AVON

The pedestal for the statue of St. Anthony has been placed in the church also one for a statue of the Sacred Heart which is to be purchased in the near future.

Saturday occurred the death of Mrs. Julia Geahan, formerly of Lima, at the home of her sister, Mrs. James Laverty. The remains were taken to Lima, Monday for interment.

Miss Margaret Hogan of Lima, who has been visiting in town returned home Monday.

Miss Kathryn Malone, who has been visiting friends in town, has returned to her home in Orange, N. J.

Mr. and Mrs. James Brennan are re-joining over the arrival of a young son. A very enjoyable musical was given in the parochial hall last week by the pupils of Sister M. DeSalles. The manner in which each child rendered her selection reflects much hard work and training on the part of their teacher.

Misses Anna Landers, Mary McCoy, Edith FitzPatrick and Mr. James Tighe are among the graduates of the Avon High School. Miss Margaret Brennan was the lucky contestant for the ten dollar gold piece in the high school speaking contest, she having won first prize. Miss Mary Moran won first prize for being the best Latin school in the high school.

Prof. W. J. Connor of Trenton, N. J. is at his home on lower Geneva St. for his summer vacation.

Miss Gegan of Rochester was guest at the convent over Sunday.

AUBURN

The first graduating exercises at St. Aloysius school were held in the parish hall, Wednesday evening, June 24th, the feast day of the pastor, Rev. John J. McGrath. The stage was artistically decorated with palms, ferns, daisies and hand painted scenery. The hall was completely filled with parents and friends of the pupils. The program opened with a vocal solo which was well rendered by Miss Ada Brewster. Then followed a bell drill by twelve little girls and an opera in four scenes entitled "Cherubella in Flowerland." Between the scenes Miss Mary Kinoshia played a piano solo and the boys gave a dialogue entitled "The Rich Man" and fifteen girls dressed in white gave a pantomime "Nearer My God to Thee."

Lawrence Pare, who won the pastor's gold medal for scholarship, made an address in which he paid a glowing tribute to Father McGrath, who has labored so zealously for the best interests of church and school. The diplomas were distributed to the following graduates: Lawrence Pare, Henry Guertins, Francis Cullen, John Condon, Alice Mo Cormick, Sara McDonald. Gold medals were drawn as follows: Pastor's gold medal for highest standing won by Lawrence Pare; Martin gold medal for department, Veronica Dolan; White gold medal for highest standing in fifth and sixth grades, Juliette Barrett; Stafford gold medal for Christian doctrine, Edward Danahy; Schilling gold medal for application, William Quigley.

At the close of the exercises Rev. E. J. Hanna, D. D., of St. Bernard's Seminary, made an address explaining the advantages of Catholic schools for Catholic children. He congratulated the parents and friends of the church by whose co-operation, good will and self sacrifice this great work has been made possible. He also congratulated the pastor who has been the sole inspiration in this work since the beginning and to whom more than anyone else we owe this grand success.

Father McGrath addressed the people saying that his work was an easy one owing to the hearty support which he had at all times received and he thanked them for the assistance they had given him in the work.

Miss Mary Baier, Miss Florence Fletcher, Mr. Charles Drexel and Mr. Henry Zimmer of Rochester, are visiting Miss Theresa Murphy of Fulton St. They will return to Rochester next week.

LIMA

On Wednesday, the twenty-fourth of June, at 10:30 o'clock, at St. Rose's church, occurred the marriage of Mary Collins of this place and Jeremiah M. Brennan of South Lima. The bride was prettily attired in white and carried the most beautiful bouquet ever seen in this town. She was attended by Miss May Gurry of Rochester, and Mark Lockington of this place, acted as best man. The ushers were William Collins, brother of the bride, and Joseph Guinan. A reception was held from 12 to 3 o'clock at the home of the bride, after which the happy couple took their departure for a trip to the Thousand Islands. Mr. and Mrs. Brennan will reside in South Lima where Mr. Brennan is engaged in business. They have the best wishes of a host of friends.

The Young Ladies Sodality of St. Rose's church is making preparations for an ice cream social to be held Friday evening, July 10th.

Thomas Walsh of the Paulist House of Studies, Washington, recently spent a few days with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Walsh.

John Keating, who has just completed a law course in the law department of Georgetown University, is home for the summer months.

The remains of Mrs. Julia Geahan, who died in Avon at the home of her sister, Mrs. Laverty, were brought here Monday for interment in St. Rose's cemetery.

June 17th, marked the 50th anniversary of John Slattery's coming to this town, where he has since lived. On June 17th, 1853, Mr. Slattery walked with his father from Rochester to Lima and destined to make the anniversary memorable by the train for Rochester June 18th and the day following walked back to Lima over the self same route he had traversed fifty years before.

On Friday, June 19th, the district school closed after a most successful year under the supervision of the Sisters. Seventy-five reports papers were

The Reverend Father O'Connor who has been in New York receiving treatment, returned home Saturday.

Miss Celia H. Raymond won the first prize at Myrdere Academy Tuesday evening in prize speaking contest. Miss Raymond is a graduate from St. Patrick's school of the class of 1901.

Peter Creilly has returned home for the summer vacation from Rochester where he attends school.

At 2:30 o'clock Wednesday in St. Patrick's church occurred the marriage of Miss Theresa M. McDonald and William H. Mackin. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Father Dwyer. Miss Agnes J. McDonald acted as bridesmaid and Frank J. Mackin as best man. The bride was attired in white French lawn trimmed with lace medallions and carried a bouquet of roses. Miss Mary Crause presided at the organ and played Lohengrin wedding march. The ushers were Frank Farrell, George H. Mackin, James F. Sullivan, Frank J. Duran, Thomas McTrain and William R. Calhoun. Mr. and Mrs. Mackin will make their future home in this place.

The many Catholic and non-Catholic friends of Rev. Thomas Hendrick of Rochester, rejoice at his new appointment as bishop of Cebu. Father Hendrick's well known in this place having visited it many times, making many friends.

Four Catholic girls graduated from the high school this year. All are former graduates from St. Patrick's school.

It is with regret that we chronicle the death of George O'Hare, aged 11 years. He was the only son of John O'Hare, who has the sympathy of a large circle of friends. George was a bright and intelligent boy.

The marriage of Miss Mary Laughlin of this place, and Samuel Corbin of Waterloo, was solemnized in St. Patrick's church Wednesday afternoon. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Father Dwyer in the presence of a large circle of friends.

Mr. James Rogers died Saturday morning at his home in Bridge Street, aged 77 years. He is survived by his wife, one son and a sister. The funeral which was held Monday at 9 a. m. from St. Patrick's church, was largely attended. A requiem mass was celebrated by Rev. Father Dwyer.

The village board of health has taken in hand the matter of the construction of a sewer in Bayard street. There are now a few cases of diphtheria. The cause of the diphtheria was directly traced to the lack of sewers. It is about time that something was done by the village.
