SHORT SERMONS.

What we call evils, as poverty, neglect and suffering, are, if we are wise, opportunities for good.

Our influence is measured and expressed by our example. We can lead others no further than we go ourselves. The night is the day for us when God is in our bearts, and the day is the night for us when He is not there. Defer not charities till death, for certainly, if a man weigh it rightly, he that doth so is rather liberal of another man's than his own.

The primary consideration is not how one shall get a living, but how shall he needful he shall easily find.
