THE GREAT "I AM."

[Written for The Catholic Journal by Veritas.]

Lima, N. Y. is the throes of an educational impasse. Owing to the ruling of Superintendent Skinner on the exclusion from teaching of persons wearing the religious garb, Mr. Hendrick, the trustee, is unable to open the public schools, which have served the purpose of the district for the last 30 years.

When Christ rebuked the man, saying: "Unless you see signs and wonders you believe not" He did this to show the ruler the imperfection of his faith, for if he really believed that Christ was true God he would have known that a simple act of His all-powerful will was sufficient to cure his dying son, and that it was not necessary for the sick son to be present in person.

When the ruler heard from his servants, who had come in haste to meet their master, that the fever had suddenly left his dying son the day before at the seventh hour, — that is, one hour after midday, — and, therefore, at the very same moment when Christ had assured him that his son would live, then he was convinced that Christ was truly the Son of God; that He was almighty, and the Lord of life and death; he believed Him to be the expected Messiah, and he and his whole family sincerely embraced the faith of the Gospel.

The Right Rev. D. J. Dougherty new bishop of Uvea Segovia, in the Philippines, arrived in Manila on Tuesday, Oct. 6, and had a most hearty reception at the hands of prominent Americans and the Catholic societies, as well as the general public.

Writing in condemnation of the public school system to the New York Sun, the Rev. Dr. W. Montague Geer, says: "Unless our affairs take a turn for the better, we will be flying as frightened doves to the windows of the Catholic church."

The women that the French premier would drive out of France—the nuns—are the only ones to come to the rescue in the present outbreak of the plague at Marseilles. Eighteen nuns at the request of the bishop of the city, volunteered to take the places of the panic-stricken nurses.

Five Minute Sermon

Healing of the Son of the Ruler of Capharnaum.

Jesus worked this miracle in the city of Cana in Galilee, where He had converted water into wine. The ruler was from Capharnaum, which is situated at the northwestern side of the Lake of Genesareth, many miles distant from Cana.

When the ruler heard from his servants, who had come in haste to meet their master, that the fever had suddenly left his dying son the day before at the seventh hour, — that is, one hour after midday, — and, therefore, at the very same moment when Christ had assured him that his son would live, then he was convinced that Christ was truly the Son of God; that He was almighty, and the Lord of life and death; he believed Him to be the expected Messiah, and he and his whole family sincerely embraced the faith of the Gospel.

TRAITS OF THE POPE

PIUS X. EMINENTLY FITTED FOR HIS EXALTED POSITION.

His Holiness Combines Great Intellectual Power With Rare Prudence and Exquisite Charity — The Supreme Pontiff and Church Music.

The whole world regretted Leo XIII. Never in modern times has the death of a sovereign pontiff caused such a sensation all over the world. Foes he seems to have had none; admirers by the million inside and outside the fold.

And Pius X., says the Church Bulletin, has taken the world by storm. He seems to be an ideal pope. Apparently he unites in himself all the requisite qualities for this unique and exalted position. He combines great intellectual power with rare prudence and exquisite charity.

CURLY—QUINLAN.

The marriage of Miss Catherine M. Curley and James V. Quinlan was solemnized on Oct. 7th at St. Mary's church by Rev. A. Quinlan, brother of the groom.

The arrival of the bridal party was announced by the strains of the wedding march played by Miss Maddin. The bride was beautiful as she entered the church on the arm of her father in a gown of pearl grey crepe de chene over silk with ornaments of cut steel and a picture hat to match.

Before God's holy altar To receive a bridal crown. When joined in holy wedlock. With the angels looking down. And God heard the pledged vows. Of heart that beat for heart. When each promised to be faithful. Until death would them part.

Warm Underwear for Everyone.

It's the day of the Underwear store. A chillness in the air at times makes it plain that comfort and light weight weight garments are no longer reconcilable.

Wonder if you halt appreciate what a splendid assortment these sections here afford? We don't believe that there's a reasonable man, woman or child who can say that we haven't just the kind of a garment wanted, fairly priced.

As cheaply as cotton and wool can be knitted into garments of worthy warmth and service, we have them. As fine as cotton and wool and silk can be spun and deftly knitted into garments of soft velvety warmth, we have them.

International and cosmopolitan is this underwear gathering. Germany, Switzerland, France and England contribute their best as well as the first mills of our own country. Let us know the underwear need. Supplying it is only a case of our getting together.
