$24 East Main Street, Rochester, N. Y

BY THE CATHOLIC JOURNAL PULBISHING

COMPANY

II paper is not received Saturday notify the Exeport without delay any change of address giving both old and new.

Communications solicited from all Catholics accompanied in every instance by the name of the author. Name of contributor withheld in

Fay no money to agents unless they have credentials signed by us up to date.

Rematiances may be made at our own risk, elitable by draft, express money order, post office money order or registered letter, addressed E. Ryan, Business Manager. Money sent in any other way is at the risk of the person sending it Discontinuances.—THE JOURNAL will be sent to every subscriber until ordered stopped and all arrearages are paid up. The only legal method of stopping a paper is by paying up all

SUBSCRIPTION RATES

Por Year, In advance..... Entered as second class mail matter.

ROCHESTER TELEPHONE 2858. R. J. Ryan, Residence Phone, Bell 1658 Main Y

SATURDAY, AUGUST 1, 1908.

Weekly Church Calendar.

Sunday August 2-Gospel.St. Luke mix 41-47-St Alphonsus Liguori, bishop. confessor and doctor. Monday 3-Finding of St. Stephen'

Tuesday 4-St. Dominic, confessor. Wednesday 5-Our Lady of the Snows. Thursday 6-Transfiguration of Our Friday 7-St. Cajetan. confessor. Saturday 8-St. Cyriacus and Comp., martyrs.

Forty Hours Devotion, The Forty Hours Devotion will be held in the following churches next

August 2-Macedon; McLean.

Five Minute Sermon

Jesus Weeps Over Jerusalem.

Tears are generally considered as a sign of weakness, but sometimes they are certainly a token of great bestowed on her. He thought of the anger of God which she had provoked, and of the afflictions that would ther by legitimate inheritance or by Then he turned to Germany, the seat one day befall her on account of her labor of mind or body or by economy." of Protestantism on the continent, and orimes, and, moved by His tender ened sinner who does not profit by chars reigns in his heart; he wishes to delity is the great stimulant of anarchy be in peace with God, but he also and discontent wants to sin. He would like to enjoy other notable encyclical, in which he into the triple alliance meace of heart, but he also wants to pleaded earnestly for unity among gratify his passions. He fails in good Christians, his words being specially works, is deprived of spiritual help, addressed to Protestants and Greek and carried away by corruption; he Catholics. In it, too, he clearly defined cares no longer for friends, parents, the lines which in his judgment should family, or for himself. The thought separate the respective spheres of the of the punishment due his iniquities church and state.

Last Noted Encyclicat.

Great February Celebration.

late Pope's election to the chair of St. esty and justice." Hall of Beatification, above the portico points of which are: of St. Peter's, on which occasion the from various sources.

The March Celebration.

Pope surpassed in length that of St. Peter, Leo XIII. having then been elected Pope twenty-five years, two months and seven days, known as "the

Visited by Sovereigns.

Pontiff early in May.

sparkling with wit and full of philosopplical reflections and drew enthautastic comments from the greatest lit erary critics of the world.

WEDDINGS.

coasonable prices at the Catholic kind of government."—New York Tele-Journal office, 324; Main St. E. Kram.

POPE LEO'S MESSAGES

HIS ENCYCLICALS A MONUMENT TO HIS SUPREME WISDOM.

Some of the Able Documents Born of His Genius-His Famous Papers on Socialism, Freemasonry and the Abuse of Liberty.

One of the enduring monuments to the clear sighted wisdom of Pope Leo XIII. is his series of encyclicals on almost every subject of national, social, domestic and individual ethics, treated in an exhaustive though simple and luminous manner. They bear the stamp of his own individuality and that attractive literary grace that is revealed in his poetical compositions.

His first encyclical, issued two months after his election, was eagerly awaited, but it was a conservative document, teaching the laws that insure the prosperity of nations. This was followed by another denouncing rationalism as the source of socialism, communism and nihilism. So year after year his letters and addresses were documents filled with instruction to his ending of the nineteenth century.

speak of those sects of men who, under throughout the civilized world. different and almost barbarous names, But a greater stroke was to follow.

render common all that is acquired, el. gian minister accredited to his court charity, He shed tears over her un- dressed to all the rulers in Christendom ful men then living. Here he was opan unusually important encyclical, in Posed by every conceivable intrigue at Jerusalem was a figure of the hard- which the labor question occupied a home and abroad. The Italian governvery prominent part. His holiness had ment desired nothing so much as a the grace of God, by remorse of con- pontificate it would be his privilege to the Vatican and Berlin. Prince Bisscience, by the counsels of his friends, bring about a better understanding be marck swore he'd never "go to Canosor by the exhortations of the minis- tween capitalists and workingmen, and sa." the German press ridiculed the ters of the Church. In remaining in this encyclical he pointed out those suggestion that any concession to the obstinate and in resisting the call of steps which, in his opinion, might well Roman pontiff was possible, but the divine mercy the sinner exposes him- be taken with the object of attaining day soon came when Leo XIII. was self to the danger of being finally such a desirable result. In a word, the asked to assume the responsible office abandoned by God. When an obstinate sinner is abandoned by God, of their workingmen and should not Catholic islands. And so well did his bad habits, the occasions of sin, and leave to unscrupulous agitators the holiness conduct his part that the mathuman respect so control him that monopoly of social reform. He also ter was settled to the entire satisfache is almost forced to commit sin, and claimed that Christianity is the sole tion of the German and Spanish govas unable to amend his life. A perfect bulwark of social order and that infl. ernments in 1886

In the following year he issued an-

Masonry he denounced as a grave causes him to dispair. He dies, and peril, claiming that "under cover of from temporal he passes to eternal protecting the rights of man and reforming society it assails Christian institutions." And he continues:

"It repudiates all revealed doctrines and religious duties. Sacraments it The last notable encyclical of Leo blames as superstitious. Marriage, the XIII. was dated October 30, 1902, and idea of family, the education of youth, was designed to promote study of the strives to deprive of their Christian scriptures, and in February of this character, aiming also at the destrucyear he wrote a poem, dedicated to a tion of the popular respect for divine friend whom the Pontiff desired to advise on the best means of prolonging and human power. The cult it orders is the cult of nature. And it holds up the principles of nature as the one The twenty-fifth anniversary of the measure and the one rule of truth, hon-

Peter was celebrated February 20 of In July, 1888, he issued his famous this year with elaborate pomp in the encyclical on "Liberty." the chief

"Liberty is liable to abuse. Modern a gold tiara, costing $25,000, as the belongs to men as rational beings. It World, and with large sums of money, is derived from the soul. It is therefore dependent upon the intellect. True liberty therefore follows the dictates of The celebration of the twenty-fifth the intellect. Liberty needs to be helped anniversary of the late Pope's corona by a law. This law is an eternal law. tion occurred in St. Peter's March The individual law applied to society humble devotee at the doors of his ca-3 last, with all the impressiveness and becomes human law. Liberty is there-thedral in his pontifical robes, an act of grandeur of the Catholic church, and fore restrained by obedience—(a) in the on April 28 the Pontificate of the late individual, to the natural law; (b) in society, to the human law.

"Liberalism bears evil fruits. God allows evil for greater good. Rulers should keep this example before them. But liberalism allows no tolerance. King Edward visited the late Pope Man should submit to God, which libin the latter part of April, and Em. eralism does not allow. One form of peror William was received by the late liberalism wishes to separate the church from the state and allow the Among his numerous poems, one of church to work thus separated. Anlate years, in regard to rules of life to other form denies any power to the be observed in order to attain longevity church further than that of exhortawas, in spite of the writers great age, tion. Some wish the church to go with the times. All these opinions are false and should be substituted by the true doctrine previously laid down. The church desires her sons, except under certain conditions, to take part in pub-Invitations for Aug. weddings can lie affairs where possible. Saving be formished in the latest styles at faith and morals, she approves every

HIS MARVELOUS INFLUENCE OVER THE WORLD AND THE CHURCH.

The Power of the Vaticaz Under His Tactful Reign and the Conditions That Existed When He Assumed the Triple (rown.

The influence of Pope Leo XIII, over the world and the church is best described perhaps by the word phenomenal. The great pontiff ascended a throne without any recognized temporal authority. This was especially true in Italy. The Vatican and the Quirinal not only were at enmity, but the church property had been sequestered and the states of the church had been absorbed into the kingdom of Italy. It was an underliable fact that even strong Catholic countries like Spain were rapidly drifting away from Vatican influences. The eight years that had followed the creation of united Italy by Garibaldi, Mazzini and Victor Emmanuel had made the Italian people drunk with liberty.

The new pope was a very different Other notable documents were those man from Pius IX. He retained all his on "Christian Marriage," "The Nature dislike for the monarchy that had deof Civil Power," the famous "Huma-Istroyed the temporal power of his prednum Genus," against Freemasonry, on ecessor, but he made his influence felt slavery, divorce, denying the validity in European affairs. Nothing has ever of Anglican orders, "Christian Democ-comanated from the Vatican more firm racy and the Eucharist," the bull on and dignified than his protest against the church in the Philippine Islands, the official celebration of the centenary the constitution of the commission for of Voltaire in the halls of the Collegio Biblical studies, the instruction to the Romano, wherein the students had French bishops on their political relations apotheosized one of Christianity's worst tions to the government of France and enemies. With consummate art the that on "Christ the Redeemer." at the letter was not addressed to members of the church of Rome alone, but to all In his encyclical against socialism. Christians. This pronouncement at January, 1879, the pope said: "We now once gave the new pontiff a standing are called socialists, communists or Leo XIII, found France, Belgium and nihilists, and who, scattered through Germany cut off from all diplomatic the whole world and closely bound to relations with the Vatican. It required gether by an unholy alliance, no longer nothing short of genius to undo the efshelter themselves in the darkness of fects of the policy of his predecessor. secret cabais, but boldly advance in Cardinals and prelates of the old school full daylight and labor to achieve their surrounded him. Many of them were purpose, long since formed, of under in atter ignorance of the world beyond mining the foundation of all civil 80 the immediate shadows of their venerable churches and palaces. Their er-"Seduced by that greed for worldly rors of judgment had to be combated things which is 'the root of all evil, by patience rather than by force. His love. The latter was the case with which, while many have coveted, they, holiness isolated himself by degrees Jesus Christ. At beholding that un- have erred from the faith, they attack from all such advisers and developed fortunate city, He thought of her the right of property sanctioned by a policy of his own one in keeping blindness, obstinacy, and ingratitude natural law, and, by an abominable with his day and generation. He first for the many favors which God had crime, while they pretend to provide settled grave ecclesiastical controverfor all the necessities and desires of siesthat had antagonized the king and man, they labor to take from him and primate of Belgium and had a Bel-

> During the same year the pope ad dominated by one of the most master and grandeur from the papacy. long hoped that before the end of his Continuance of the hostility between

These pleasant relations with Germany have continued to this hour, notwithstanding the admission of Italy

The supreme pontiff then undertook the problem of regaining lost influence in France -the disobedient and refractory eldest daughter of the Church of Rome. The reactionary republic of MacMahon was succeeded by another as hostile as Voltaire himself could have desired.

The French parliament exercised every ingenuity to cripple and humiliate the Roman church It suppressed the so called "unauthorized" monastic bodies; it abolished religious teachings in the public schools; it dismissed all chaplains from the army, and it expelled the sisters of charity from the hospitals. It was as intolerant as had been the national assemblies during the period of the revolution. Yet by subtime coolness and supreme tact in this anticlerical storm Leo XIII. contrived to keep on terms of friendliness with the president of France. He did not do so by sending Mme. Carnot the Golden Rose or giving berettas to relatives of those in high authority, but the day came when the president of France gladly consented to act for his holiness wenerable Prelate was presented with diberties' are abuses. Natural liberty telli the cardinal's beretta sent by the by personally presenting to Mgr. Roholy father.

Then another master card was played. While the stately ceremonial mentioned above was proceeding at the Elysee Leo XIII. directed the bishop of states of the church. One of the first steps toward international rehabilitation, though years were required to confirm it, was the restoration of the Roman Catholic hierarchy in Scotland. If courage was required to enter the land of freethinkers-France how much more tact was of Leo XIII." needed to re-establish the Roman church among the covenanters and nonconformists of Scotland, for whom the mild ritual of the Church of England had an aversion! And yet Leo XIII. succeeded there, as everywhere. Thus in thirteen years Pope Leo XIII. raised the papacy to the position of one of the great powers and gave it had not enjoyed for three centuries.

Although the first advance was made by Humbert, the position of the Italian

FORCEFUL POPE LEO government toward the church is unaltered. This is the tremendous problem that the Vatican still has to solve. Under the administration of Signor Crispi the state followed almost the lines originally laid down by the French anticlericals. Through every conceivable provocation for an outburst of righteous indignation the pontiff behaved with singular dignity. He would have nothing to do with the rival court that since 1870 has been installed in the Quirinal, the former palace of the pope, taken without shadow of law or jus-

> In a masterly article written by Archbishop John Ireland of St. Paul, Minn., for the North American Review the situation of the Roman church under the rule of Leo XIII. has been graphically described. He deals with the conditione to buy. tions as they existed about a year ago

"The situation with which the pope is now confronted is intolerable. In the streets of Rome insult has been offered to the cortege conveying to its last resting place in San Lorenzo the dead body of Leo's predecessor. A statue has been erected in one of the public squares in honor of an excommunicated monk whose sole merit was that in his day he had been the enemy of the papacy. The head of the municipal government has been dismissed from office by ministerial decree because on an occasion when the Catholic world was honoring Leo as a man and as a pontiff he dared to send to the Vatican the expression of his good will and that of his colleagues. The charitable institutions of the city, legacies of the Catholic charity of ages, have been wrested from the control of the church and handed over to the secular authorities. Monasteries and schools have been closed and the buildings confiscated. By veto of the Italian government Leo XIII. has been forbidden to send an envoy to an international peace congress, where he would have been welcomed even by non-Catholic sovereigns and where the pope by all the traditions of his see was entitled to "The sole solution of the Roman question is the pope's civil princedom, and until this is recovered the pope's protest will continue be represented.

"The barriers raised against the recovery of the pope's civil princedom are by no means so insuperable as at first glance they may appear. Italy took from the pope his civil princedom. Why cannot Italy be expected to restore it? To do so would mean for Italy peace, prosperity and glory

"The situation is today no less intolerable for Italy than it is for the papacy. The court of the king is obscured by that of the pope. Rome persists in being papal, in deriving its life Throughout the kingdom Italians are divided. The adherents of the pope's temporal power are legion. They are, too, the most conservative elements of the population, and as they refrain in obedience to the pope's order from active participation in national politics the peril daily grows that the socialistic and revolutionary element in the country may obtain control of public

The king of Italy is not the international sovereign that Pope Leo XIII. made himself. The popularity of the latter outside of Italy was greater than that of Victor Emmanuel II. or his father, Humbert 1

The two kings wholly lacked the individuality of Leo XIII. They never had any ideas of progress, never formulated any policies that would raise the kingdom from its poverty and its humble place in the family of European nations Consider, therefore, what Leo XIII did for the church they trampled upon and despoiled!

For an estimate of the imperial sway of Leo XIII, and the place he made for the Roman pontiff in the hearts of all Christians we cannot do better than to quote from Mr. Justin McCarthy's recent biography. With entire truth he

"We talk of great empires-of England, with her drum taps following each other round the earth. We talk of Russia, of Germany, of France. May I point out to my readers that the empire of papacy is greater than any of these? What hold has the English sovereign over Russia or over Germany? What hold has the German emperor over England? What hold has the czar, except for occasional political alliances and fantasies, over France? What hold has any of these powers-what hold have all of them combined-over the great republic of America? Except as a matter of news in the daily papers, the people of the United States do not care and have no need to care three France and Germany and Russia are doing. But the papacy has an influence everywhere, and it has to look after everything.

"Among the many commanding figures in Europe of our day Leo XIII. is Orvieto to receive King Humbert as an one of the most commanding. I have seen a good many great men in our time. I have been acquainted with startling significance because Orvieto | Gladstone, and I have talked with Bisis a city that formerly belonged to the marck and with Cardinal Newman, and I can recall to memory the presence of Emperor Nicholas of Russia, and I knew Charles Sumner, the great American orator and abolitionist, and I have often seen and heard M. Berryer and the late prince consort. But no picture has impressed me more than that

> The above are the words of a writer who weighed the words he wrote and who was not given to hyperbole.—New York American.

Light From Mary. Father Faber declares that we know more of God's mercy, of his condescension, of his intimacy with his creatures, an influence throughout Europe that it of his characteristic ways, because of the light which he has made to shine on Mary, than we should else have

BIG BARGAINS At The Parisian Cloak House.

Where is the woman who will not welcome the special price reductions we are making this week on Suits, Waists, Wrappers and Children's Garments ?

Now is the time you will need these garments and now is the

300 Silk Waists at $1.98

Worth $4.00 and $5.00.

1,000 Wrappers at 75c

Worth $1 25, in Dark and Light Colors.

200 Ladies' Suits at $4.98

Worth $10, $12 and $14. Latest Styles.

300 Children's Dresses at Half Price

Sizes 4 to 14.

Parisian Cloak House.—

74-76 Main Street East.

Watches and Jewelry

James M. Nolan Weekly Payment Jeweler

104 Main Street E. Over Beadle & Sherburne's

PLANE FACTS

about hardware. We have the largest assortment of mechanics' tools, builder's hardware and cutlery at the lowest prices for superior quality and manufacture to be found in any house dealing in this line of goods in the state. Mechanics of all trades will suit their own interests by looking at our stock before purchasing elsewhere.

> Louis Ernst & Sons. 129 and 131 Main St. East.

John H. McAnarney (Successor to O'Grady & McAnarney.)

Fire, Plate Glass, Boiler and Elevator Insurance Fidelity Bonds for Administrators, Contractors, Executors, Excise. Plumbers and all kinds of Court and Security Bonds straws about what England and Offices-101 and 102 Eliwanger & Barry Bldg. Entrance 39 State St

Model Furnished House, Fourth Floer. Our Plain-figure

Price

Visit our

Inducements and Cholos Assortments Have Built up the Largest Business of its Kind

Between

New York and Ohicage.