Brackett and His "Morality Bill."

Semator Edgar T Brackett, a good pious Methodist of Baratoga has introduced a hill in the state legislature, the object of which, he save, is to provide for '"teaching morality' 'in the public schools of the state.

The Saratoga statesman would insist further that "no license be issued in morality."

That's very pretty but who is to as certain and certify that teachers are "proficient in morality?"

Upon what points are they to be to govern it." examined and upon what system of morality is the new department to be based?

Is it to be the Methodist brand of morality? Or will the text for proficiency be whether the schoolma'ams bebe asked if they believe in the latest are entitled to govern it." dootrines as laid down by Brahma?

Or will a knowledge of the "Saratoga" Code of Morals'' be insisted upon as a pre-requisite for a license to teach?

Would Senator Brackett ask that proficiency in the code of ethics he preaches indirectly in Saratoga by his arduous efforts to second Canfield be included in the public school curriculum?

And, finally, would he be satisfied if the Rev. Dr. Charles R. Parkhurst, Dr. Charles R. Skinner (minus the Rev.) the Rev. Minot J. Savage, the Rev. O. P. Gifford (of Buffalo endless chain and Albany lobby fame) the Hon. Richard'Canfield, the Hon. Perhaps Brother Brackett would be better satisfied if the Hon. William most" wide open" city in the United States were added to the Board?

Credulous.

In a recent lecture in Buffalo, Rev. Dr. Holmes, of Poughkeepsie, was reported as saying:

"of each man in the past. In our own age each seeks the welfare of the others."

The reverend gentleman either is over credulous or he has a queer idea of how "each seeks the welfare of the other."' Does he contend that the western cold storage cornerers who have forced up the price of eggs and all other food stuffs to such a point that many poor people are compelled to subsist on half rations "seek the welfare of the others?" Or is his idea that one member of the "cornering syndicate' is seeking the welfare of the others?

Lesson We Should Learn.

Last week Rochester was visited by one of the worst fires in its history in point of loss to property.

This week rising phoenix like from the ashes, work is already begun on buildings to replace the burned ones. American activity and energy does not rest idle long even under adverse conditions which might discourage more phlegmatic people.

Whatever faults Mark Hanna may have possessed he was a ''square man'' and always fought in the open. There are few living politicians of whom this can be said, trut hfully.

A French translator of President Roosevelt's works appended a foot note that the Golden Rule was one of the Aphorisus at tributed to Pythagoras. No wonder the French atheists are so eager to crush out the Christian schools.

Bad as ritualistic Episcopalians are they may not be spoken of in the same breath as the "low church bigots."
