Deaths of Religious.

The funeral of Sister Mary Bernardine, the beautiful and accomplished daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Daley of Auburn, took place at Corning, N.Y. last Monday morning. While the convent bells were ringing, the funeral train slowly wended its way to the church, guarded on either side by the pupils of the school. It was a sight long to be remembered. At the church entrance and extending up the centre aisle to the sanctuary were lined the pupils of St. Mary Bernardine's class, together with seventy five sanctuary boys clad in their neat costumes. The casket bearers were six of the senior boys robed in purple and white, following the remains came the Sisters of Mercy from Corning, Rochester, Auburn, Elmira and Hornellsville, also the Sisters of St. Joseph, next came the parents, brothers and sisters, and other relatives and friends from Rochester, Auburn and Bolivar. In the sanctuary were the pastor, Rev. Father Bustin as celebrant of the solemn requiem mass, Rev. Father Naughton of Hornellsville, deacon, Rev. Fr. Wall, sub-deacon; Rev. Fr. Gefell of Canandaigua, master of ceremonies, and Rev. Fr. Klene of Elmira assistant master of ceremonies. Rev. Fathers Lee and Cassidy and many others were also present. The church presented a beautiful picture with its electric illuminations, neatness and order. The devotion and recollection of the children was a pleasing sight. The choir gave fine choral renditions. "Pater Noster" was very catholically rendered by Miss Agnes Conlon as the body was being borne from the church. At the grave the final prayers were chanted by Rev. Father Wall and Father Gefell. The grave was thickly lined with a mantle of green, while the arrangements around the grave and in cemetery were perfect. The great crowds of people, friends and relatives that attended the funeral showed the esteem, love and respect and how appreciated was the beautiful bride of Christ, who left home, loving parents and fond friends to devote her young life to the service of her Divine Master, and thus at the early age of seventeen her Lord finds her work complete and from His throne in heaven He waits the message: "Come, my love, my dove, my beautiful one, come to the home of thy Father and Spouse. Come to the reward of thy labor so generous and lovingly given, where separations and sorrows shall be no more, but peace and bliss everlasting shall greet thee on the heavenly shore."

Among those present from out of the city were the parents of the deceased, Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Daley, Katherine, Andrew and James Daley, Miss Lizzie Moore, the Misses Murphy, all of Auburn; Mrs. T. Calhoun, Frank and Katherine Calhoun, Mr. and Mrs. W. Mallon, Mr. and Mrs. D. Slattery, Mrs. M. Mahaney, Katherine and Celia Moore and Anna Daley, all of Rochester; Martin and Frank Moore of Bolivar.

A solemn requiem high mass celebrated by the Rev. George V. Burns of the Cathedral, Rev. John F. O'Henn, deacon, Rev. Michael Krieg of the Cathedral, sub-deacon, and Rev. Father Rawlinson of St. Mary's church, master of ceremonies. Present in the sanctuary were the Rev. Emil Gefel of St. Mary's Asylum, Rev. Augustine O'Neil of the Immaculate Conception church, and Rev. Joseph Gefel of St. Peter's and Paul's church. The final absolution was pronounced by Rev. Father O'Neil. Requiescat in pace.

HOMELY HINTS.

A good tooth powder may be cheaply prepared as follows: Take two ounces of prepared chalk, add to it half an ounce of powdered orris root and a quarter of an ounce of carbonate of soda. Mix and pass twice through a wire sieve.

Bread should never be covered with a cloth when taken from the oven, but laid on the side and allowed to become perfectly cold; then keep in a closely covered tin box; without any wrappings.

A neatly covered board that can be put through the soles of wash shirt waists is a decided help in ironing.

A paste for wall paper is made as follows: Moisten some starch with cold water till of the consistency of cream, then pour on boiling water and stir until it is quite smooth. Let it boil once, and just before taking it from the fire add a small quantity of powdered glue.
