Nickel Plate Road's new tourist sleeping cars. If you expect to take advantage of the low colonist rates to the Pacific Coast, write R. E. Payne, General Agent, 291 Main St., Buffalo, N. Y. For particulars regarding their splendid tourist sleeping cars. They afford a comfortable journey at a very low cost.

An Ancient Giant.
The complete skeleton of a human giant has been found at Holbeah, England, a little Lincolnshire town between Lynn and Spalding, during excavations for the foundations of two new houses. Every bone was in perfect condition, and not a tooth was missing. The skeleton measured 7 feet 2 inches in length. A curious key five inches long with triangular handle was found near the bones. Staked to the famous antiquary who was born at the spot where the discovery has just been made records a Roman Catholic chapel dedicated to St. Peter, formerly stood. Other human remains have been previously unearthed on the same spot.

A Queen's Correspondence.
Queen Alexandra is a most indefatigable letter writer. Thirty or forty letters from her pen are no unusual daily occurrence, and she often sends off a number of telegrams, too, while Miss Knollys, who is her favorite attendant, has often written over 100 letters a day, all of which are under a special personal supervision. The queen writes very particular about her writing paper, and only likes to use one particular sort which is rather rough, of a creamy color, with the address stamped in red at one corner. She writes often in the most affectionate strain and she has several friends whom she calls by their Christian names. Exchange.

A Relic of Nero.
The Italian government has undertaken excavations on the site of the Campus Martius, and has discovered remains and foundations of the monument erected by the Roman senate in B. C., under the consulship of Nero and Quintillus in honor of the Emperor Augustus after his victories in Spain and Gaul. The remains now discovered, together with those collected in 1850, and preserved in museums, are sufficient to allow of the reconstruction of the monument, which is symbolic of peace, and it is hoped to complete the work on the occasion of the czar's visit.

A Pungent Record.
A bride in some parts of Switzerland receives from her friends a Gruyere cheese. It is not eaten, but is preserved by her, and all the important family events are marked on the rind.—Exchange.

Special low rates via the Nickel Plate Road to points in the West and Southwest. Round trip Homeseeker's and one-way colonist tickets on sale March 15th and April 5th and 19th. Also Settlers' one-way tickets to points in Minnesota, North and South Dakota and Wyoming each Tuesday during March and April. Write R. E. Payne, General Agent, 291 Main St., Buffalo, N. Y.

Sound reasons for the Nickel Plate Road's popularity. In making a long railway journey, the two principal points to be considered are Cost and Comfort. The first of these is the least, and the second the greatest, if you select the Nickel Plate Road. For the rates to whatever point you wish to reach are always the lowest via that line. And the degree of comfort is greatest, not only on account of an excellent roadbed and the highest standard of equipment but from the fact that your welfare is personally looked after throughout the journey.

If you contemplate a trip to any part of the West, full information as to rates, service, etc., will be cheerfully furnished on application to R. E. Payne, General Agent, 291 Main St., Buffalo, N. Y.

Wormwood's animal circus is sure to please the children. Eckhoff and Gordon, musical entertainers, McIntyre, and Primrose black-face comedians and others are on the list. Matinee daily.

National Theatre.
At the National Theatre next week comes "The Smart Set" a company of fifty colored singers, dancers and comedians presenting a beautifully mounted musical farce comedy. Matinee Monday and Wednesday.

The National Theatre's offering for the last part of next week is Julia Arthur's production of the romantic drama "More Than Queen" This will be the first time that the play has been produced at popular prices. Matinee Thursday and Saturday.

BAKER THEATRE.
The Davis-Boyle stock company will open its regular season at the Baker Theatre next Monday matinee, March 14th, with a magnificent production of "Jim Bludso" of "The Prairie Belle" a dramatization of John Hay's "Pike County Ballads" This scenic, sensational success is a play of life and action. There is not a dull moment in it. Matinees will be given on Monday, Tuesday, Thursday and Saturday. Popular prices the same as last season 10 cents. Evenings 15 and 25 cents.

Read this if you are going West. Now is an excellent time to make a trip to the West or Southwest, and for the benefit of those wishing to go to that part of the country a look for farm lands, business locations, or for pleasure, the Nickel Plate Road has arranged to sell round trip Homeseeker's tickets at extremely low rates on March 1st and 15th, and April 5th and 19th.
