydorney, Listowel, April 15, were removed from the Knocknagoshel, and the surrounding Church of St. Audeon's High street, Dublin, on Friday morning after ten o'clock mass, for interment in Glasnevin cemetery.

A joint meeting of the two committees appointed by the Irish Industrial Conference for the purpose of drafting a scheme for the establishment of an Institute of Commerce and Industry, and to take the steps necessary for the organization of an International Exhibition in Dublin, was held in the Oak Room of the Mansion House, Dublin, April 22, at Lord Mayor presiding The honorary treasurers appointed included the Lord Mayor of Cork. A sub-committee was formed to draft a scheme for the formation of an Institute of Commerce and Industry, and another to suggest that steps should be taken to enable the holding of an international exhibition in Dublin. Among those appointed on the

On April 20, the new romantic Irish formed in the large hall, Stephen's Green, Dublin, under the auspices of the National Literary Society. There was a large attendance. The play, which is by Mr. Scumas O'Cuisin, has already been snoker of It therefore remains but to add that the favorite promise was amply fulfilled. The story is interesting and sustains its charm to the end, and the text is particularly graceful and eloquent Miss M. T Quinn appeared as Una, daughter of Bryan, son of Dermett, Mr. J. Dudley Diggs, as Owen MacCostello; Mr T. I Nesbitt, as Bryan; Mr P J Kelly, as Cahill Oge, son of Bryan; and Mr. C. Caulfield, as the foster brother to Owen. Mrs Gillespie Cousins, Mus. WATERFORD-On April 21 and 22 Bac., played the planeforte during the > Recent Deaths in Dublin-VICKERS April 22, at the Convent of the Holy Faith, Glasnevin, B. dget Frances in religion, Sister Mary Vincent daughter of Peter and Margare: Vickers, Blackchurch, Hazelbatch, in the 29th year of her age, and 13th of her religious profession. WALI-April 22, at 38 Summer Hill, Agnes Wall, daughter of the late Michael McGrane, Richmond road. MULVANY-April 20, at Jervis Street Hospital, Edward Mulvany, 25 Upper Ormond quay. SCALLY—April 16. at 2 Arran quay, Bridget Scally, formerly of Prospect terrac. Glasnevin. GUTHRIE—April 15, at 12 Courtney place, Ballyboufih road, Dora Guthrie. CLIFTON-April 22, at 30 Main street, Bray, Richard Clifton, aged 65 years. KAVANAGH-Arril 18 at Wharf Tavelend. ern, William Kavanagh KEEGAN-April 18, at the Hospital for Incurables Donnybrook, Louise Keegan, of Priest house. Stillorgan road and Chatham street, Dublin. COATES-April 24, at FAGAN—April 24, Astagob, Clonsilla. Simon Fagan, aged 17 years. KAVAN-AGH-April 18, at 35 Stoneybatter, Bernard Kavanagh, aged 80 years, for 43 years on Great Southern & Western railway (Goods staff). MILLIKIN-April 23, at 175 Lower Church street. terrace, Ballybough road, Mrs. Kate Hospice for the Dying, Haroldscross, Maria (Myra) McNulty, of 4 Little Mary street. BERGIN-April 20. at BBroomfield House, Cabra, Jane Frances Bergin, North King street. BOL GER-April 20, at Cork Street Hospital, Madeline Bolger, aged 21, 45 Pimlico. D'ARCY-April 22 at 6 Geraldine terrace. Inchicore, Laurence M. Geoghegan.

KILDARE-The remains of John Irish strangely dressed according to town, were found in the canal at Arklow, an important portion of the Deceased was a boatman.

was torn, three teeth knocked out, and to Father Dunphy. He holds the dishe sustained sundry bruises.

members journeyed to Ballyhale in low. delightful weather for the purpose of making the presentation. The deputation consisted of Thomas Collins, Edward Doyle, John Carroll, Patrick Kelly and the secretary, John Ryan. The deputation arrived at Father Doyle's at about 2.30 p. m., and was welcomed. The deputation was joined nan, Ballyhale, Mrs. and Miss O'Don-Philipstown, attended the meeting of man acquitted herself with ability. At the clerical managers of schools in the diocese of Kildare and Leighlin, held gram the prize drawing took place. in Kildare town.

LONGFORD-Mr. Eugene Doherty, relieving officer of the Granard Union Miss McAuley. Rev. F. Lawerty thankduring forty three years, died rather ed the ladies and gentlemen who consuddenly on April 4, aged 74 years, tributed to the evening's enjoyment. The funeral to Granard Kill was very | ARMAGH .- The Armagh branch of numerously attended.

Feis will be held in Castlebellingham street, Mr. John McGione, president, in on August 15 next, and will be one of the chair. The delegates who reprethe most important and most interest. sented the branch at the conventioning of its kind to be held in Ireland B. Downey, P. McKenna and P. this year.

bodily and mental faculties.

ancy. He saw much of the hardships seekr dress of grievances." of the campaign, and distinguished himself at the seige of Ancona. On League was held after last mass late-citizens attending in large numbers. the St. Columbkille Hurling club. The paigners in football. Results-Hibernfaction as referee.

QUEENS-Edward Noian, farmer of labors. Boley, died in the Aathy Hospital on DERRY.-Mrs. Andrew Moore, widtained through falling from a load of awarded seven hundred and fifty dolhay. Deceased had been trying to her husband, who fell from a building. bring the hay through the gateway of while at work for the firm of oJseph Mr. Sherlock, Duke street. Failing in Ballantine & Co., Derry. his attempt, he got on to the load to remove some, and waile doing so over-O'Sullivan, O. P.

By the death of the Rev. T. Moloney, and zealous priest, and the people of his parish a beloved pastor. For some years Father Moloney had been in failing health. About a month ago he got tal on April 8 under very peculiar ciran attack of influenza, which, resulting | cumstances. The deceased and a comin heart failure brought about his Grand Jury at the Quarter Sessions for Westmeath, April 20, Judge J. Adye Curran, congratulated them on the peaceful condition of the country. Maguiresbridge branch of the United There were only three cases of no importance to be tried.

Ann Glynn, Thomastown, Killucan, died lately at the extraordinary age of 111 years. She enjoyed excellent health until a few weeks before she died. Four centenarians have died in thanks for electing him to the honor-

Westmeath within past few months. WEXFORD—The deaths of these well known residents in the county happened as follows: Mrs. James O'Neil, of Arthurstown, on April 17, interment in Dunbrody; Mrs. Mary C. Bolger, of Ballorley, interment in Boolavogue; Mr. Henry Hall, Ballylarkin. interment in Castletown; Mr. Michael Johdan, Tomgarrow, interment in Castledockrell. WICKLOW-The death of Mrs. Maria Rickerby, of Baltinglass, occurred recently, at Victoria terrac, Clontarf, aged 72 years, deeply regretted by her relatives and friends in Ireland, United States. Australia and New Zealand. After mass, April 19, an interesting and highly impressive function took Figure part a crows of artists are 20, at Mercy Home, Cork, Jeremiah Irish character. All the figures are Kennedy, aged 35 years, of Roberts place Castletown seven miles from Adamstown, near Lucan, April 22 | Darish of Arklow, of which the Very Rev. James Dunphy is pastor. The Mr. John Collen, of the firm of army place is a small village, but there was contractors, Collen Bros., at the Curlan air of animation about it on Sunday ragh, was ridingn a metor cycle that showed that some important celethrough Kilcullen down a step decline bration was to take place. It was the with a sharp turn at the bottom, and celebration of the silver jubilee of its in goinng round the turn two carts parish priest. The presentation conwere approaching. In trying to avoid sisted of a splendid illmuniaced adone he dashed into the other and was dress and a solid silver tea and coffee thrown to the ground. His under lin service, from the people of the district finction of being the last parish priest KILKENNY-The deputation ap appointed by late Cardinal. Cullen, pointed by the Confraternity of the Archbishop of Dublin, and has been in Sacred Heart, Castlecomer, to present the sacred ministry forty-six years. Father Doyle with an address from the twenty-five of them as pastor of Ark-

Ulster

ANTRIM.—On Friday evening, April-17, a concert was given in St. Mary's School, Portglenone. Miss McAuley. in the interests of the school fund, organized the concert. Miss Fox presided at the piano. The following connell, of Graiguenamanagh; Mr. Fitz tributed popular and patriotic songs: The death of Annie J. Byrne, of patrick and many others. Dinner over Miss Campbell, Miss Bradley, Miss the address was produced and read by Daisy Higman, Miss O'Neill, Miss Mc-Cormick, Mr. Doherty, Mr. McAuley KINGS-Rev. J. Bergin, pastor of and Mr. O'Connella Miss Daisy Higthe close of the first part of the proand Mr. Joseph O'Kane, Belfast, was the winner of the prize presented by > the United Irish League met on April LOUTH-The County Louth Gaelic 19 in the Foresters' Hall, Market Hughes—gave a report of the proceed-On April 20, Dundalk lost is center- ings, after which there was accorded arian, when Mr. George Woods, pawn- a vote of thanks. Mr. P. Mcenna probroker, Clanbrassil street, passed posed and Mr. James Kearney secondaway at the patriarchal age of 103 ed, the following resolutions, which years. Up to a few weeks ago Mr. were unanimously adopted: "That we Woods was in the full possession of condemn the action of owners of house property in Armagh who have ceased Mr. Peter Carroll Greene, of Drog- to pay rates on the £4 valuations. heda, died April 22, deeply regretted, leaving their tenants liable to have At the time of the invasion of the their property beized, and being de-Papal States, in 1860, he volunteered prived of the franchise That we call with Major O'Reilly in the Irish brig. on those tenants to join the United ade, in which he secured a lieuten. Irish League, and by united action

Thursday the remains were borne to ly. Mr. P. Fitzpatrick was moved to-St. Peter's church, West street, the the chair and suitably opened the proboys of the Catholic brigade marching ceedings. Mr. P. Fay proposed and with their colors draped. The caplowing resolution: "That we regret tains of the companies, as a guard of that the government has not embodihonor to a soldier of the faith, march- ed the recommendations of the Irish procession was an imposing one, the Mr. Fagan, organizer, addressed the meeting, and dwelt upon the importance of united action. He referred at MEATH—The first ties in the length to the present political situa-County Meath hurling and football tion; within the past few months championships were played off on great strides had been made toward a April 19 at Kells on the grounds of solution of the land question. Its report facilitated the task of the Government and showed the English people contesting teams were Navan Hibern- that all sections of the Irish people lans vs. Kells St. Columbkilles in hurl- were unanimous in declaring that dual. ing and Castletown vs. Kells Cam- ownership should be substituted by the tiller being the owner.

Rev. Charles O'Reilly, pastor of Larians 3 goals 6 points; St. Columbkilles agh, Stradone, died April 2, in his 67ta goal 2 points. Castletown 1 town year. His studies commenced in the 15 points to 1 point for Kells. Mr. Old College, Cavan and from there he Brown, Walterstown gave entire satis- was sent to the Irish college in Rome, and was ordained in 1862. The parish of Drumreilly was the first field of his-

April 22, the result of injuries sus- ow of Andrew Moore, of Derry, waslars as compensation for the death or

The assembly room of St. Columb's hall, Derry, was thronged on April 23. to hear a lecture under the auspices of reached himself and fell on to the the Sacred Heart Sodality, delivered street, sustaining fracture of the skull. by Count Arthur Moore, on "The Holy Deceased was attended by Rev. Father | Land; its Shrines, Scenery and Pecple." The discourse proved interesting and instructive, and was much appreciated by the audience. Rev. P., Clonaslee, the Diocese of Kil- William Doherty, administrator, Long dare and Leighlin has lost a useful Tower, in introducing the lecturer, thanked him for responding to the invitation to address them.

DOWN-A. young, farmer named Weir died in Dromore Cottage Hospipanion named Martin were larking in a barn, and in a fencing bout with pieces of stick Weir was struck on the WESTMEATH - Addressing the head. Soon afterward he was attacked with headache, and after admission to the hospital he developed insanity. and died raving.

FERMANAGH—A meeting of the Irish League was held on April 19, the vice chairman in the chair. It was agreed to keep the books open until June 1 in order that all outstanding members may come forward with their subscriptions. This was the first meeting for the vice chairman to attend since his appointment, and he returned able post. It was agreed to sent ten per cent. on all membership to Father Eugene McMahon, Arney treasurer South Fermanach Divisional Executive United Irish League, as soon as nossible.—Daniel McManus, secretary.

MONAGHAN-Rev. J. L. O'Kieran of Monaghan, delivered a learned lecture on the "Principles of the Gaelic League" at the concert held in the Assembly hall, Omagh, Tyrone, April 21, under the auspices of the local branch of the Gaelic League.

TYRONE-With great regret chronicle the death of Mr. Francis Mo Menamin, editor and proprietor of the Strabane Chronicle, which happened April 23, at Barrack street, in that town. The sad event was widely and deeply regretted. Pneumonia caused Solemn office and high mass were held in the church of the Immaculate Conception, and were very largely attended by priests and people. The funeral cortege to Melmont was the largest seen for years.