The entertainment consisted of solos by Miss Effa Yawman, Mrs. Ferguson, Mrs. Gilbert, recitation by Elmer Smith, jig by Charles McNamara, song by Weber quartette, and echoes from fatherland by the two German comedians Bogner and Zimmer. Lunch was served after which followed dancing, bowling and card playing. The knights are entitled to a large amount of credit for the way they entertained their friends.

ST. JOSEPH'S.

This evening at 7 o'clock there will be rosary and benediction.

To-morrow morning at 8 o'clock there will be a solemn high mass during which the children will receive their first holy communion. This mass at 8 o'clock necessitates some change in the order of masses for to-morrow. Accordingly there will be low masses at 7:30 and 6:30 o'clock. At 8 there will be a solemn high mass and at 11 there will be a low mass. Consequently there will be no 9 o'clock mass to-morrow.

To-morrow afternoon there will be solemn vespers, sermon, renewal of baptismal vows and benediction.

To-morrow will be communion and conference day for the young men of the Holy Family and communion day for the boys of the Sunday school.

The graduation exercises of our school will take place next Tuesday in our hall on Franklin St. All members of the congregation are invited to attend so that the children may know that the people are interested in their work.

IMMACULATE CONCEPTION.

To-morrow afternoon at 4 o'clock, the Young Ladies' Sodality will hold its regular monthly meeting.

The members of the Sodality are invited to receive Holy Communion in the morning.

The last mass to-morrow will be the First Solemn High Mass celebrated by Rev. George T. Jones.

The sermon will be delivered by Very Rev. Thomas F. Hickey of the Cathedral.

Father Jones said his first mass at St. Patrick's Orphan Asylum. On June 24th he will celebrate mass at Seneca Falls, N. Y.

The members of the Young Ladies' Sodality with their friends spent a very enjoyable evening on last Tuesday. A debate was held on the following topic: Resolved, that music is more ennobling than any other of the fine arts. Miss Mary Darby led the positive side, and Miss Jennie Wright the negative. The speakers on the negative side took up the fine arts of poetry, painting, architecture, literature, etc., and attempted to prove them more powerful as ennobling forces than music. Some excellent arguments were presented by speakers on both sides, and the rebuttal following was very interesting. Rev. Fathers O'Herne, O'Neill and Eckel were present. The decision was made in favor of the affirmative by Reverend Father O'Herne acting as judge.

Tickets are being sold for the closing exercises of the school, which will be held one week from Monday night—June 27th. A large number of the seats will be reserved this year, and tickets for these should be procured as soon as possible. The exercises promise to be very entertaining. There will be a large class of graduates, and a splendid drama, entitled "The Witch of Bramble Hollow," will be presented.
