ESS LETTER

NEWS FROM ALL THE COUNTIES OF IRELAND.

What is Being Done by the People a - Home-Various Items From Every Section of the Emerald lale.

Connaught

GALWAY-In the Convent of Mercy. Tuam, on Sept. 24, were professed Sister Mary Alcantara, daughter of late Mr. James Frauley, Killimer, County Clare, and Sister Mary Augustine adaughter of late Mr. Michael Waldron. of Ballyhaunis, County Mayo. Most Rev. Dr. Healy commenced the mass nof profession, assisted by the Rev "John McDermott, adm., and Rev. W. J MacHugh. The sermon was preached by the Rev. John Mechan, Catechist for the archdiocese.

Mr. John Joyce of Caltra Park, died Sept. 29, deeply regretted. Requiem services and funeral were numerously attended.

LEITRIM-The death of Mr. D. McManus, mother of Mr. Joseph Mc-Manus of Carrick-on-Shannon, occurred, Oct. 2, deeply mourned. The deceased belonged to a good old Leit rim family. The chief mourners were Mr. Francis McManus, Mr. H. Mc Manus and J. McManus, sons.

McHugh of Annagh, Glenfarne, father of Mr. P. A. McHugh, of the Sligo Champion, for the Parliamentary reoresentation of North Leitrim, was withdrawn at the last moment, on Oct. 3, and Mr. P. A. McHugh was renominated and duly declared elected to his old seat in Parliament.

MAYO-The parish of Bailinrobe, vacant by the lamented death of Dean Romayne, has been given to the Very Rev. James Stephens, the P. P., of Crossboyne. Father Stephens is a merchew to the lamented Father Monaghan, P. P., of Kilkerrin, was admin-1s trator in Dunmore and has been in *Crossboyne for twenty years. His Prother is the Rev. John Stephens, formerly C. C., at Abbey but now engaged at education work in the college sof St. Mary's, Rathmines, Dublin.

On Oct. 4, Most Rev. Dr. Clancy ompreached in the Church of Our Lady and the Holy Rosary, Castlebar The proceeds will be devoted to the purpose of helping to liquidate the debt still due on the sacred edifice. There was a large congregation and his eloquent sermon was listened to with Tapt attention Most Rev. Dr. Healy, of an eloquent and practical speech econtingents came by express trains that the tenants who contemplated radrom Westport and Castlereagh.

A The Franciscan Brothers, Achill, by will sell their Bunacurry property to their tenants. A meeting of tenants arranged by the Rev. J. P. Connelly, will take place to fix number of years purchase. The other Achill landlords necessary to make an alternative offer wought to follow the good example of athe Brothers, and relieve the tenants Trom paying rent forever.

ROSCOMMON-Mr. Thomas Mc-7, aged 70 years, deeply regretted.

8LIGO-A small property known as Beaufield, belonging to Mr. Herbert Lambert, Cloverhill, Sligo, has been sold to the tenants at 30 per cent. off first term rents. The tenants have miso been allowed half-quars' arrears and the running gale.

The Postmaster General has sanc--dioned arrangements for utilizing the railway between Claremorris and Sligo to afford improved daily mail service to and from Swinford, Keltimagh, Charlestown and Curry. Arrangements will awill also be made for earlier night mail arrival and a latere dispatch from Keltimagh and Swinford.

On the Road from Bella to Keltimagh is St. Patrick's well. It consists of a hollow in a large stone slightly below the level of the ground, and has the appearance of being built round. The hollow is oval, 17 inches by 15 "Inches and 7 inches deep. Although ono spring is seen there is always mater in it. The well is under an old ssh tree. A little to the south is a rath, and the people say that stations ased to be held there marked by little wooden crosses, starting from the well and round the rath back to the well. it is called Lisnacrus, which means in Saelic, the fort of the cross.

ROSCOMMON.—Thomas Callery, of Cieen, Knockircar, Boyle, was knocked flown by a train at Boyle railway stastion, which passed over his left leg and right foot. The leg was amputated. and a portion of the foot will have to re cut off also. He was shunter at the *tation.

On Oct. 1 the tenants on Capt. Reeves property (late Mrs. Dixon's), dour miles from Castlerea, made an offer of purchase to the agent, Mr. W. E. Holmes. They asked 40 per cent reduction, but Mr. Holmes would give only 30 per cent. The tenants left without coming to a final conclusion. On Oct. 1 a meeting took place in ine Conthouse, Castlerea, between Mr. in Holmes agent for the Willis estate. and the tenants, with a view to pur-Clasing under the new act. After an interchange of views, in which Mr. John Piligibbon represented the tenuts. Mr. Holmes agreed to sell at reductions from 40 to 10 per cent. The county of the tenants agreed. The All comments trace house on completion of sale, to wipe out half Mount View, Peter Codd, Dumdangon, a year's rent. The sporting rights were 1ged 60 years KEEGAN-Oct. 7, at reserved by the landlord.

the Cathedral, Sligo, on Sept. 23, when Wellington View, Crumlin road, Mr. P. J. McHale, Sligo, was married Michael Joseph O'Bierne. PELLE- Ferns; Rev. James Codd, Ferrycarrig. to Miss M. E. Battelle, daughter of ITER--Oct. 3, at Main Guard, Dublin Mr. Peter Battelle, Sligo. Very Rev. Castle, Edmond Pelietler, aged 51 Canon Harte, administrator, officiated, years. KENNEDY-Oct. 4, at Mater and completed their acclesiasic course assisted by Rev. Father Hynes.

ent were. Alderman McHugh, Alder of Graigue na Managh, died recently, man J P Higgins, the Mayor of Slige and was deeply and widely regretted (Mr. P. Maguire). J. and W. Currie, She was mother of Very Rev. Edward M Cononr. P Carroll, W Neary.

The nomination paper of Mr. Peter held Sept 30 The reunions of this O Leary, O S A (son), was celebrant fors Over eighty members and their friends sat down to supper, the rever end president, Father Hynes, occupy Slancy on the right and Alderman Mo Rev Father O'Brien, O S A, Callan; Hugh on the left.

Leinster

CARLOW-A meeting of tenant farmers was held on Oct 6 at Bagnals town to take into consideration the advisability of taking concerted action in view of the Land Purchase Act coming into operation. The attend ance was representative of every parish in the district. The Very Rev. Monsignor Burke, presided, supported hy Rev Paul Murphy There was also present members of the County and District Councils including Patrick Kinsella, James Aughrey, Patrick Maher, James Brady Edward Hughes The Very Rev Chairmanin the course archbishop of Tuam, presided. Large said it was of paramount importance purchase should carefully consider the terms of purchase Each landlord spermission of the Archbishop of Tuam should be approached to ascertain if he were willing to sell and on what terms. On receiving an answer a meeting could be summoned to con sider the landlord's proposal, and if

KILDARE-Captain Connolly, owner of the Castletown estate, having signi fied his intention to sell the property under the new Land Purchase Act to Dermott, of Ardagh, Boyle, died Oct. , the tenants, a meeting of those of the Leixlip portion of the estate was held on Oct. 3, for the purpose of consider ing what steps should be taken in the Oct 5. The remains were removed to age. BURKE-Oct 7, at Shandrum. matter. The Rev Father Dooley, St Peter's church where the funeral Charleville, Bridget Burke FLYNN-Leixlip, was appointed chairman. The obsequies were celebrated. The in Oct 7, at Knocksouna, Thomas Flynn following were present. Messrs Ron. terment took place afterward the fun. Thomas Flynn. McCARTHY-On Oct. aldson, County Councillor, Willis, Mar eral cortege which accompanied the 7. at Friar's Walk, Thomas Peter Mc. Rev Canon McGreeney, Crossmaglen; several reductions in rents, and spent tin Miss Eliza Moore Finegan, Soden Woogan, Devany, Durkan, Danford, Jacob, etc. The Rev Chairman stated the object of the meeting, explaining Ledwidge, of Mulhuidert, occurred Bride Park, Conna, Francis J. Fitzger, at the High Mass was supplied by a rary and market house. He is suc the great undertaking before closing Sept 11 at the residence of her daugh ald. DRUMMEY—On Sept 26, at Ard choir from Dundalk, under the con- codded by his nephew, Mr. J. Porter their bargain with the landlord, and ter in Clonce. Funeral to the local kileen, Enniskean, Nicholas Drummey ductorship of Mr. Parks. The Rev. T. Porter, brother to Mr. E. M. Archdele the advantage oered to tenants under the new Estates Commissioners Other in-mosts having expressed their views Lynam, of Castlejordan, who died Oct garet O'Shea, Charleville. and warned the tenants not to be led 1, took place to Kilkeran, and was at KERRY.—The death of Mrs. O'Sulli gilly, were consigned to their last rest. Monaghan town, was found in the to purchase on the system adopted on tended by the people of the town and van, wife of Mr. J. D. O'Sullivan, Upper ing place at Belleck, on Sept. 30. The canal, Shambles Bridge, Old Cross the Carton estate (Duke of Leinster's? adjoining, it was unarimously agreed that a committee, consisting of Father the tenants on the extre of Sir A A and a sudden death occurred at Roads reached the age of 68 years, and the Dooley, Messrs Ronaldson, Martin Soden and Woogan, be appointedalso Mr. S. J. Brown, solicitor, Naasto wait on the landlord to ascertain sided. Present: Peter Governey 70 years of age. Uarochial Stations Moneymore, Derby, where he spent well, but did not return. Some time his views as to how he intended to Nicholas Boiger, P Governey, J. Bren were held on that date at Patrick Cof two years. The late Primate, Most received lately from the National Wall, J Brennan, J. O. Menton, etc. Board: "Office of National Education The chalrman said the meeting was Dublin, Sept. 30, 1903 Sir: "In refer called that they might consider their ence to your communication of the position under the Land Aact. He 31st ult. I am directed to inform you would suggest that the gross receipts that the commissioners, at their meet from the tenants within this area ing on the 29th inst., I am directed to should be produced and totalled, so as inform you that the commissioners at to enable them to arrive at the net their meeting on the 29th inst, ordered income of the landlord. They would that Irish be placed as an optional then be in a position to oer an equivasubject on the program of examination lent to his present income. With refor 1905 for candidates for entrance to gard to the landlord's claiming the training colleges and for King's sporting and mineral rights, he not scholars. I am, sor, your obedient ser only strongly opposed it, but he urged vant. W. I. Driworth, secretary. P. on every tenant to do likewise as far O'Daly, secretary Gaelic League."

-Oct. 6, 95 Hollybank road, Dublin Mrs. Mary Farrell. FLYNN—Oct. 5 sent to his doing so over his right, he at Guild street, North Wall, John never would. Mr. Shortall said Sin Flynn. McK7NNA-Oct. 4, at Torquay Anthony Weldon told him he was will Maria, in religion, Sister Vincent ing to sell. The chairman said that be Superior of St. Vincent's Orphanage fore making a further step they should Torquay, daughter of the late Nicholas ascertain his price. The meeting was McKenna, Muliagh. MACMAHON- nanimously with the chairman's Oct. 6, at St. Vincent's Hospital views on the matter, and in was agreed Thomas D. MacMahon, buyer for many to appoint Mr. Shortall to cummunicate year, Thomas & Co., son of the late with the landlord and ascertain his Martin MacMahon, Laragh, Castle terms. blayney, and nephew of the late Very Rev. Canon MacMahon, P. P., Donagh moyne. WILLIAMS-Oct. 6, at 21

and grazing land. The landlord agrees Williams, aged 60 years. CODD-Kilternan. Thomas Keegan, aged 57 SLIGO.—A marriage took place in DBIDRNE-Oct. 6, suddenly, at 2 Miseric ordine Hospital, Margaret Ken-Mr. James Connor, Holborn street, nedy, 13 St James avenue, Clonliffe Sligo, died Sept. 26, deeply regretted, road, daughter of Michael Walsh, Bal-He was one of the first to become a lymouge, Ballon, Carlow. MURRAYmember of the Total Abstinence Oct. 4, at Ballyalig, Kilkenny, Mary League of the Sacred Heart, and till Murray, 23 Fontency street, Dublin. the time of his death he was a firm KEARNEY- Oct. 5, at the Mater Hossupporter of that society. On Sunday pilal, Michael Joseph, of 25 Mountiny evening the remains were conveyed to street. RICHARDSON-Oct. 3, at 51 the Cathedral, followed by an immense Moore street Francis Richardson. concourse of sympathizers. On Mon- Italy Oct 5, at 1 Glasthule Ter- 22 years, deeply regretted. The funday the funeral took place from the race. Sandycove, Joseph Tutty, earl to Killaveaney was attended by a Cathedral to the Sligo Cemetery. The Fighn N-Oct 5, at 26 Guild street, cortege was very large and representa J hn Flynn O NEIL-At the Hospice tive, testifying to the esteem in which transidiscross, John O'Neil, late of 21 deceased was held. Thee hief mourn | pper Gloucester street. LOVELYers were: Mrs. Connor (widow). T Oct 5, at 47 Ranelagh, Sarah Lovely, Kilfeather (brother-in-law), A. Kil aged 35 years, THOMSON-Oct. 7, at feather, J. Kilfeather, T. J. Kilfeather, 7 Biocomfeld Park, S. C. Road, David and John Kilfeather (nephews), D Thomson aged 52, late of Lasswade. Toney J Moran Among others pres KILKENNY,-Mrs. James O'Leary, Thomas Rhatigan Alderman Flanagan O'leary, O S. A. The Asistant-Gen-Geo Metcaife, P. Derrig, W. Costello et al of the Augustinian Order (Rome), at present on a vacation in Ireland, The annual reunion of the members traveled specially to assist at the obof the Sligo Catholic Institute was sequies. The Very Rev. Edward useful institute have been looked for of the High Mass; Rev J Mooney ward to as the happingst event of the design sub-deacon, Rev J Donohoe; year In this respect Wednesday even with the Rev M Morris, master of ing's function outshone its predeces ceremonies. Present-The Very Rev Father Aiphonsus, O. S. A., D. D (cousin). Assistant General of the Augustinians Rome, Rev. Father Will ing the chair, with Most Rev. Dr jams, O S A, Fethard, Tipperary; Very Rev Father Cowman, O. S. A.; Rev Father Hennessy, O S. A, New ROSS Rev J Gorman, Kildare, Rev Willim Murphy (Chaplain Curragh Camb), Rev Father Dowling, Bally brittas, Very Rev R O'Brien, Pauls town, Rev J Byrne, Borris; Rev P Foley Leighlin Bridge Rev J Hip well Constants. Rev Father Hickey Templendigan, Rev James J. James; Rev Father O'Brien Craig, etc. The > ground at Graigna Managh KINGS .- Mrs. Catherine Madden, of Banagher, died Oct 4 at 66 Lower Dominick street Dublin, deeply regretted. The Requiem services and funeral were attended by great num bers of terrons

LONGFORD.—The following deaths have been recorded from Longford; 26, at 36 Bandon road, Edward Can ARMAGH—The new church in at the age of 86 years. In politics he Mrs Patrick Farrell, Barnacor, on Sept 29; Mr Patrick Duncan, of Can at Douglas, Mary Daly daughter of Logue on Sept 27. The parish of an Irish Parliament in Dublin. He nistown. Sept 24 Funerals were at William and Norah Daly, Ballycurreen. Cullyhanna and Newtownhamilton for published for many years a little per tended by great numbers

he spent seventeen years as Nationa, town, Johannah Coleman O'SULLI subscriber to the funds for building unsuccessfully contested the County teacher They also presented him with VAN-At 17 Bishop street, Queens, the new church. After the dedication Fermanagh as a Liberal against the an address a Gladstone bag, and a town Edward O'Sullivan, shipwright, of the church high mass was cele Earl of Erne and the late Mr. Wm purse of sovereigns as a token of the Funeral from Cathedral, Oct. 6. for brated, his eminence presided. The Archdale, who stood as Conservative neighbors cemetery numerously attended.

Rotts took place at West street on more, David Twohig, at an advanced large and representative

districts adjacent

nan, QJ Lacey, Michael Shortall, J DUBLIN-The following letter was Knowles, P Lacey, Rd. Murphy, J as lay in his power. He should be Recent Deaths in Dublin-FARRELL pleased to see Sir Anthony Weldor shooting over his place, but to con-

> WESTMEATH. - A number of tenants on estates in this county are holding meetings with the intention a chase their farms. WEXFORD .-- On Oct. 4, in the chapel attached to St. Peter's College, Wexford, Rt. Rev. Dr. Browne, Bishop nedy, son-in-law; James Kirwan, of Ferns, conferred the dignity of brother; Thomas Kirwan, John and priesthood on Rev. Jas. Nolan, Kilrush, Barntown, and Rev. Martin Murphy, Rathangan, Duncormick. All began in St Peter's. On the same occasion Rev John J. Brosnan, St. Mary's. Waterford, received sub-deaconship. A large number of friends of the young levites witnessed the imposing ceremany. The Bishop was assisted by Rev N. T. Sheridan, Rev. W. Codd, Rev W Harper and Rev. J. Donovan. WICKLOW .- Mr. Patrick J. Carroll, of Mullins, Tinahely, died Oct. 8, aged gent numebr of the relatives and friends of deceased and the family. The death of Very Rev. James Roche pastor of Ashford, took place on Oct. 3, in the Parochial House. He was a nature of Kicklow, and belonged to an old and respected family of the county. He began his studies in the Propaganda College, Rome, where he was ordained priest After 22 years as curate in Bray, Enniskerry, and St. Michan's, North Anne street, he was premoted to the parish of Ashford, where he worked zealously for 21 years The Parochial House, which he built, will be a monument to his energy It is one of the finest in the

Munster

CLARE .-- On May 12, at Cagargar, Coastguard, Cappa, Kilrush

CORK .- Mrs. Buckley, Carriganima, His Eminence from Mr. MacFall. fiel. Oct 3, at the age of 105 years. The quarterly meeting of the Rody interment was in the family buria Rev Fiorence O'Mahoney, chaplain, French, woodwards, Brothers T. Mc L : ptember, 1903." South Infirmary to Drimoleague.

Hanorla Egan CANTILLON-On Sept lar secretary LOUTH.-The death of Mrs. Peter -On Oct 7, at Ballykedwick, Donoughaged 19 years (late S. C., G. P. O., Man. A. Finlay, S. J., preached the sermon. The funeral of the late Mr. John chester.) O'SHEA-On Oct. 3, Man The remains of Rev. Thomas Don-

Weldon at Ballylinan Pahins, and a village north of Knocknadubber news of his death was received 50, residing at Annies, near Scots Aughamure, was held in the schoo Mountain, bordering on Dingle Bay, or throughout the Archdiocese of Armagh house, died suddenly at his residence room, Ballylinan. Dr McKenna pre Oct. 6, the person being John Happafin with regret. His first mission was in Oct. 1. He had gone for water to the fey's house at Roads, and Hannafin re Rev Dr. McGettigan, promoted him They carried him to his house, where paired thit her. He reached Coffey's to the important curacy of Keady. Here he expired shortly after. Death was house before Rev. Michael McCarthy he labored until 1884. In 1884 he was caused by heart disease. ghan, Cahirciveen, arrived, and instantly expired.

LIMERICK.—On Sept. 29, at the Ab bey Rorcrea, County Tipperary, diec Michael, in religion Brother Stephen. son of late John O'Regan, Rathcannon TIPPERARY.—The funeral of Rev Brother Steven, of the Cistereian Monastery, Roscrea, took place on Sept. 29 He was a native of Athlacca, County Limerick.

In the Chapel of the Old Mercy Con vent, Cappoquin, was witnessed recently the ceremony of the profession of a religiouse. The young lady is Miss Alice Fitzgerald, daughter of the respected chairman of the Tipperary Board of Guardians, Mr. J. J. Fitzger ald. The ceremony was performed by Most Rev. Dr. Sheehan, Bishop of Waterford and Lismore.

The death of Mr. P. Kirwan, Bally tarsna, Thurles, occurred Sept. 28 aged 83 years. The remains were conveyed to the church in Moycarkey where office and high mass were held after which the interment took place Great numbers of persons attended from Gortnahoe. Newbirmingham surroundingn parishes. The chief mourners were Michael, John, James and Edward Kirwan, sons; A. Ken-Russell, Thomas and James Cunningham, nephews; W. Cunningham, brother-in-law, and others. The following clergymen officiated at the high mass and at the interment; Rev. N. Duggan, Moycarkey, celebrant; Rev. N. Power, Moycarkey, Rev. J. Kelly, Boherlahan; Rev. Father Foley, Boherlahan; Rev. J. J. Hickey, adm., Thurles; Rev. M. Banon, Thurles.

WATERFORD-On Oct. 19, Mr. Andrew Carnegie laid the first stone of the new free library in the City of Waterford. The Civic Council made him a freeman of the ancient borough and a great dinner was given in his

On Oct. 5, Capt. Nicholas Parle, Captain Lawlor, of the dredger worked by the Waterford Harbor Commisstoners, and a ships carpenter named Henry Hicks, all of Waterford City, when sailing in a small yacht down the Suir, were caught in a squall near Snow Hill, the boat founded and the two rst mentioned were drowned, Hicks succeeded in swimming to the shore, but was unconscious for a time after reaching a place of safety. The sad event cast a gloom over the city. Captain Parle had been Harbor Master the most popular citizens of Water

Ulster

ANTRIM-Mr. James MacFall, Bel-Philippine Islands, died William John ast, makers of Irish harps, lately Murphy, Chief Engineer United States received a telegram from Rome to for! Consigurard steamer Palawan, son of ward to Cardinal Moran two Irish Michael Murphy, late Chief Officer of harps, same as supplied before. This ing was spent. Mr. Byrne and the is the fourth Irish harp purchased by members of his family contributing

Keown, M. Millar, beadles; Brother T. FERMANAGH. - A conspicuous Recent Deaths in Cork.—EGAN- McAteer assistant secretary; Brother figure in Fermanage passed away on QUEEN'S.—On Oct. 6 a meeting of and was deeply and widely regretted. ing health for some time past, had was drowned is not known. God's house, repairing schools and promoting the interests of religion. The of the faithful who attended his funeral obsequies was a manifestation of the esteem in which he was held. The The Solemn Office and Requiem Mass were celebrated in Belleck Church, His Eminence, Cardinal Logue, presiding.

CAVAN-On Sept. 27 Rev. C. Comey, St. Patrick's College, Cavan, delivered an instructive lecture on "The Origin of the Catacombs in Rome." in the Total Abstinance Hall, Cavan, in presence of a large audience. The chair was occupied by the Rev. P. McManus Present were Rev. P. Brady, Adm.: Rev. J. McGauran, St. Patrick's College; Rev. T. McGovern, St. Patrick's College, The Ladies' Gaelic Class-Misses Leonard, Quinn, S. Maron Conaty, Maggie McEntee, Young Dunne, N. T.; Smith, Crubany, Scollan Gire, Mrs. Hely, the Misses Gilcrees Golden, Cloneulty, Castle, Killenaule (2); R. Smith, J. Smith, J. McHates, J acres, of which a large portion is bog tout Great George's street, William arriving at a basis on which to pur Boherlahan, Dualia, Holycross and the Bohahoe, Jas. O'Brien, O. Leonard, A. Leonard, W. Brady, Jas. Murrap, Jas. McGobern, J. Smith, P. Smith, P. linghes, W. Smith, P. Fitzpatrick.

And the second s

DERRY On Oct. 9 the pupils of the Sisters of Mercy Convent Schools. Thomas Keating, Thomas and Timothy Derry, gave a magnificent entertainment in St. Columb's Hall in aid of the sick and distressed of the city. There was a crowded audience, and the proccedings from start to finish were talented and enjoyable. The scenery was splendid, the costumes charming, and the acting, singing and dancing excellent.

DONEGAL .-- Mr. John O'Donnell. Termon House, Dungloe, died Sept. 28. deeply regreted. The funeral was attended by great numbers. The chief mourners were: James and John (son); Kate and Annie (daughters); Lena (daughter-in-law), Falkirk, The following were present: Rt. Rev. Monsignor Gallagher, Revs. James Toner, James O'Donnel, Anthony Gallagher, Father McMenamin, P. J. Brennan. DOWN .-- Mr. Byrne, who lately retired from the position of principal teacher of Finnis (Dromara) National School, after forty years' service under the Board of National Education, more than twenty-five of which were spent in Finnis school, was the recipient of a beautiful illuminated address and gold wach, presented to him by his former put ils, and by his friends in Domara and neighborhood. The deputation was hospitably received by Mr. and for almost forty years and was one of Mrs Byrne in their residence at Levallyreagh, Dromara. After tea, Rev. John O'Hara mentioned the object for which they were present and asked the honorable secretary, Mr. Hugh Davey, to read the address. Afterward the reverend gentleman made the presentation and said it was a small testimony of the esteem in which Mr Byrne was held. Mr. Byrne made reply. Afterward an enjoyable evenmany items of vocal and instrumental music, all being expert musicians. A The decreased enjoyed perfect health McCorley branch of the Irish National vote of thanks to Rev. John O'Hare, throughout her long life She was con- Foresters was held in their hall, proposed by Mr. Darcy, and seconded sclous up to a few days prior to her Craigstown, lately. Brother Patrick by Mr. Kinder, finished a pleasant Magee in the chair, Brother David evening. On the committee which had Most Rev. Dr. O'Callaghan, Bishop () Kane in the vce chair, assisted by charge of the presentation were Mr. of Cork, has made the following ap officers. The secretary read the report. Hugh McAvoy, treasurer; Mr. Hugh pointmernts. Rev Richard Barrett, St. for the quarter ending September 30. Davey, Drinn, secretary. The address Patrick's to be P P of Ennishean; which showed the branch in a good was artistically illuminated by Mr. Rev Patrick O'Leary Glounthaumo, to financial state. The election of offic Dempsey, Belfast The watch bears the St Patrick's, Rev Robert Burns, Car cers resulted as follows: Brother inscription: "Presented to Mr. Byrne, heragh to Glounthaume. Rev. Wm. Patrick Magee, C. R.; Bro. David N. S., on his retirement, by his num-Crowley Drimoleague, to Ccheragh; O'Kane, S. C. R.; Bros B. McCann, S. C. 13 ands in Dromara neighbor-

On Sept 26 at 105 Blarney street H Dowds, treasurer; Brother H. Mil. Oct. 7, in the person of Mr. John Grey Verry Porter, of Belleisle, Lisbellaw. tillon, aged 38 years DALY-Sept 27 Cullyhanna was deutcated by Cardinal was a stanch Liberal, and advocated CULLINANE At Earth Square, Mac its size and population has proportion, todical, called Ireland's Gazette, for On Sept. 28 the many friends of Mr. roon, Mary Cullinane KINGSTON- ately more of its sons priests than the promulgation of his views on pub George Clarke, N. T. Ballinalee, en. On Oct. 5, at 128 Old George's street, any parish in Ireland, among them the lic matters. About two years ago he tertained him to a farewell banquet on Thomas Kingston COLEMAN-On Archbishop of New York, Most Rev. contributed a good sum of money to his departure from Ballinalee, where Sept 26, at Glyntown Cottage, Rivers Dr Farley who has been a generous the Irish Parliamentary Fund. He estcem in which he is held by his Old Church, Passage WALSH-Oct celebrant was Rev. F Devine, Kead); candidates in 1879 The Lough Erne 5, at Kilgulane, Kate Walsh TWOHIG the deacon, the Rev. P Macken, Bally drainage yorks, of such benefit to the macnab; the sub-dearon, the Rev. farmers, were carried out through his Thomas Blacker, Saul, master of ceres offorts. He built the Innismore Via monies, Rev. P Loughlin, diocesan in-duct at a cost of $90,000, and spent ar spector. The following clergy also enormous sum in building a bridge in took part in the ceremonies: The Very to Achill Island. As a landlord he was Rev P. Kerley, Cullyhanna; the Very generous and voluntarily gave them remains to the New Cemetery being Carthy, aged 9 years. GOGGIN-On Rev Patrick Gogarty, Cullyhanna; a large sum of money in carrying out Oct. 8, at Egmont row, Kanturk, Mary Rev Arthur Smith, Newtownhamilton; improvements in the village of Lisbel-MEATH.-The death of Mrs. Bridget (loggin. FITZGERALD-On Oct. 5, at Rev P. McKee, Coalis) and. The music law, where he established a good liblate member for North Fermanagh.

MONAGHAN.—The dead body of nelly, the late parish priest of Lough James Jeacock, Jr., of Ballinagall, near Castle street, Tralee, occurred Oct. 6 departed priest, who had been in fail- Square, Monaghan, Sept. 27. How he > Michael Maguire, a farmer aged later he was found lying on the road.

Cahirciveen, and Rev. James O'Calla, Promoted to thep arish of Loughgilly, On Oct. 1 the lady pupils of the Conwhere he spent the remainder of his vent of St. Louis, Monaghan, paid a life. During all these years he proved visit to Killacoona House Annalore, himself the true pastor, beautifying residence of Mr. Felix P. Smyth. The party, in response to an invitation by Mr. and Mrs. Smyth, left the convent large number of priests and the crowds on six wagonettes, accompanied by the Sisters of Mercy, and journeyed via Clones, a distance of 14 miles, to Annalore. The party proceeded through Annalore, to the admiration of the inhabitants, who gave hearty welcome in old Irish fashion to the visitors. On arriving at Killacoona House they were cordially greeted by Mr. and Mrs. Smyth. A most enjoyable day was spent.

TYRONE.—A meeting of the members of the Knockmoyle branch of the United Irish League was held Oct. 4. Mr. Peter Curran, presided. Among those present were Peter Curran James French, James Doherty, Michael McDevitte, Patrick Ward, James Quinn. John O'Neill. J. J. Doherty James McCrory, ect. The principal item on the agenda paper was the con-Brady, Mrs. O'Callaghan, Mrs. Mc sideration of the recent land act, when after a discussion, it was adjourned