Joseph F. Ribstein.
Alderman Joseph F. Ribstein is a most valuable man for his constituents, representing the entire interests of his ward in the council with rare faithfulness and zeal. For years he has been recognized as the Democratic leader of his ward. He served two years with

John W. Osborn.
To-day readers of this paper we wish to place forward several pertinent reasons why John W. Osborn should be elected.

It is conceded by every fair-minded man that politics should not enter our schools and we heartily agree with that view. John W. Osborn has never been accused of being a politician and his worst enemy can not place that charge at his door. Mr. Osborn is a practical educator and believer in giving children of the masses a thorough grading in such studies as will make them fit for the battle of life; he has no sympathy with the foolish fads introduced into our public school system by which the attention of scholars is turned from the acquiring of spelling, reading, writing, arithmetic and geography to making dolls, sewing, darning and putting with sand; he believes that boys will not be required to darn their own stockings and it is a waste of the peoples money to introduce such tom-foolery into the schools.

Children should be fitted to get into business and if a higher education can be afforded after going through the grammar school then it would rest with the parents as credit to the city as City Sealer, being appointed by the Council in 1897. Two years ago he was elected a member of the council and he has since labored faithfully for the ward in the council. Only at the last council meeting he proposed ordinance, offering for sale a franchise for the street railroad on Joseph Avenue, after working energetically to induce the Rochester Railway Company to extend its tracks in that street to the city line. A short time ago he insisted that a special garbage collection should be given the seventeenth ward and through his energy and influence an inspector with a special wagon was sent through the ward cleaning up the garbage. In numerous other ways he has always shown a zeal on behalf of his constituents that make him invaluable to them in the council. Mr. Ribstein is a member of Branch 58, C. M. B. A., St. Fidelis and St. Jacob's Societies of Holy Redeemer parish, also the Foresters, Red Men and a number of other societies.

to what fads it might be wise to take up. Our present school system is based too much upon giving the children of the rich a classical education and not on giving the children of the poor people a practical education.

Vote and ask your friends and neighbors to vote for John W. Osborn for School Commissioner, and by so doing you will have done all in your power to lift the school system from the hands of the theorist and place them all on a common sense basis.

Clarence V. Lodge.
It will be gratifying news to the people of Monroe county to know that the popular superintendent of the poor will continue to administer the affairs of that office, which is one demanding peculiar qualifications, among which is that experience in determining the justice and wisdom of granting relief in certain cases. A novice in such an office would be liable to make many mistakes. Mr. Lodge has had so many years' experience as county poor superintendent that it would be very unwise to lose the opportunity of securing his services for another term, and indeed, for as many terms as his health and circumstances will permit. Among Mr. Lodge's qualifications for the office is that of patience to investigate thoroughly the justice of claimants for assistance. He also possesses a kind and sympathetic heart which, tempered with caution and firmness of character, enables him to exercise the duties of his office wisely, in the interest not only of the poor but of the taxpayers. There are thousands of Mr. Lodge's friends who will be glad to see his portrait in this issue of the Journal.

IS IT ALL RIGHT?
Is the steel well tempered, the wood-work (handles and the like) perfect—in brief, is it a good tool? Is a question every wide-awake mechanic has a perfect right to ask as to any tool he contemplates purchasing. All we have to say in this connection is that we will stand by any goods we recommend. If they don't prove satisfactory, back they go to the manufacturer.

William Bausch.
William Bausch, of the Seventeenth Ward, who was nominated for School Commissioner is an ideal man for that position. Mr. Bausch did not seek the office and only consented to accept the nomination only after he had been waited upon by a committee of men who, like Mr. Bausch, have the interests of the public schools of Rochester at heart.
Mr. Bausch was born in Rochester in 1861 and was educated in the public schools. Early in life he began work in the factory of Bausch & Lomb and is now a member of that firm. He is widely and favorably known throughout the northeastern section of the city and will add strength to the entire ticket. Mr. Bausch has never before been identified with political movements, although his time and money have at all times been used in the interests of public good.
As a member of the Park Board Mr. Bausch has done considerable to provide healthful recreation for the people of this city. He has given liberally both of time and money to improving Seneca Park and the Zoo, which has proven so popular with all citizens, particularly the little folk, stands as a monument to his untiring efforts in behalf of the city parks. Mr. Bausch is a director of the Rochester Athletic club, a member of the Board of Managers of the State Industrial School, Trustee of the Chamber of Commerce and a member of the German-American Society and several other organizations.
Mr. Bausch is held in high esteem by the army of men employed in the immense optical plant of which he is one of the owners and he will find no more ardent supporters at the polls than these same men, who know his worth by close association.

Vote for Philetus Chamberlain For School Commissioner.

The Democratic party made no mistake in nominating Philetus Chamberlain for School Commissioner. His work in the Board of Education has demonstrated that he is a true friend of the public school. He has placed himself on record emphatically as being opposed to the fads which prevail in the schools and is decidedly in favor of a practical course of study. He believes that the grade schools are for the education of the masses and in-as-much as only about six per cent. of the school children go beyond the grammar school, that thorough education in the fundamental branches should be accorded them and less time spent in sewing, painting, cutting out pictures, drawing and playing in the sand tables. He also believes in employing a superintendent of schools and teachers from our own city instead of from out of town and has always so voted. Mr. Chamberlain should be elected by a large majority.

Frank J. Ritz.
Frank J. Ritz who has been placed in nomination by the Democrats of the 13th ward is not an untried man for the position of alderman as he is now serving his second term in that office. He is one of the heaviest taxpayers of the ward and has lived in that section of the city for 30 years. He is a prominent member of St. Boniface parish and is identified with the C. M. B. A., C. R. B. A., St. Herman's society also Foresters and Redmen. He will undoubtedly be elected by a good majority.

Scene from "Everyman."

"EVERYMAN."
Charles Frohman to Present the Old Morality Play in this City.

Few dramatic presentations made in this country in recent years have attracted such widespread attention as "Everyman" which will be presented at the Lyceum Theatre, next Monday and Tuesday evening and Wednesday matinee. Its authorship dates back four hundred years and the presentation to-day is in keeping with those made at the time it was written. There is no curtain, no footlights, no orchestra and no theatrical effects whatever. The actors come and go across the stage which is barely set with a scene resembling a cloister. It will be presented here by the original company which appeared in the first performance in England under the auspices of the Elizabethan Stage Society. "Everyman" is a link between the old mystery plays and the legitimate drama. It was written by a Dutch priest. Its action is continuous and the dialogue is poetically beautiful. It will interest all theatregoers as a novelty in striking contrast with amusements of to-day; students of the drama and literature will be concerned in the style and construction, while those who have followed the history of the early church will be concerned in it as an object lesson of the presentation made when such presentations were made under the direction of the monks. Nothing like "Everyman" has ever before been presented in this country. It is something every Catholic will want to see and something the like of which may never be seen again.
