A Merry Christmas to all!

A Joyous Feast. Probably the most joyous feast day in the Catholic calendar is Christmas. It marks the day on which the Incarnation was completed...

SILVER ANNIVERSARY. Interesting Event Celebrated by Rev. Wm. A. McDonald, of Geneva. Very Rev. William A. McDonald, pastor of St. Francis de Sales church and dean of Geneva, celebrated last Monday the silver anniversary of his ordination to the priesthood.

A Contributing Cause. Undoubtedly the burning, uppermost, ever present, most discussed phase of American economics just now is the relative relation of labor and capital.

Employers and economists and sociologists seem surprised that the employees are not better satisfied. "Work is plentiful and wages are higher than ever before."

Let us try to explain. In these days of opulence and athletics, it is not considered good form if a woman looks after her own house or is the mother of a family.

Silver Jubilee. The silver jubilee of Rev. James E. Hartley, pastor of St. Ann's church of Palmyra, took place at the rectory Monday.

Ordinations. Bishop McQuaid Saturday morning at 8 o'clock ordained to the priesthood four students of St. Bernard's Seminary.
