Those schools which defame the Fernin shorthand taught at the Hendrick Commercial Training School, 340 Powers Block, must do something to bolster up their nerve antiquated shading, position and no vowels. They cannot show the Columbian gold medal and two diplomas given exclusively and unsolicited at the world's fair to the Fernin.

Clarice Vance is the most popular singer of coon songs that ever appeared in vaudeville in Rochester. Ziska and King give a pleasant mixture of magic and comedy; Bean and Hamilton are sensational barrel jugglers; Bimm Bomm Brrr give a clever musical novelty, and Pat Rooney and Emma Frances are eccentric acrobatic dancers.

BAKER THEATRE.

Amusement patrons of Rochester will be pleased to learn that the new and thrilling domestic drama "The Child Wife" which has created such a furor in other cities will be at the Baker Theatre Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday, Sept. 21, 22, 23, matinees daily.

NEWSPAPER WAIFS.

Cora—Love is a strange thing. Clara—Oh, I don't think so. I've been engaged seven times.—Yonkers Statesman.

"Say, boy, what did you kick that dog for?" "He's mad." "No, he isn't mad, either." "Well, if any one should kick me I'd be mad."—Truth.

Definition—"Faith," said the little boy after a week's study, "faith is believing something that you know can't be true."—Indianapolis Journal.

"I notice that some people claim that a doctor's whiskers may carry disease germs." "Why don't the doctors boil their whiskers?"—Cleveland Plain Dealer.

The Ruling Passion—"The marriage of the star and the leading lady has been declared off, I hear." "Yes, they couldn't agree as to whose name should be first on the wedding invitations."—Puck.

Bacon—None of the women will speak to Penman since he wrote his last book. Egbert—Why is that? "Why, didn't you hear the name of it? 'Women of All Ages.'"—Yonkers Statesman.

His Escape—He—Did you know that our minister once had a narrow escape from the Fiji Islanders? She—How? He—He was on the point of going out among them as a missionary, when he received a call from a congregation in Boston.—Puck.

"From this moment we part for ever!" he hissed. She turned upon him haughtily, regal even in the hour of her humiliation. "No, Fitzmaurice Maurice-Maurice," she answered. "I am accustomed to exact a week's notice from all of my husbands."—Detroit Tribune.

"Truly," mused the Sultan, "944 queens would make a full house." "I wonder what his game is now?" muttered the Grand Vizier. But at that moment the postman came with a number of ultimata from the great Christian Powers, and the conversation naturally sought other channels.—Detroit Journal.

Fuddy—I hear that Rosbus is going on the stage. In what line of business is he to appear? Duddy—Oh, first alone, he will only take small parts such as Richard III., Othello, and Hamlet; but in course of time he hopes to be able to tackle something larger—something in the farce-comedy line or burlesque opera.—Boston Transcript.

"Well," said the man without a newspaper, "what is the news from abroad to-day? How is the concert of the Powers getting along?" "Prosperity, I should judge," said the disgruntled man with more news than he wanted. "It seems to have been turned into a very low-class, continuous-show vaudeville."—Cincinnati Commercial Tribune.

A Flurry in the Camp.—The Spanish commander called a council of war. When all his aides were seated, he turned to his servant and said: "Open another bottle, Alphonso." The aides looked pleased, and their eyes sparkled in anticipation. But, alas! they had forgotten that these are war times. The servant approached and proceeded to open another bottle of ink.—Philadelphia North American.

The great interest aroused throughout the city in anticipation of "The Kilties" the great Canadian Band to the Baker Theatre, Sunday evening, Sept. 27th proves that when a first class attraction is provided the people of Rochester show their appreciation in no mistakable manner.

National Theatre.

Two strong attractions are booked at the National Theatre for next week. For the early part of the week the attraction will be "The Cardinal," a strong drama which was written by Louis M. Parker for the famous English actor, Edward S. Willard. For the latter part of the week is announced the great melodramatic success, "The Factory Girl." As a labor champion it has already won its way to the hearts of the masses. There will be matinees Thursday and Saturday.
