Every Section of the Emerald fale.

Connaught

GALWAY-The death of Mrs. Patrick Kearney, Lackagh, May 5, was deeply and widely mourned.

The death of Mrs. James Walsh, of Prospect Hill, Galway city, occurred April 30. Solemn Afice and high mass were held in St. Nicholas' church, May 1. The funeral to Forthill Cemetery, iollowing day was very largely *** sttended.

On April 27, in St. Patrick's church. Galway, with nuptial mass by Very Rev. P. Dooley, pastor, assisted by Rev. Rev. A. J. Nestor, Rev. M. Walsh and Rev. P. Davis, James, youngest son of the late James Redington, Prospect Hill, to Bridget M. (Bridgie) only child of James Leonard, merchant, St. Brendan's terrace, Galway

On May 1 Mrs. Williams was evicted on the estate of Colonal Bryan-Mahon of Belleville. The Rev. Father Curran made several attempts to settle the case with the agent, Mr. Wade of Ballinasloe, but without suc-Coss. Mrs. Williams held five acres of land, and had a large family. Last Christmas two public meetings were held in connection with the case, and the government attempted to suppress them.

LEITRIM-Mrs. Flynn of Shannon, View National School, died April 23. az .. aged 38 years, deeply regretted. She attended school aught by her father, Mr. M. McGovern and in 1892 was appointed assistant in the school at F Tullyclevan. Subsequently after training in Our Lady of Mercy Training College, Baggot street, Dublin, she succeeded in attaining the highest degree in her profession by qualifying 2 in first division of first class, being the only female of that session who zerscored such a remarkably high percentage in all subjects. She also obtained certificates in drawing, music, as well as others under the Science and Art Department. She was married in '89 to Mr. Hugh Flynn, Shannon-View, N. S., and was appointed assistant in his school same year. 'ne luneral took place on Saturday. was the largest and most representative seen in the locality for years. The gemains were borne from St. Brigid's Catholic church, where they had lain rafrom the previous night, and conveyed to Aghalaghy cemetery. Very Rev. J. Dolan, who officiated at the grave paid m tribute to the excellent qualities of the deceased.

MAYO-The sermon on the Passion an Good Friday, in Ennistymon church, was preached in the Irish language by Father N. Fegan, Liscannon. Father Fegan is a grandson of Mr. Daniel Kelly, of Newport, a nephew sof Mrs. F. Chambers, of that town, and excount of Father Yorke of Oaklands. Ban Francisco.

The death of Mrs. Catherine 20 Connor, Castlebar, took place on May 3, at the ripe old age of 83 years. Blie was relict of the late Mr. Patrick *O'Connor, and was a member of one of the oldest and most respected famildes of Castlebar. The funeral was Attended by all creeds and classes.

ROSCOMMON-On Tuesday last stated the Westmeath Independent, May 9, at large number of young boys and girls left Castlerea locality for the fand of the Stars and Stripes. The train left Castlerea early in the morning, carrying a hundred emigrants from the surrounding districts. The icandir was filled with cries and lamentheations of the poor exiles and their parents and other relatives.

A public meeting of the parishdoners of Castlerea was held in the the branch of the Gaelic League. The Right Rev. Mgr. Hanly was in the chair. Addresses were delivered by the Right Rev. Chairman, Rev. M. Brennan, Dr. Donnelan, Mr. John Fitzbiggon, Rev. E. McHugh and the Gaelic League organizer, Mr. O'Malley. The latter addressed the meeting in Irish and English. Resolutions were passed pledging support to the langusinge movement.

The Roscommon Herald of May 9 contained the following: "It is with sincere regret we chronicle the demise of Mrs. Carney, wife of Mr. Thomas Carney, Cloonmahane, and mothers of Rev. Thomas J. Carney, professor, Sligo College. The deceased was beloved by all who knew her. The vast concourse of priests and people who attended her obsequies gave proof of the esteem in which she was held. Solemn requiem mass was celewated at Killina church on May 1 for the repose of her soul.

SLIGO Mr. Henry Benson, of Ballsodare, died May 1 deeply re Fires to Ballyfinarie Creamery when Office for his soul in Bennekerry KINGS-Mrs. E. J. Tynan, of Wil- is included in the ancient parish of the force and cart were submerged at Church on Wednesday morning. Cele. liam street, Tuliamore, died May 6, St. Dooloogs, had been a cemetery in

Munster

CLARE-On April 28, at St. Mary's Catholic church, Merthyr, Tydsi, Wales, the marriage was celebrated between John Torbitt-Bayley, son of the late John Torbitt-Bayley (Midiand Railway traffic manager) of Manchester, and Miss Lizzie M. Curtin, daughter of Mr. C. Curtin, Miltown-Malbay, In the Church of Loretto Convent, Rathfarnham, the impressive coremony of profession and reception of a number of young ladies took place recently.

The death of Miss Maggie Dundon, was largely attended.

ered on "Patriotism," by Very Rev. Father Kavanagh, O. S. F., the prothe erection of a memorial to Edmond dangerous position of the sailors, and came unexpectedly. at great risk succeeded in bringing food, bed and other necessaries and adop the Rural Libraries Act." kept them for several days. He had received £5 from the Shipping Mariners Society for his -heroic conduct on the occasion. The matter was placed before the Danish Government, with the result that they forwarded the valuable cup, which he now asked the slightest doubt that but for his action all would have lost their lives. He then handed the cup to Collins and asked him to send it to the Cork Exthanked Capt. Stoyte and Mr. Wansborough for their kind reference to his ward the sailors as he would have action, and said that he only acted todone had any member of his family been in the same danger There was a large number of people in court, who warmly applauded Collins when the presentation was made.

Rd'S mos atpG cRts !a5 shi On May 6, at College square, College owen O'Neill, Ballines. CRONIN at Dungourney, Roger Ahern. COL- connection with the proceedings. LINS-On May 7, at Maryboro', Douglas Johanna Collins, aged 77 years. O'CALLAGHAN-On May 2, Mary Kate O'Callaghan. FITZGERALD-On May's, at 15 James' square, William Fitzgerald, aged 60.

KERRY.-William Kelleher, Michael rick Clifford. He was driving from There was Solemn Requiem Mass and St. Mary's. the great floods.

'There he soon carried out improvecreasing business as a land agent Decoming a magistrate Mr. Fitzgerala took an active part in local affairs as a dysart, took place at her father's civeen Board of Guardians. About forresidence lately. The deceased was ty years ago, too, he took an active downe to prevent the local farmers CORK-On May 5, in the Town taking seaweed off Murreigh Strang, Hall, Dungarvan, a lecture was delivinear Waterville. Some years earlier he opened a store for the sale of breagstuffs in order to keep down the exceeds of which are to be devoted to orbitant charges-30 per cent. for six months credit-local dealers. Mr. Power, hanged in Dungarvan in 1799 Fitzgerald, for many years held large for his sympathies with the men of land agencies until age and ill-health There was a very large attend- caused him to retire. He married in 1858, Mary, daughter of Nicholas P. At the Kinsale Petty Sessions on French, M., by Elizabeth, third and May 1, tribute was paid to D. Collins, youngest daughter of the Liberator. By Nohoval, for his brave conduct in res. her, who died in 1898, he had a numercuing from death three of the crew of ous family, one of whom is a Benedicard A. Graham, late of the Solicitor's the Danish schooner August, wrecked time monk and another a Sister of Department, G. P. O. DONEGAN-

TIPPERARY. -- Very . Rev. . Canon Ryan, president St. Patrick's College, nuns among its members.

Assolas, Kanturk, Ellen Cronin. Fu. erty and was himself the purchaser at street. QUINN—May 8, at 158 James conveyed for interment to Tubberneral for Donoughmore on May 7, the sheriff's sales, which took place street, Margaret Quinn. HOLLIS-COLEMAN—On May 6, William Cole- some months ago. Among other things May 1, at Mercer's Hospital, Henry man, Killeagh, aged 60. MURPHY— he purchased the interest of Mr. John Hollis, Mitchelstown, aged 27. liament street, on May 5, John Cullen. who stated that he had been instructed seat. SULLIVAN-On May 2, at 10 Welles- to proceed by Mr. Anthony Carroll, so- KILKENNY-The death of Alder 6While engaged making excavations

Leinster

Abbey was very namerously attended. Curraghmore, on March 23 last, during brant, Rev. P. Delaney, Tinryland.

Mr. Fitzgerald, of Kenneigh House, been for a long time a devotion in Kin. a great number of persons.

Cahirciveen, died lately at the age of leshin, and year by year numbers of seventy-nine. He was the selor mag- the faithful have visited a spot regardistrate for Kerry, having been appoint ed as sacred ground—one of the seats ed in February, 1850, succeeding his of learning and plety in holy Ireland. father while a minor. He, after at Certainly there is something very beau taining his majority, spent some time tiful about the outward profession of abroad with his sister, who was in bad faith made by this pilgrimage to the nealth, but settled at Kenneigh in 1847. old shrine of Killeshin, and it appeals ments and reclamations, and for sev- procession was the largest seen for eral years farmed extensively until in- fears. At 10:30 a.m., the procession started from the church, Carlow-Graiobliged him to cease farming. After sue, headed by the brass band of the Carlow Workmen's Club. Next came the members of the men's branch or justice of the peace and poorlaw the Sacred Sodality from Graigue and guardian, being for many years vice Killeshin Parishes, followed by the daughter of Mr. Thomas Dundon, Kil- chairman and chairman of the Cahir- boys and girls of the parish schools, wearingbadges and carrying banners. As the procession moved off the band respected by all. The remains were and successful part in opposing an at- played the Sacred Heart hymn. A interred in Kildysart. The funeral cempt by the then Marquis of Lans- very large number of people joined the processionists Arrived at Killeshin the band played round the church grounds and up to the front door of the church. They also performed after Mass. The music they provided added to the success of the celebration. The Rev. J. Kane, administrator, and Rev. P. Campion were zealous in seeing to the arrangements. Visitors to Killeshin were struck with the great improvements affected in the churchyard

Recent Deaths in Dublin-GRAHAM May 4. at 126 North Strand road, Richthe late Owen Donegan, of 75 Marrow-LIMERICK.—The meeting of the bone lane. INGHAM—May 4, at 6 them ashore, and he provided them Uregare branch of the U.I.L. was held Upper Mount street, Ellen Mary Ing. with food and raiment in his cottage in the League Room, Gormanstown, ham, daughter of the late George until they were handed over to the May 3, Mr P. McNamara, V P., pre- Thunder, Kingston Lodge, County care of Lloyd's local agent, Mr. R. A. siding. Present: Thos. Wallace, W. Meath. SCULLY-May 5, at 5 Richborough said he had received from the Michael Dillane, Maurice Dillane, Thos -May 5, at 29 Londonbridge road, Danish government a valuable silver J. Raleigh, James Ryan, Ballybeg; Sandymount, Maria McGrath, mother cup to be presented to Dennis Collins Thomas B. Ryan, James Garvey, D. of Rev. J. McGrath, Rockwell College, for his heroic services in saving the Ryan, honorable secretary, etc. An ar- McSWINEY-May 6, at St. Vincent's lives of the crew of this schooner, to ticle by Mr. Thomas O'Donnell, M. P. bospital, May McSwiney, 7 East James tally wrecked. The conduct of Collins was received re the starting of li- street. MURPHY-May 5 at 3 Vernon Peter Leetch and passed unanimouswas worthy of the highest praise. He braries. The secretary handed in the street, Dublin, Edward Murphy, aged brought out on his back three of the following notice of motion: "I will 21 years, late student of Technical crew. They were naked, and he move at the meetin to be held this day school, and formerly of Kyleballyhue, brought them home and gave them his fortnight a resolution calling on the Carlow. WARD—May 5, at 77 Upper own clothes and provided them with Kilmallock Rural District Council to George's street, Kingston, James Ward ex-sergeant R. I. C. aged 63 years. KENNEDY-May 5, at 1 Upper Stephen street, Patrick Kennedy. Thuries, was among the recent visit. Castleknock, aged 71 years. RUS-MANLEY-May 4, at Lauler Lodge, SELL-May 2, Joseph Russell, aged Miss . Eilen . O'Calaghan, Turnpike, 42, National Education office. GEO-Nenagh, died May 5. The remains GHEGAN—May 2, John Geoghan, 5 chairman to present to Collins. The of the Rosary on Thursday mornins, County Mead, aged 48 years. CARwere taken to the Church of St. Mary Little Britain street, late Kinnegad, bride on his liberation from prison, where Solemn Requiem High Mass ROLL—May 8, at Our Lady's Hospice ed him great pleasure, and he was was offered. Very Rev. Dean presided for the Dying, Haroldscross, Mary proud of the opportunity of doing so.

On May 3 passed away in Mount St. Carroll, 16 Upper Gloucester street. Joseph Abbey, Roscrea, one of the CHANAHAN-At St. Margaret's, 124 and heroic, and there was not the foundersof the Abbey, who twenty-five Leinster road, Bathmines, Dublin, years ago came from Mount Melleray Margaret Shanahan of Ocean View. to establish a house at Roscrea. The Doonbeg, County Clare, aged 62 years. deceased Brother, Thomas, had been CLARKE-May 6, at 2 St. Mary's terhibition, as he was sure a great many forty-eight years in religion, and durrace, lelandbridge, James Clarke. people would like to see it. Collins ing all that time he served the Lord LAUNDERS—May 6, at 61 Gloucester witht fidelity in the various offices of street. Edward Launders, late of his Order, in the humble capacity of Thurles, County Tipperary. Mc-Lay Brother. He belonged to a re- GOURAN—May 2, at 1 Merrion place, United States, arrived in Athlone, on spectable County Limerick family Sousanna McGouran DIXON—May 2, his way to his native parish of Tubberwhich counts a host of priests and at 30 Albert road, Kingstown, George WATERFORR.—Mr. Andrew O'Nelli May 5, at 50 Heytesbury street, Dub-Dixon, aged 74 years. MOYLAN-Barronstrand streett, Watrford, died lin, James Moylan, late of Jenkins-May 5. The remains were removed to town Park, Kilkenny. KELLY—May the Cathedral and after High Mass, on 7, at the Meath Hospital, Mary Kelly, Recent Deaths in Cork.—HICKEY.— Thursday, the interment took flace in 4b Bribe street, daughter of James. St. Mary's Ballygunner. The funeral Mason, Roundwood, County Wicklow. cortege was a large and respectable DEASY-May 3, at 17 Woodfield ter-Cronin, son of the late Daniel Cronin, with the Tallow conspiracy case took Park, Killarney. KIELY—On May 2, place at Tallow on April 21 The plain Naul, Mrs. Tolan, aged 73 years. manner on May 6, after receiving the at 3 Rope Walk, William Kiely. COS. tiff, Mr. David O'Keefe, in accordance TREACY—May 8, at Brunswick Hos- last rites of the Catholic church. The TIGAN—April 15, at May street, Chic. with the judgment obtained against pital, John Treacy, son of the late friends of the deceased were com-

73, Thomas John Manahan, formerly of eight hours' notice to the relieving hands of Mr John Redmond, chairman a single criminal case to be tried. in 50 years in religion. KENEALY- by a large force of police, took posses Minch came forward at the request of New Ross, died May 4, deeply re-On May 6, at Mashanaglass, Janie (a sion of the house. At the time Mr. the Nationalists of South Kildare and greted. The funeral took place on child of Mary), aged 16 years, daugh- O'Brien was absent and was unaware has since given support to the United Wednesday, when a large cortege fol-Market House on May 2 for the pure ter of Edmond and Joanna Kenealy, of what was being done. When he Irish Party. It is a matter of regret lowed the remains to Rathimney cemepose of placing on a permanent basis DUNN-On May 6, at 3 West Beach, learned of the proceedings he refused that he can not continue to represent tery. Office and high mass were cele-Queenstown, Maria Dunn, widow of the to give us possession, and his furniture the division. Mr. D. Kilbride, ex. M. brated in the parish church, New Evoy, the bishop delivered an eloqulate Phillip Dunn. CULLEN£at 7 par- was thrown on the street. The bailiff, P., will be requested to accept the Ross, the Very Rev. Canon Kavanagh, ent sermon on "Faith." in which he deeply and widely regretted. The those far-off days. The Feast .of .the Holy Cross has funeral to Clonminch was attended by LONGFORD-Miss Ellen Sullivan, daughter of Owen Sullivan, died in Granard, May 8, deeply mourned. The funeral to Granard Kill cometery, was very numerously attended.

LOUTH-The Mayor of Dropheda. Alderman McGuinnes, presided at a meeting of the city branch of the to the hearts of the people. This year's United Irish League, held in the Mayoralty House, May 5. Among those present, were: C. Tighe, Michael A. Casey, P. J. Callan, W. T. Skefing. ton, O. Fox, P. McQuail, T. Day, P. O'Neill, J. Ward.

MEATH-Mr. Edward Higgins, of Athboy, died April 29, deeply regretted. He has held the office of relieving officer in Trim Union during the long period of 30 years.

QUEEN'S-On May 2 the people of Maryborough learned with regret that Mr. John Kelly had passed away. But a few days ago he was well, but a bad attack of appendicitis cut short his career, notwithstanding all that medical skill could do. Drs. David B. Jacob and William Jacob were in constant attendance, and were assisted by leading Dublin specialist. His end was peaceful, and he was fully resigned. Fortified by the rites of the holy church, of which he was a faithful member, he was comforted. For many years Mr. Kelly occupied a prominent place in Maryborough. He was treasurer og the St. Vincent de Paul society, and here his services will be near Nohoval, in January last. Collins Mercy. Mr. Fitzgerald had been in baq May 5, at 125 Cork street, Michael remains were removed to the parish was the only person to discover the health for some years, but his end Donegan, aged 55 years, eldest son of church where office for the dead and requiem high mass were sung. The Right. Rev. Monsignor Murphy presided in the choir; Rev. P. Gorry, Carlow, was the celebrant of the mass.

WESTMEATH-At a special meeting of the Westmeath County Council Williams, District Inspector Wans O'Brien, Denis Ryan, Michael Browne, mond place, Kate Soully. McGRATH held in Mullingar, May 2, Mr. R. J. Downes, vice chairman, presiding, and there being a large attendance, including Lord Castlemaine, H. M. L., the following resolution was proposed by Mr. John Casey, seconded by Mr.

> ly: "That we heartily congratulate Mr. Denis Kilbride on his liberation from prison, and that a copy of this resolution be forwarded to him." An adjourned quarterly meeting of the Mullingar Rural District Council was also held May 2; Mr. Owen Wickham, J. P., presiding. Mr. Michael Ronan. vice chairman, proposed, before the business meeting was entered on, "That we, the District Council of Muilingar, at this our quarterly meeting and that we thank him for his serin a position to show our appreciation of his worth." Mr. James Mullally seconded the resolution. The chairman: "I am happy to receive it. There is not one could object to it-not one in the whole was unanimously adopted. A few weeks ago Thomas Keegan, a clair, where he resided until he went to America, thirty-nine years ago. He was aged 60 years and in delicate health-indeed, so reduced from illness that he was obliged to suspend his homeward journey and take rooms in Mrs. Haire's hotel. Here he was attended by Dr. MacCormack, who clair.

WEXFORD—The judge who attend-On May 5, Timothy Murphy, of Boher- O'Brien in his residence. Main street, KILDARE-Mr. M. J. Minch, at the quarter sessions for the Southard, Carragnaver. t MANAHAN-A Tallow. Since then Mr. O'Brien was in Nationalist member of Parliament for ern Division of County Wexford was the Cisctercian Abbey, Mount St. Jos- possession of the house. But without South Kildare Division, it is reported, presented with white gloves by the with regret. eph, North Tipperary, on May 5, aged previous warning, except the forty- has placed his resignation in the sheriff of the county, there not being inent part and graphically described Ballyland ers, Countyt Limerick. Dui- officer, a baliff named Nash, assisted of the Irish party. Ten years ago Mr. | Mr. Patrick Roche, Larkin's Mills,

D. D. presiding.

ley terrace, Southern road, John F. Sul- licitor for the plaintiff, refused to at man Edward Nowlan, of Parliament for water pipes under the flooring of livan, late of H. M. Custom. O'BIEN— low the furniture to be removed, which street, Kilkenny, happened May 2, to Mr. Morris' public house in Lower On May 2, at his residence, Colleens, at the time of the seizure was pur. the deep regret of all who knew him. King street, Wexford, lately, the work-Charleville, Maurice M. O'Brien. COLE chased by Mr. O'Brien's sister-in-law. He was only 39 years of age. The ingmen dug out two human skulls and MAN—May 2, at 16 Roman street, After taking possession of Mr. remains were interred on Monday in some bones from under the shop floor Catherinel Coeman. HERRICK-On O'Brien's house, the bailiffs executed a St. John's cemetery. The funeral was at a depth of three feet from the sur-May 3, at Upper Glasheen, Catherine decree for possession of the lands of a most striking proof of how deeply face. One of the skulls appeared to Herrick. HILL-On May 2, North Mr. P. F. Walsh, about twelve acres, the event touched the hearts of the be that of a man, but the decayed street, Skibbereen, Margaret Mary Hill and also the lands of Mr. John Mc. people and called forth their tender- condition of the remains rendered aged 18 years. AHERNE—On May 8, Grath. There were no disturbances in est feelings of sorrow and sympathy. exactness impossible. The police did The cortege was of immense propor not interfere. The great length of tions and the multitude that accomitime which elapsed since the remains panied the remains from the Cathedral were consigned to their strange grave the presidency of Mr. R. J. McCurdy, to St. John's must have numbered stops all attempts to unravel the ciation. There were thirty teachers several thousand persons. The re- mystery. The gruesome relics had present. CARLOW.—The death of Mr. Pat. mains were borne on the shoulders of been the objects of much curiosity rick Nolan, Bennekerry, occurred May the corporation employe to the hearse when the nature of the find was made 4, and was deeply regretted. He was and conveyed to St. Mary's Cathedral, known, but the workingmen had a Foley, Thomas Gloster and Daniel a promising young Irishman and was where the requiem office and high small box procured, in which the re-Deady were presented with testimo- in constant attendanceat the classes of mass were celebrated in presence of a mains were inclosed and reverently nials recently in Killarney for rescuing the Gazette League in Carlow, despite large number of mourners. The cele-, laid to rest in the same spot in which from certain death by drowning Pat- the fact that he had to walk into town. brant was Rev. William Cassin, adm., they had lain so long. Tradition has been appointed principal of Rathdress school.

> WICKLOW-Mr. Kelly, National school teacher. Loughlinstown, has

Ulster

ANTRIM-The feast of St. Paul of the Cross was celebrated at Holy Cross, Ardoyne, on May 3 with solemnity. Solemn high mass was celebrated the celebrant being Very Rev. Father-Basil, C. P.; deacon, Father Justin, C. P.; sub-deacon, Rev. Father Eugené C. P.; master of ceremonies, Very Rev. Father Pacificus, C. P. A panegyric of the saint was preached by Rev. Father Nichols, C. P. U. S. A.

A very exciting scene took place it Magheraboy, a short distance from Risharkin, on May 4. Sergeant Long of Rasharkin, with a number of his men and constables from Ballymoney police station were on special duty. dressed in plain clothes, when they came on one hundred people having a cock fight. The crowd recognized the police, and the latter were attacked. A most exciting scene ensued, and members of the constabulary were attacked three times. At length matters grew so serious that they drew their revolvers and fired, and people decamped, but not till Constables Ferguson, Crowley and Park had sustained injuries. The police succeeded in seizing three game cocks and in taking the names of several of those in the crowd.

The first meeting of the Glens of Antrim Coisde Ceanntair was held at Garron Tower on April 28. The object of the meeting was to make arrangements for the appointment of an Irish traveling teacher. The following extracts from a letter sent by Miss Mc-Neill, Cushendun House, will give an idea of the public spirit which pervades all ranks and classes in the Glens: "I am very much disappointed at note being able to attend the meeting at Garron Tower. Please make it clear how very much I sympathize with the endeavors of the Gaelic League to revive Irish in these Glens, and how gladly I will help on this noble work. I shall have much pleasure in placing £10 at the disposal of the committee toward defraying the expenses of the traveling teacher, and hope that others will do likewise. I will gladly serve on your committee when it be formed Slainte na. h-Eireann, and that happier and better days may dawn for her is the fervent prayer of yours sincerely, Ida ARM AGH-Cardinal Logue rranged to dedicate the new church of St. Patrick, Cullyhanna, on Sunday, September 27. The sermon will be preached by the Very Rev. T. A. Finlay, S. J., Dublin. CAVAN-The death of Mrs. Eller. Sheridan, Cordowna, happened March 18, and the sad event was deeply and widely regretted The deceased lady was sister of the Most Rev. Dr. Gibney bishop of Perth, Western Australia, and of the Very Rev. Patrick Gibney, vices to the people of the county; and of same diocese. She was reared in a we trust that in the near future we cradle of religion and nationality, and dier full of years and honors, beloved by all who knew her.

DERRY-The Tir Na N-oq branch of the Gaelic League in Derry has just lost one of its best members in the departure of Miss M. McCucker from the city, to take up business in Northampton. Miss McCuker was regular County Westmeath." The resolution in attendance at the classes, and by her amiable disposition won the esteem of all, who were very sorry for her leaving. On the evening of May 1, at the conclusion of business, the president, on behalf of the committee gave her a presentation as a souvenir. DONEGAL-Mr. Edward Pinkerton of Main street. Dongela, passed away at the patriarchal age of over 100 years, May 1. He was in possession of all his faculties until his death. In fact, he was able to pay a visit to some of his near neighbors the day preceding his demise. He was a sterling Nationalist. He was remarkably fond of outdoor sports and took great de-Owen O'Neill, Ballinea. CRONIN—

On May 4, at 6Belgrave place, Dominic Cronin, son of the late Daniel Cronin, son of the late found that he was in an advanced light in telling how, during his youth. ward for them, and in a pinch how he undertook to spur and hand a pair, and then when the sports were proago, Hannah Costigan. CRONnN-At the defendants, sold out all the prop W. Treacy, and late of 30 Lower Liffey municated with, and the remains were of himself and comrades from the grasp of the police. He liked to converse freely upon the memorable battle between Orangemen and Catholics in 1829 at Thrush Bank, near Donegal, in which he played a promhis recollections of the event. Everybody at home and abroad who made his acquaintance will read of his death

DOWN-On May 3, Most Rev. Dr. Henry, bishop of Down and Connor, in St. Patrick's Memorial church, Downpatrick, administered the sacrament of confirmation to 150 children belonging to the parish of down, which includes Ballykilbeg There was a very large congregation. After the last referred to the religious education imparted in the schools of the Convent of Mercy and the Christian Brothers. Downpatrick, as being unsurpassed in Ireland. A total abstinence pledge was given until the recipients will have reached the age of 21 years. Among the clergy present were: Very Rev. P. O'Kane, the venerable and esteemed pastor of the parish; Rev. E. A. Keer and Rev. D. McEvoy. The choir was under the direction of the Sisters of Mercy. FERMAGHAN-On May 1, a general meeting of the National Teachers of County Monaghan was held in the Temperance Hotel, Monaghan, under

The Land Commissioners sat in Carrickmacross Courthouse May 7 and heard cases from the shirley estate. The list, which embraces about onequarter of the estate is a heavy one, numbering 319 cases. The number heard was 127 and over 100 decisions have been given, not up to the expectation of the tenants. Several appeals have been lodged on behalf of tenants. In four cases the rents have been increased. Mr. Bailie, solicitor, Castlelayney, appeared for the landlord and Messis. Murphy and Rafferty, folicitors, for the tenants.