This is the largest number of Catholics that graduated from the Normal at any previous year.

LIMA

Miss Mamie A. Kelley of this place, formerly of Rochester, was married to Mr. Lawrence A. Pfantzer of Danville, Thursday morning June 11th, at 9:30 a.m., by the Rev. Father Fitzsimons. Miss Margaret Kelley, sister of the bride, was bridesmaid and Martin P. J. Grogan was groomsmen. After the nuptial mass a reception was held at the home of the bride, after which they left for Danville, wherethey will reside. The bride received many beautiful presents and her many friends here and in Rochester wish her a long a happy life in her new home.

BATH

Mass next Sunday will begin at 9:15 o'clock sharp.

Last Sunday, June 21st, was the 21st anniversary of the ordination to the priesthood of the Rev. James J. Griffin, pastor of St. Mary's church in this village. For the past eight years Father Griffin has been the pastor of St. Mary's church here, succeeding the late Rev. J. J. Gleason. It is the wish of all that Father Griffin will be spared to celebrate many more anniversaries of this character. He received the congratulations of his many friends upon the rounding out of 21 years of his life of devotion and sacrifice in the service of our Lord Jesus Christ, the invisible High Priest.

A class of 25 members of St. Mary's Sunday school will receive their first holy communion on Sunday next, June 28, at the 9:15 o'clock mass. These children will receive the Sacrament of confirmation this summer. Last Sunday ten children received their first holy communion at St. Joseph's church, in Campbell, Father Griffin officiating.

Arrangements for the field day of the A.O.H. of Steuben County, at Glenwood Park, near Hornellsville, on Thursday July 9th, are entirely completed, and present indications are that a tremendous crowd will be in attendance at this gathering. The fare for round trip from Bath is $1.25. A special train leaves here at 8:15 on the morning of the day of the excursion. The committee has engaged the famous Hornell band to furnish music for the dancing, and the band will also give a concert.

CANANDAIGUA

Daniel Saxton died Sunday afternoon at his home on Fester St., leaving a wife and six children to miss his kind-care and affection.

Charles C. Hayes and Miss Anna McCarthy, two popular young people, were married Wednesday in the presence of a large congregation. Mr. Hayes has recently been received into the church and gives promise of being a staunch and intelligent Catholic. Miss McCarthy has for some time held the office of secretary in the local C. C. B. A. branch and is very highly regarded by her sisters in the order.

The mason work on the basement of the new church has been awarded to F. T. Monahan and the contract for the stone is to a Medina man. It is hoped that the work will be far enough advanced to lay the corner stone this fall.

The boys' society made a goodly number of Holy Communion last Sunday.

Next Sunday the Sodality, and also the school collection. Through some mistake the June envelopes were dated for last Sunday, but next Sunday is the fourth Sunday of the month.

A portion of the rules in use at Holy Sepulchre cemetery, Rochester, was read last Sunday for the direction of lot owners in the new Cavalry cemetery here.

At a meeting held Sunday afternoon a committee was appointed to see the young men of the parish represented in the subscription thus far. All are expected to co-operate.

Masses this week for Mrs. Bridget Pentoney, Mrs. John Kelly, Mrs. Mary Egan and Patrick Brennan.

The nativity of St. John the Baptist will be celebrated on Wednesday.

The closing exercises of St. Mary's school will be held Friday evening. A drama entitled "Dolorosa" or "Through the Fire of Sorrow," will be presented by the pupils of the school, with a May pole dance by the little ones, and other attractions.

The winner this week is: Ray Schultz, 80 Champlain St., city.

Key to last week's puzzles:

No. 1—Lady is between the two Weellitles, her face at girl's cheek, back of her head at boy's collar. Hold picture upright.

No. 2—Turn left side of picture down. Newbooy is among buildings on a line with Master Weellittle's shoulder and below base of farther tower of bridge.

No. 3—Head of lady guide is formed by hat of Miss Weellittle. Hold picture in upright position.

No. 4—Invert picture. Head of man is in sleeve of Miss Weellittle, his body formed by bow at her throat.

Beware of Ointments for Catarrhs That Contains Mercury.

As mercury will surely destroy the sense of smell and completely derange the whole system when entering it through the mucous surfaces. Such articles should never be used except on prescriptions from reputable physicians as the damage they do is ten fold to the good you can possibly derive from them. Hall's Catarrh Cure, manufactured by F. J. Cheney & Co., Toledo, O., contains no mercury, and is taken internally acting directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system. In buying Hall's Catarrh Cure be sure you get the genuine. It is taken internally and made by F. J. Cheney & Co., Testimonials free.

Doubtful About the Future. The boy was all right, notwithstanding his girly curls and a fond mother who was deathly afraid he was going to become coarse and vulgar and in other respects masculine.

One day a gentleman calling at the house engaged him in conversation.

"Well, my boy," he said after some time, "what are you going to be when you grow up?"

The boy studied the question a moment.

"Really," he replied at last, "I don't know. I suppose I ought to be a man, but from the way mamma is handling me I'm almost afraid I'm going to be a lady."

Prayer for America.

Prayer for the conversion of America, recommended by the plenary council of Baltimore.

"O almighty and eternal God, who savest all and wilt not that any should perish, look we beseech thee, upon the souls that are led astray by the deccits of the devil; that, rejecting all errors, the hearts of those who err may be converted and thus return to the unity of thy truth through Christ our Lord. Amen."

Public Penances.

The inhabitants of the Italian town of Eboli, on the gulf of Salerno, were lately induced to do public penance for their sins. On the 17th of February a procession of several thousand marched to the place of St. Catharina, where the priests burned a big pile of obscene books, after which all the men who had daggers or revolvers gave them up and allowed them to be destroyed by locksmiths.
