ELMIRA.

Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Richardson and Lettia Horgan are spending some time at Cambridge Springs.

The south side social club gave a very enjoyable leap year party at St. Mary's hall Friday evening. Ices and fancy cakes were served during the evening.

Children of Mary of St. Mary's parish, gave a banquet at St. Mary's hall Wednesday, from 5 to 8 o'clock. After an elegant spread, music and games were greatly enjoyed by those present.

Monday morning at 8 o'clock at St. Mary's church, mass was offered for William Sheehan, Tuesday for Michael Conway, Rev. M. O'Dwyer officiating. Next Sunday will be quarter collection for school fund.

Father Mathew ministrals furnish surprises every year to Elmira friends and before the F. M. S. hit upon the idea of producing an annual minstrel show, no one realized that there was so much talent tied up in that body of young men. Previous years have sufficed to establish an enviable reputation for the temperance boys as fun producers, and this year only adds to what is already theirs. They closed Thursday night after four successful nights, standing room only each night.

GENESEO.

The funeral of Jeremiah Cullinan was held from St. Mary's church Tuesday morning, with solemn requiem high mass, Rev. A. A. Hughes, celebrant, Rev. James M. Day of Mt. Morris, deacon, and Rev. Owen Farron, sub-deacon. The respect in which Mr. Cullinan was held was manifested in the large attendance at the funeral. The G. A. R. and business men of this place attended in body. Mr. Cullinan is survived by one son, Edward of New York, three brothers, Michael of Buffalo, Daniel of this town and Timothy of Caledonia, and two sisters, Mrs. Mary Collins and Mrs. Julia Detman, both of Buffalo.

Last Tuesday morning at ten o'clock at St. Rose's church in Lima Mr. Thomas Molonghney of this town and Miss Mary Maloney of Lima, were married by Rev. Father Fitzsimons of Lima.

ITHACA.

Tuesday morning at 8 o'clock an anniversary high mass was celebrated for the deceased Miss Laura Brissett. The marriage of Miss Margaret Burns and Mr. W. J. Burke took place last Wednesday at the church, the Rev. A. J. Evans officiating.

Next Tuesday, The Chimes of Normandy will be played at the Lyceum Opera House for the benefit of the church, under the management of J. A. Hennessy of Auburn.

Wednesday morning at 8 o'clock a month's mind high mass was said for the deceased Mr. Frank McNally.

The men and boys of the parish are invited to holy communion Sunday.

DANVILLE.

St. Mary's church is having a series of card parties for the new church fund. They are very enjoyable and well attended.

Mrs. Anthony Blum of Boston is visiting friends in town. Mr. and Mrs. D. Foley, assisted by Mrs. M. J. Mannin, entertained a large party of friends Tuesday evening.

Last Sunday Rev. Father Dunn remarked upon the large number of men and boys who received holy communion in honor of the Holy Name.

Next Sunday is the monthly communion Sunday of the Children of Mary. A good attendance is desired. We note that the children of our two schools, St. Mary's and St. Patrick's passed very successfully the Regents examination. Many of them attaining a standing of a 100 per cent.

The Catholic teachers who attended the institute held at Nunda, Feb. 1 to 5 were: The Misses Katherine A. Driscoll, Mary C. Cromer, Anna M. Brogan, Emma Shafer, Rose Triner. William E. Murphy, who has been at home for the past three weeks owing to the serious illness of his brother, returned to his position at Mt. Morris. Rev. Father Dunn preached an earnest and eloquent sermon Sunday on "The preparation for the holy season of Lent."

CALEDONIA. The popular Irish drama "Shann Aroon" presented Friday evening by St. Columba's Dramatic club was one of the best ever given here and was a success in every way. Following is a cast of characters: Shaun Aroon, James Wood; Lord Fermoy, Albert Gallagher; Fergus Roirdan, John Coffey; Daniel O'Grady, E. J. McLaughlin; Patrick, a servant, Mo. O'Donnell; Tom O'Grady, Daniel O'Donnell; Nipper, an officer, John McGovern; Hennings, a money lender, Leo Kelley; Mollie, Dan O'Grady's daughter, Mildred O'Donnell; Mrs. O'Grady, Anna Connor; Maggie, a jolly Irish girl, Lizzie Mack. The ladies of the parish served dinner from 5:30 to 7:30 p. m. also a late supper. Both were well patronized. Vocal and instrumental music was also given by Rochester talent.

Beware of Ointments for Catarrh that Contain Mercury.

As mercury will surely destroy the sense of smell and completely derange the whole system when entering it through the mucous surfaces. Such articles should never be used except on prescriptions from reputable physicians as the damage they will do is ten fold to the good they can possibly derive from them. Hall's Catarrh Cure, manufactured by F. J. Cheney & Co., Toledo, O., contains no mercury, and is taken internally, acting directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system. In buying Hall's Catarrh Cure be sure you get the genuine. It is taken internally and made in Toledo, Ohio, by F. J. Cheney & Co. Testimonials free. Sold by druggists, Price 75c per bottle. Take Hall's Family Pills for constipation.

BISHOP McQUAID ISSUES A PASTORAL LETTER

Plans Outlined for A New Institution and Directions Given as to How to Raise Funds—Two Fairs.

The following letter was read in all the churches Sunday:

To the Very Rev. and Rev. Pastors of the Churches in Rochester, and to their beloved Parishioners in Christ:

It will be borne in mind that in the past autumn a meeting of the pastors of the city churches was held in my house to determine what should be done to establish a suitable Home for the Aged, and the obtaining of the requisite funds for the same.

It was thought that two fairs, one on the west side of the city, and the other on the east side would accomplish most successfully the end in view. After some discussion it was judged prudent to postpone the holding of these fairs until Easter week, that by beginning preparations soon after the opening of the New Year, there would be ample time for canvassing the city and for the necessary preparations.

Colonial Hall and Fitzhugh Hall are engaged in advance for Easter week.

A Home for the Aged is a necessity demanded by our common brotherhood in the faith. We have cared for our orphaned children and for our sick; we are now called on in the same spirit of Christian charity to see that a suitable home is provided for our aged brethren no longer able to work for themselves, and who, having in their lifetime after their way, honorably spent their days in industrious employment, now find themselves unable longer to keep up the struggle for support. These are not of the class for whom the city and county provide homes at the public cost. These are they who having always loved their religion and its teachings, do not wish in their declining years to be deprived of the consolations to be found only in a home, with its chapel and the ministrations of religious, who well know how to make pleasant the last days of their venerable charges.

It is not necessary that I should make a lengthened argument to prove what is already a conviction in every Christian heart, throbbing with tender pity for the worn out and feeble, speaks more strongly than ought to be.

The present home on Main street east was never built for the purpose for which it is now used; it is four stories high, has many halls and stairs; the stables in charge find it almost impossible to care adequately for aged people, some of whom are bed-ridden, so far from the kitchen and the source of supplies. No transformation could ever adapt it to the use of a home for the old. To tear it down and rebuild would not be wise, for the site is too limited in extent for such an institution as Rochester, especially the Rochester of the future, needs.

A plot of ground, nine and a third acres on the west side of the Boulevard, just beyond the toll-gate has been bought. This site has many advantages. It will be ample for all future growth and development, the soil is light, sandy and dry, and the portions unoccupied by buildings will serve for the raising of vegetables and fruits, among which the old men who may be on the place will be able to work. It will have the benefit of the late breezes in the summer season. Its proximity to St. Bernard's seminary, less than half a mile away, will make it easy for the priests thereof to serve the home in all its religious needs.

It is proposed to erect at once, an administration building, two wings, each 45x100 feet, and chapel, 30x60 feet. These buildings, except the chapel, will be two stories high, with a basement, of fire-proof construction of brick, steel and cement. They will be heated by hot water, well ventilated, and furnished with all modern appliances, for convenience and comfort, demanded by the necessities of people of advanced years and of catholicity.

These first buildings will be for women; later on, as soon as the means can be found, there will be another for old men, and still later another for old married couples, not to separate man and wife even in old age.

The scheme is a large one, but undoubtedly within the means of the constantly increasing Catholic population of Rochester. We have just reason for relying on many of our non-Catholic fellow citizens for assistance in our undertaking, so humanitarian in character and appealing so feelingly to hearts naturally benevolent and beneficent.

A few weeks ago I had occasion to call the attention of the priests of the diocese to the need of a new St. Andrew's seminary, the present one being too small for the number of students, not healthy in location, and altogether unworthy of the good work accomplished in the past. I stated that ten thousand dollars would be the approximate cost of the building, and suggested that it would be worthy of the priests of the diocese themselves to pay this amount without any appeal to the laity.

Within three weeks the whole amount and more was subscribed by the priests with a cheerfulness and alacrity and demonstrated their generosity and wholesomeness in a work of religion and for the progress, and prosperity of the church's interest. I can deservedly hold them up to the admiration and applause of their parishioners through out the diocese.

After the illness from which I have suffered for the past three weeks, I am now, by order of my physician, to go to a milder climate to escape the frosty weather of Rochester, but I hope to be home before Easter, to witness with a glad heart the noble endeavor of the priests and people of Rochester to secure for our old people a home that will be all that it should be, and an establishment of which all of us can be proud before the Lord, in whose lessons of love and kindness we seek to be like unto Him.

Very sincerely in Christ,
B. J. McQuaid,
Bishop of Rochester.

Five Minute Sermon

Jesus Gives Sight to the Blind Man.

The blind man according to St. Gregory, was a figure of two things. In general, he represented the whole human race; in particular, he was a figure of those Christians who, blinded by the things of this world do not see the value of heavenly things.

The blind man saw neither the magnificence of his country, nor the road that leads to it, nor the face of any one from whom he could seek assistance. It is the same with Christians who are blinded by the things of this world. They find themselves in the bosom of the Church, but see not its beauties; they are on the road to heaven, but cannot advance one step; they wish for happiness, but know not the vanity, the impotence, the nothingness of riches, honors, and power, from which they hope for it in vain.

We should learn from this blind man never to let a favorable opportunity pass nor delay a single moment to implore the healing of our souls whenever God passes with His grace; we should learn to make ourselves heard by prayer, internal aspirations and by the voice of the priest.

In Memoriam.

The following resolutions were adopted by Council 40, C. R. & B. A.: Whereas, Almighty God in His infinite wisdom has been pleased to call unto Himself our past president, James M. First Comedian—I know something awfully funny. Second Comedian—What is it? First Comedian—Why, I was held up by a highwayman last night. But the joke was on him. I told him there was no use searching me as my wife had been through my pockets just five minutes before. Second Comedian—But I don't see that the joke was on him. It was on you. First Comedian—No, you're wrong. It wasn't on either of us. It was on my wife. There wasn't any money in my pockets to begin with.—Detroit Free Press.

What Did He Want?
A certain professor is a very absent-minded man. He was busily engaged in solving some scientific problem. The servant hastily opened the door of his studio and announced a great family event.

THE PEOPLE of the State of New York, by the Grace of God free and independent, to John Barry, Peter Barry and Patrick Barry, their respective executors, administrators, widows, heirs at law and next of kin, or other persons interested in their respective estates, if dead, and Michael Burke, whose residence is unknown, husband, heirs at law and next of kin of Bridget Burke, send greeting.

Whereas Sister Marie Smith and John S. Keenan, the Executors named in a certain instrument in writing, bearing date December 19, 1900, purporting to be the last Will and Testament of said Bridget Burke late of the City of Rochester in said County of Monroe and State of New York, deceased, and relating to both real and personal estate, has lately made application to the Surrogate of said County of Monroe, to have said instrument proved and recorded as a Will of personal and real estate, you and each of you are cited and required to appear before the Surrogate of the County of Monroe, at his office in the City of Rochester, in said County of Monroe, New York, on the 27th day of March 1904, at 10 o'clock in the forenoon of that day, and there to attend the probate of said Will and Testament. And if any of the aforesaid persons are under the age of twenty-one years, or insane or otherwise incompetent, they will please take notice that they are required to appear by their general guardian, if they have one, and if they have none, that they appear and apply for the appointment of a special guardian, so a special guardian will be appointed by the Surrogate to represent and act for them in the proceedings for the probate of said Will.

In testimony whereof, we have caused the seal of the Surrogate of the County of Monroe, to be hereunto affixed.
Witness, Hon. George A. Benton, Surrogate of said County, at the City of Rochester, this 4th day of January in the year of our Lord, one thousand nine hundred and four.
